An Important Decision.

The case of Neal against J H Foster and others recently tried in the United States District Court, was on Wednesday morning decided by the referee in favor of the plaintiff. The case was brought in the in terest of divers creditors in Linn county by Mr Neal, of California, to whom their accounts had been transferred, to set aside the conveyance of the Magnolia Mill property and Foster's block, in this city, made by Mr Foster to J A Crawford and William Crawford, just previous to the failure of Mr Foster about five years ago.

The property is valued at about $75,000, and, under this decision, will be in the same condition as preyious to the transfer; hence subject to the claims of the many creditors of Mr Foster. The case, it is reported, will culture and it rejoices over the fact. be appealed, when the decision is confirmed, to the Supreme Court, in which case several years would elapse before a final decision.
