

LOCAL RECORD.

SAD SUICIDE.—Mr. Wm. Moore, postmaster at Roseburg was in receipt of a letter from Pineville this week informing him of the suicide of Charles M. Stevens, some forty miles from Paisley, Lake county, on May 1st. It appears that Mr. Stevens was traveling and fell in with some immigrants and remained with them two days. He had evidently been drinking very heavily and being without liquor on the second day he displayed symptoms of derangement. On the morning of the third day at about four o'clock he arose to go out and look after his horse, returning to bed, he had partly covered himself with the bedclothes when he shot himself through the head with a pistol. He lived eight hours unconscious all the time. On his body were found $24 in money, a note for $300, and he also had a horse and buggy. From the papers discovered, it was found that he was a former resident of Roseburg, and hence the letter to the postmaster. Mr. Stephens was raised in Douglas county and was a brother of Mrs. W. F. Owens of this city, and was well known throughout the country, and his tragic death is greatly deplored.—Review.

PIIONEERS.—Pioneer readers of the DEMOCRAT will please take notice of the following taken from the Crawfordville correspondence in the Lebanon Express of last week: "The Association formed here last fall, known as the Linn County Pioneers, will meet here for a picnic the 27th of June, holding over till the 30th. The citizens of this place will do all in their power to make it a success. It would be well for the old pioneers to begin to patch their tents, grease their frying pans and feed up the old oxen, so as to be on hand. In a few more years pioneer meetings will be a thing of the past. We hope there will be a large number here at that time; there were about 45 members enrolled here last fall, that being the first meeting and late in the fall, there was not a very good turnout. Many one in the county within their name enrolled before the picnic, they can have it attended to by writing to R. Glass, President, or Rev. R. Robe, Secretary. In writing give name, age, address, and the county the plains. Further particulars will be given from time to time as the committees make the arrangements." This is an association our old citizens should labor to build up.

NONBODY'S FOOL.—Mr. Sol. Cook who lives in the Cascade foothills above Silverton, has a hog that is nobody's fool. He also has a cow that is in cahoots with the hog in the milk business. Happening out in a pasture in which hogs and cattle were running together one day last week, Mr. Cook observed a yearling stock serenely sucking a milk cow. Approaching nearer he watched the proceeding with considerable interest, the cow appearing to submit to the matter with great complacency. How the hog learned the trick, is a mystery, but certain it is that he had a soft thing on the lacteal food. Hereafter, the hog and cow will occupy separate lots.—Silverton.

WOULD MARRY OR DIE.—A few days ago a young man hired a team at Schmeer's livery stable with which to go to Corvallis. We understand he secured a marriage license, and just before leaving the stable remarked to a gentleman standing near that he loved a young lady at Corvallis, and that he was going there and marry her or die. As she had seven big brothers he considered the undertaking a desperate one. He went and several hours afterwards Mr. S. received a telegram, to that effect that he had done so and found the young man under arrest. He brought his team home himself. There was no wedding and no one died.

JUDGED DENNY.—Some time ago we mentioned the fact that Judge Denny would return to Oregon, but in a letter received at Salem dated Seoul, Cora, April 12th, he says, that owing to a sudden change in the business affairs of the government, the King says that it is impossible for him to be allowed to leave at present. Judge Denny adds that he does not wish to leave the King in his present struggle for national existence. If his health keeps good he will remain in Corea some time longer.

SHEEP SHEARING.—The sale of sheepskins in this city is an indication of what is going on through the country. The clipping has begun, and though Linn county flocks are small the proceeds of the clip help the farmer to meet his expenses. The price in the Albany market is about 16 cents; but this is probably low water mark and a some what higher price will prevail as the season advances. The sheep are being shorn in the city, and the wool is being packed in bales for shipment.

A WILL CASE.—The cost of the Christian will case, recently decided in the supreme court, on appeal from Lane county was about $1000, including attorney's fees. The attorney's fee on the sale of the will was about $4000. If the contestants paid as much for attorney's fees the other costs must have been $2000. There was about $3000 of the estate left after paying the costs, to divide as the court directed, the total amount having been about $4000.

