A MEAN FIRE.

Albany's first fire of any moment for over five years occurred in this city last Tuesday morning. At about 1:30 o'clock Mr John Schmeer, who had just been awakened by the blowing of a river steamer, saw from his bed room window in the rear of his store a light flash up from the rear of M. Peyser's saloon, just west, and heard a small explosion. Going to his rear west porch the rear of the saloon was found to be in flames and the smell of kerosene was way strong. An alarm was given and the fire department was promptly on hand and did some splendid work, confining the flames to two or three small buildings in a range of six frames. This in face of a lack of water In the nearest cistern. Mr Wm Vance handed the department a $30 piece in appreciation of their saving his block, The buildings occupied by Thos Jones, barber-W B Scott, gun store, M Peyser, saloon, owned by Judge R S Strahan, and H Flindt, bost and shoe shop owned by Ashby Pearce were practically consumed. The Vance block and the building occupied by the Misses Howard were scorched some. Nearly all of Thos Jones' barber outfit, about a fourth of Mr Scott's goods, a few of Mr Flindt's tools, the Misses Howard's millinery goods and Mrs O'Conner's millinery goods were saved, though all somewhat damaged. All of Mr Peyser's saloon outfit and Otto Salinger's stock of cigars, to-bacco, etc., were consumed. The losses may be placed as follows : Judge R S Strahap, two buildings, $1800. Ashby Pearce, damage to buildings,$300. No insurance. Wm'Vance, damage to block, $50. No insurance.
