

The Democrat.

FRIDAY, JUNE 1, 1888

SIZES & NOTING.
NAMES and Proprietors.

A FARE—A Democrat man was one of a party who attended the so-called spring match at the Opera House Friday evening. A more humorous joke than the whole concern was never perpetrated on the people of Albany. As we predicted in a recent issue it was a tame affair, and more so. A more evasive crowd never conducted an exhibition in Albany. First was a wrestling match, catch-as-catch-can between Bush and Bellinger, both of whom have been living at a house with red curtains. Then after a tedious delay was a farcical nine round exhibition between Butler, the Portland boxer and Bellinger, of San Francisco, for 250 nothing a side.

It was a childish display to please the audience, the combatants doing all of their feats on foot and the time had been called. Instead of pleasing it disgusted all present, as was more farce. During the performance a Miss Wilson, who resides at the Bush house, paraded through the hall on the arm of a Minneapolis light weight, giving it a Tivoli theatrical cast, making many present spectators cast asides. The Democrat hopes it will never be obliged to chronicle such a performance in Albany again and regrets that it has been made as conspicuous as it has.

COMMENCEMENT—Commencement exercises this year promise to be of a very edifying nature, and of a character to do honor to the present accomplished faculty. We are under obligations to one of the commencement season: Sunday, June 10, baccalaureate sermon by Rev. H. A. Newell, of Salem. Monday, June 11, alumni exercises at college and reunion at L. E. Blaine. Tuesday, 2 p. m., undergraduate exercises on campus, in which a tree will be planted; 3 p. m., address in college chapel by Rev. Laighton, of Portland. Wednesday evening, graduating exercises and conferring of diplomas. The graduates, Collins Ekins and John Gelsen-dorfer, are sons of well known pioneers of Linn county, and young men of promise.

PRINCIPALLY INTEREST.—Yesterday C. Beckman, of Jacksonville presented five warrants on the State Treasurer, that were fifteen years old, having been drawn on the 5 per cent fund, swamp and overflowed land fund, on May 20, 1874. The face of these warrants was $7,000, and it took $16,792.23 to pay the principal and interest. The State Treasurer has issued a call for $10,000 more of these warrants (principal) with interest which will increase the amount to about $20,000. There are yet about $2,000 worth of these warrants, which were drawn under the authority of the acts of the legislature of 1874, in payment for road improvements.

GOV. GROVER.—Gov. Grover, lately returned from Europe, was in attendance at the speaking of Col. Irish last Saturday afternoon and made some remarks at the close of the meeting. He said he was in Paris at the time of the issue of President Cleveland's message to Congress recommending a reduction of taxation on the ground that we were collecting more money from the people than was needed. The message produced a profound sensation among thinking men everywhere in Europe. They claimed here is a government that does not want so much money; it was there ever such a thing in all the history, among all nations before. This is the greatest government and the greatest people.

AN INDIAN ITEM.—Saturday some half breeds came to town, bought some whiskey and in the evening took it to camp just beyond the Calloppo, where a big barbecue was had among the half breeds. One complaint of Mr. Frank Hughes, who lives in the neighborhood of Frank and George Cook, sons of a white man and squaw, were arrested, and Monday were tried before Justice Humphrey under a State law, for giving liquor to Indians. Nellie Johnson, a half breed, swore that Frank Cook gave her a drink and that she would drink whenever treated. She said she thought he because he would not marry her, and wanted to confine her testimony to the whiskey part.

WILL BEGIN.—Mr. Garrett, of the Willamette Packing Co. informs us that the company has about 100,000 cans manufactured, and in a few days will begin canning goods for the season. Cherries and other fruits and vegetables as fast as in condition will be received and put up. As there will be quite a demand for help there will be no excuse for idleness among the young people, nor of allowing fruit to waste among our farmers.

HELD.—Mr. J. D. Keenan, of Sodusville, whom we mentioned as being arrested for stealing his own horses under peculiar circumstances, was held to await the action of the grand jury under $100 bond, which he promptly furnished. The case has mitigating circumstances, and is one of those that are generally satisfactorily arranged before reaching a jury.

A FINE MOSS ALBUM.—Postmaster Thompson has just shown us an elegant album of Oregon mosses and flowers collected and put together by Mrs. Thompson for her son Hancock. Hancock who is an enthusiastic boy, and a great admirer of Mrs. Cleveland, has sent in the President of his Oregon mosses, and her more than many gifts that cost hundreds of dollars.

AT CORVALLIS.—Following is the program of the commencement exercises at the Corvallis agricultural college this year: June 3, Anniversary sermon by Rev. E. R. Murtaghy; of Independence at 11 o'clock a. m. June 5—Annual meeting of the board of trustees at 10 a. m.; at 7:30 p. m., address before Adelphi Literary society by Pres. J. C. Kezelle, of Philadelphia. June 6—Graduating exercises at 9:30 p. m.; baccalaureate address by Pres. Thomas Van Scoy, of Salem; alumni reunion at 7:30 p. m.

ONLY A BUNCH OF WHEAT.—And fall when at that, some that wasn't frozen out; but it looked fine as shown us by Mr. F. A. Burkhardt, the real estate man. Spring wheat also is said to be in its glory, and the hundreds of farmers in the city today testify to the magnificent looking crops all through the country. Nature seems to have been putting in her best efforts to give Willamette Valley people a harvest they may be proud of.