BROUGHT A FLAG BACK.—Saturday the Albany delegates to the State W. C. T. U. returned from Eugene with reports of a very successful meeting, there being about fifty delegates present. They brought with them a beautiful flag, six by twelve feet in size, with a long white ribbon attached to the bottom, bearing the following explanatory inscription: "Linn county, Oregon. Banner Prohibition County, 1887—From State W. C. T. U." An account of the presentation of the same is given in another column. All speak in very high terms of the treatment received at the hands of the hospitable people of Eugene.

THE LATEST.—Mr. Henry McIlwain has shown us a Rockford, Ill., paper, in which a correspondent says the Oregon farmers are the wisest in the world, that when apples were $15 a box they would save some of them; but with them at $5 a box they allow them to rot. This is a fair sample of the Eastern liar. At $1 a box last year the farmers generally at least in this part of Oregon saved their apples. There are lazy farmers here as elsewhere; but it is not the rule, and if the Illinois man will come out here we will put an extra head on him.

HOPS.—Mr. Farley McKnight, who came in from Lebanon Saturday informs us that hops through the county never looked better, and the prospects for a big crop are fine. In fact everything is fairly growing with a bound, wheat, oats, barley, fruit and the DEMOCRAT's subscription list.

WIFE.—A reader of the DEMOCRAT wants to know why it is not the correct thing to say Mr. Mary Smith when the woman wears the breeches, as it were, if it is proper to say Mrs. John Smith, when the gentleman is at the head of affairs, and really, we give it up.

LOWMAN DANCING ACADEMY is open every 5, tuesday night from 8 to 12 o'clock. W. W. CROWDER, Manager.

A GOOD MOVE.—A petition is being circulated in this city and generally signed, addressed to the management of the O & C R R Co., asking that the Lebanon branch of that road be extended to Sodaville, thereby offering to Valley people means of reaching that increasingly popular summer resort without having to resort to stages and animal conveyances. The movement is one it is to be hoped will prove successful, and we are satisfied that at least during the summer months it would more than double the business of this branch road. Sodaville has advantages for becoming one of the best places of resort in the State, and it only needs this road to place it in front.

THE 4TH.—What shall we do on the 4th of July, that is the question. The next thing to a home celebration, and this seems to be the offer of year, would be an excursion to Yaquina Bay. We need more ocean ozone, and hence this would be the proper direction in which to travel. Yesterday a DEMOCRAT man was talking with Mr. Stewart, of the Oregon Pacific, and he stated that the Company would be glad to make such an excursion if it is what we want. He thinks perhaps the excursion could be made for something like $3, at which we predict it would take a long train to carry it. The matter is worth waiting.

ONE IN OREGON.—A few days ago an article in the Oregonian on "Quadrant's raid on Lawrence, Kan.," during the rebellion, stated that all of Quadrant's band but two were now residing in Missouri, and gave the residence of those two. Now as a matter of fact there is another member of that celebrated band residing in Linn county, being Mr. Tim Kelley, who lives near Jefferson. If the Oregonian will confer with Mr. Fred Egert, of its city, who was a clerk in Lawrence at the time and is now near being relieved of his breath, it will be able to verify this fact, as Mr. Egert has talked with Tim on the subject and is familiar with his part in the raid.

WEDDING AT THE BRICK YARD.—Sun day afternoon at 2 o'clock Mr. Charles Berry, son of John Berry, and Miss Jennie Ricks, both of this county, were united in marriage, Geo. Humphrey, Esq., performing the ceremony in the presence of a large number of friends, some of whom had been conveyed with considerable style on a city truck, with a bell, to the scene of the wedding, while others walked. It was reported as passing off in good shape, leaving Charley the happiest fellow in Linn county.

A BIG MOVE.—One of the heaviest pieces of dry work ever done in Albany was performed a few days ago by Crocker & Allen who moved N H Allen's new engine from the depot to the headquarters of his electric light system. The boiler and engine weighing about 22,000 pounds, the boiler alone weighing 10,000 pounds. It is sixteen feet long and over five in diameter. The engine is a 60 horse power. The work of moving these large pieces of machinery was successfully performed without any mishap, and we plead guilty of dereliction of duty in not mentioning the fact before.

