IN MEMORIAM.

This very devoted christian lady, wife of There is a clerk in a Breadway hotel who boasts of getting $1,500 worth of clothes free each year. "Given me," he says, "because I steer people to a certain store." This same son, A. J. Parker, at Centerville, Or., Oct. came on, reaching their destination and lo-cating in Albany, Linn county, Oregon, On June 3rd, 1868, she was married to her surviving husband, Mr. McClain. In her 8th year she united with the Missionary Baptist Church, before leaving Iowa. In 1866 she presented her letter to the First Baptist Church of Albany, Oregon, Dr. R. C. Hill in charge, where her membership mained until she was recognized with that numerable company of the "Church Triumphant" During her probationary state here she ever proved faithful to her "covvenant" engagements with her God and the Church. Her health had been on the decline for many years previous to her death, but she invariably manifested a weet submissive spirit to the will of the Lord in all of her afflictions. By an urgent request of her physician, her husband start-ed from their home, Lebanon, Linn county, Following is the new schedule of time by on the 11th inst. for Centerville, Oregon Alrany, Oregon.