A WHEAT POOL.—Tuesday Mr. M. C. Chambers, of East Albany precinct, and several of his neighbors, made up a pool of 7,000 bushels of No. 1 wheat stored in the Farmers' Warehouse, at this city, and in the afternoon opened bids on the same. Mr. George Simpson's bid was 65 1/2 cents and he received the lot. The highest bid by Portland men was 63 cents, but Mr. Simpson tells a DEMOCRAT man that the Pacific Coast market justifies what he paid in large sales. Farmers who can get this price will probably do well to sell, accepting the present indications as a guide.

A DELIVERY BUSINESS.—Mr. Archie Blackburn has sold his delivery outfit in this city to Mr. George Warren, recently of Brownsville Precinct, who will take charge of the same the first of next month. Mr. Warren is a reliable, steady gentleman, a former resident of this city, and may be depended on to do prompt work.

$500 HERE.—The Albany Farmers' and Merchants' Insurance Co. had $500 placed in Goldenale at the time of the recent fire, on part of which it will lose. Considerable of the amount was returned in other Companies, so that the loss will not be great. Mr. Elderkin is now in the Territory and will probably adjust the loss in a few days, and which the amount of the loss can not be ascertained.

Y. W. C. T. U. ENTERTAINMENT.—The young ladies of this Union will give one of their popular social entertainments at the W. C. T. U. hall on this Friday evening. Besides the usual large amount of sociability games, etc., there will be rendered a program with some unique features to it. Friends of the Union should make it a point to be present.

IN OHIO.—Last evening Mr. L. E. Blain received a letter from Mr. D. P. Porter, of Shedd, dated at Rockland, Ohio, in which he gave an interesting description of his trip and experiences. He said he must have passed through the best part of Southern California and Texas in the night time. He had attended a big centennial celebration in Ohio, where he saw and saw with higher pride the great and famous celebrities, and was having a fine time.

DUST.—The dust has begun to fly through the city, and a general sprinkle would not hurt things. People who buy their groceries of Conn Bros., though, hardly notice the presence of this unwelcome guest. Fresh, pure goods at bottom prices make us forget the use of life. If you ever feel dependent call on Conn Bros. and the load will be lifted.

CORRECT.—The Eugene Guard says the clerk's office in this county has been kept by Mr. Galbraith in good condition as any in the state. Better than in nineteen out of twenty counties. Mr. G. is as competent a clerk as there is in the state without any exception.

STATE W. C. T. U.

EUGENE CITY, Or., May 11th, EVENING SESSION.

After music, Mrs. Driggs delivered an address on "Scientific Temperance," which was very interesting. She illustrated with reports without having to resort to stages and animal conveyances. The movement is one it is to be hoped will prove successful, and we are satisfied that at least during the summer months it would more than double the business of this branch road. Sodaville has advantages for becoming one of the best places of resort in the State, and it only needs this road to place it in front.

After this came the presentation of the flag which was presented to Linn county delegates by Rev. Wire, of Eugene, in a neat and fluent speech. After which Mrs. T. J. Wilson received the banner.

We were unable to obtain a copy of his speech and did not take notes, hence cannot report it. Mrs. Wilson's acceptance brought down the house. Here it is: It was my fortune last fall to be present at the National Convention in Nashville, Tenn., when the beautiful banners were presented to the States who had made the largest per cent in increase of membership during the year, and as the ladies were called forward almost without a moment's warning to present and receive the beautiful gifts in the presence of an immense audience, I blessed my lucky stars that Oregon would receive no such recognition! And last summer and fall we so earnestly longed for the success of the amendment, that we honestly hoped some other county would receive this beautiful gift. But since it has fallen to us it is with pleasure and pride I receive it from you in the name of dear old Linn. And will you pardon me if I take the opportunity to say why in my opinion Linn county voted two to one for Prohibition.

Was it because we were well organized? Yes. Was it because all worked together with such energy that by and by the current was almost irresistible? Yes. Was it because almost every minister in Linn county found time to ride miles in the dust and heat to address school house audiences? Yes. Was it because our singers (otherwise called the Linn county mob) took time to accompany our speakers and sing the Gospel of Prohibition? Yes. Was it because they considered it a duty to be in line for Prohibition? Yes. Was it because we had more women's Christian Temperance Unions in our county than any other county in the State, and that they were far from standing in the front ranks and, or stand behind and push as seemed best? Yes. But underlying it all was the Christian sentiment of Linn county. If I am not mistaken there is a larger proportion of church members in our county than in any other of the State. My faith in the success of temperance work is founded on my faith in the success of Christ's cause on earth. My faith in the Woman's Christian Temperance Union is founded on our faith that to uplift humanity we must draw them near to God. There is no other way by which a man is brought to realize the necessity that is laid on him to make the best of himself, or the responsibility of elected a republican member from the Second ward, went over to the democrats to-night, and so broke the deadlock and elected William J. Meade, the present incumbent. Col. J. M. Stead, republican from the Fourth ward, after scoring Coughran, voted for Jeff Davis and then tendered his resignation and left the council chamber, declaring he would not sit in a body of mugwumps. The present council was elected after a hard fight on straight party lines, and hence Stiles' indignation.

EXPLODED.—News was received here Tuesday of the accidental shooting of Frank Mack, brother of Wm. Mack, of this city, while hunting yesterday forenoon, placing a lighted pipe in a side pocket containing some cartridges one of them was exploded, injuring one of his fingers as well as his body.

Mr. Chas. Johnson, who came over from Scio Wednesday states that Mack is quite seriously wounded, and that he is in a body of mugwumps. Besides losing the finger of the right hand something went into his abdomen and had not been found. The shells were paper shot shells. In his pocket was a small gun screw driver, and only part of which was found in his side pocket afterwards, and it is thought the remainder is what is in him.

ARE YOU INSURED.—It is getting dry and your property should be insured. You cannot afford to carry your own insurance, The Albany Farmers' and Merchants' Insurance Company can afford to do it for you. Being absolutely reliable, backed by the square mile, it is the company to insure in.

CITY DREG STORE.—Mr. Milt Miller is entirely renovating his new drug store, refitting it and making into one of the neatest places of the kind in the state. He has one of the 2000 candle arc lights up, and proposes to sell goods at prices to suit the trade. Call on him.

ANOTHER LEBANONIAN.—A DEMOCRAT man is informed that Mr. G. W. Smith, the well known Lebanon stove man, will move to Albany this year, and start a stove and tin store in the place now occupied by Foshy & Mason.

ENGAGED.—The engagement of Miss Bertha Neugas, of Corvallis and Joseph Greenburg of San Francisco, is announced. The DEMOCRAT unites with friends in Albany in extending congratulations.

Our complete stock of boots and shoes at BROWNELL & STANARD'S. AN EXPENSIVE FIRE. A little but very expensive fire occurred at the office of the O. R. & N. Co. Friday night, occasioned by the explosion of a coal oil lamp. Quite a lot of papers were burned, also $215 in greenbacks. One hundred and eighty-five dollars in coin was saved. It occurred about 11 o'clock. The money belonged to the Company.

Hereafter we will allow all cash purchases of goods at our store 5 per cent off from regular price. BROWNELL & STANARD. We want... Farmers to know that they can buy us boots and shoes cheaper than anywhere else in town and get a rebate of 5 per cent for cash. BROWNELL & STANARD.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

A Cyclone. CHICAGO, May 11.—A cyclone of tremendous force swept over Northern Indiana to-night. The telegraph wires throughout a considerable extent are prostrated, and the extent of its ravages can only be formed from a few scattering reports. At Waukegan, a train of the Nickel Plate railroad, a load of sixteen freight cars was lifted from the track and distributed across the surrounding prairie. At Walalah a number of houses were unroofed.

Crops in the East. ST. PAUL, May 13.—After fifteen days continued rain in Minnesota and Dakota, the weather has suddenly become extremely cold, the thermometer registering below the freezing point. In Southern Minnesota the farmers are much discouraged over the outlook. Some say they will not attempt to finish seeding. In all the river counties the ground is so wet that farmers cannot get into their fields, and when it is dry enough to work it will be too late to do so. In Iowa, the weather is improving, and to-morrow, Friday & Saturday, a heavy rain is expected to fall over the State.

Found. LOS ANGELES, May 12.—N. G. Yocum, a heavy real estate operator of Pasadena, whose mysterious disappearance last fall caused quite a sensation, has been located. He is at Menomoth, Oregon, where he has been living ever since his sudden departure from Pasadena. At the time of his disappearance many rumors were rife, one that he had been murdered for money. He has been located at many places, but each report, until the last, has proved false.

Raging Mississippi. ST. LOUIS, May 14.—The river is steadily rising here, and the inhabitants on the American bottoms are moving all of their portable property back to the high land. Reports from the north are alarming, and if the levee on Madison lake breaks loose the damage will be in the millions. The regular exodus has taken place from the city bottom. The entire town of Alexandria, Missouri, is inundated with five feet of water and the damage is very heavy. The people are being taken as fast as possible to the high land, a couple of miles back in town. The city levee is now being patrolled for miles by sentinels, whose duty it is to summon assistance when any weak spot is discovered.

TACOMA, W. T., May 14.—After four hundred ballots had been taken in the attempt to elect a city clerk, J. D. Coughran, the newly elected republican member from the Second ward, went over to the democrats to-night, and so broke the deadlock and elected William J. Meade, the present incumbent. Col. J. M. Stead, republican from the Fourth ward, after scoring Coughran, voted for Jeff Davis and then tendered his resignation and left the council chamber, declaring he would not sit in a body of mugwumps. The Sisters' school in this city are making preparations for an entertainment at the opera house on June 7. Program later.

Tickets for the program's excursion to Salem on the 25th inst., can be purchased at most of the stores in the city. Round trip $1. Rev. Geo. H. Lee, of Corvallis, brother of Prof. Lee, of this city, has accepted a position as pastor of the Presbyterian church at Pendleton. You will save money by taking your sick sewing-machine to the repairer, H. P. Parsons at Sixth and Jefferson Streets, Albany, Oregon. Good satisfaction or no pay. Mr. Fred Keebler, of Adams, Umastla county, is in the county on a visit with relatives. The DEMOCRAT received a call on Tuesday from Albany.

The O. & C. railroad will probably be taken out of the hands of the receiver next month, when it is expected several branch lines will be constructed. The new Salem depot will be built on the site of the old one, the very worst in the neighborhood of that city. Salem needs street cars just for its depot. An account of ill health Mr. Chase has discontinued his business. He has gone to his partner Mr. Kenton. Mr. Kenton will conduct the rapidly increasing business hereafter.

The entertainment given by the Saturday Laborers at the Baptist church on Saturday evening was one highly enjoyed by the good sized audience that attended. There were many pretty parts to the program, conferring credit on the participants and management. Everybody from the country remarks how fine crops are looking. Not a thing that grows but is fairly booming all over the country—wheat, oats, barley, hops, apples, peaches, etc.

A big grape picnic will be given at Blvins bridge on June 7. This is one of the finest places in the county for a picnic, and our grape friends can depend on a large crowd from Albany. Mr. Chas J. Stuart, for some time agent at this city for the Oregon Pacific has accepted the position of general traveling agent, succeeding Mr. Ross. Mr. Stuart is a well known and successful business man, and will do good service for the company. When pamphlets descriptive of Linn county's resources, or articles are published, they should be honest, fair statements of the situation, and not high colored, overdone affairs, which are always reacting. "Toll the truth." Dr. Hill was called Saturday to see Nim Payne who is suffering very much with a chronic disease of the leg. He found it necessary to lance the leg below the knee and into the bone, from which the pus flowed freely. While suffering very much the attack is no dangerous.

The Lebanon Episcopals recently put the democratic ticket at the head of its columns, and on several Lebanon republicans demanding an explanation, said it was there as an advertisement. By the way, ads are not generally put at the head of editorial columns; but it is business though for a paper to put its own wherever they will command the best use of the year's Sarapallia. The literary and social entertainment given at the college chapel Friday evening was one of the most interesting we have ever attended at that place, and conferred great credit on the faculty and students. The recitals from Shakespeare particularly were of a high order and of a nature to give character to the program. Without specifying particularly the meritorious parts of the program we give it entire though much of it deserved special mention. The college is in a flourishing condition, and the entertainment given by the two literary societies is no small evidence of it.