BENEFIT BALL.—On Thursday evening June 7th, a ball will be given at Lowonby by W. W. Crawford, for the benefit of Wm. Peckles, who was recently burned out. Tickets, $1.00. It is a worthy object, and there should be a large crowd present.

BORN.—To the wife of Squire Risley, onposite this city, in Benton county, May 28th, a girl. Mother 45 and father about 60 years of age.

A gentleman from Eugene says Lark Billings is sure to be elected county clerk.

MARRIED.—On Tuesday afternoon, May 29, at the residence of and by Rev. H. P. Webb, Mr. John Edwards and Miss R. U. Hans, of Crawfordville.

A Good Dinner.—The excursion party returned home from Salem Saturday night in good spirits, getting here about 10:30. They reported an excellent time and fine treatment by the Salem firemen. An elegant dinner was served at noon and good feeling prevailed. The Vindicator has the following to say of the visit to that city: "The Salem firemen, with Chief Engineer Churchill at their head, and the Second Regiment band were on hand to escort the visitors up town. A procession was formed, the band in the lead, and the line of march through the principal streets was taken up. At 12 o'clock a fine dinner was served at the Salem firemen's hall. The dinner was made out of Aller Hook and Ladder's truck, and Mayor Murphy climbed up on top and made a very neat and cordial address of welcome to the Albany boys. The firemen and visitors then dispersed and visited the various points of interest about the city, at noon congregating at W. C. T. U., where a most beautiful dinner was served by the ladies. The Albany firemen are about to purchase the equipment of the Salem department. Captain La France engine was taken out of its house, steam gotten up, and water thrown. The Albany boys spent very pleasant hours in the capital city, and at 4 p. m. started for home. They expressed themselves as much pleased with the courteous treatment. The visitors were accompanied by the Albany junior band, which plays very creditably.

FOOD.—Yesterday afternoon a Democrat man in company with a friend was walking along First street when he espied a fine looking horse standing in front of J. J. Dabruille's, as if ready to be harnessed, several men surrounding it with admiring gazes. "Fine looking horse," said the D. M., "shall we go down and see it." As they went towards the animal he expatiated to his friend, who is just from the Linn county, about the splendid animals he has in Linn county. "The animal didn't even blink an eye, and considering he was lying around, the Democrat man soon saw that he had been fooled and had been excited over a 'model,' but it was really a model, just received by Mr. Dabruille from the East for display in his shop. It is life size and life like, made of paper and gray in color. We understand it is the only one in the state. The possession of it speaks for the enterprise, of Mr. Dabruille who is always in the front. It will pay our citizens to call and see this piece of statuary.

WHAT FOR.—Sunday evening Mrs. Shyne and son, Arthur, were leaving the Opera House, where they had been attending memorial services, a strange man stepped up to them and offered young Shyne fifty cents if he would go with him about a block and help him manage a horse. The boy consented and they started down Second street together. After going quite a distance the strange man told the man they had gone over a block and asked where the horse was. The man had hold of his arm, and suspecting something was wrong young Shyne made a desperate effort and succeeded in jerking himself away from the grasp of the stranger, who fled as fast as he could, frightened nearly to death, the man after him. Fortunately a night watchman was near by and interfered, when the man in torn rags and was seen no more. The boy was taken home, just what the object of the stranger was can only be surmised. Whether it was to kidnap the boy or rob him, or what is not known.

BACK FROM THE MINES.—Last Saturday evening Messrs. J. J. Davis, H. Kenton and S. H. Althouse returned from the Santiam mines, where they have staked out three claims and established the location for a quartz mine. Their mine will be only about seven miles from the Oregon Pacific, with a road running to it. The present outlook is that it contains some fine ore; but it has not yet been thoroughly prospected. Some of the mines farther from the railroad are being worked with moderate results. What is needed is capital. With it there is no reason why big results should not be obtained, for there is no doubt the precious metal is there in large quantities.

A YOUNG MAN.—Sunday afternoon a young man was found lying in the woods above Lebanon in a speechless condition. He was brought down to Lebanon and restoratives applied, when he recovered so that he could speak. When brought to Lebanon he was recognized by citizens there as a Mr. Warriner of Salem. He is supposed to be the son of Dr. Warriner of that place. He said he thought he was in Lebanon made up a purse to buy him a ticket and sent him to Salem.

PRESBYTERIAN SOCIAL UNION.—The second annual meeting of this Union will be held at Aurora on June 6th. Attractive programs for the Church and Sunday School have been prepared. Rev. E. R. Pritchard, of this city will conduct the music, and Rev. Gibony, of Lebanon, will offer the opening prayer at the Sunday School sessions. These meetings are said to be very enjoyable affairs. The trip itself offers an opportunity to take an excursion cheap, and to doubtless some of our people will do so. The round trip rates will be: Albany, $2.10; Lebanon, $2.60; Halsey, $2.80; Eugene, $3.85.

ON THE MARRY.—Pallette Lane, a Silente Indian, ran away with an Indian maid named Anna Jones, Monday night. They were pursued and caught at Eugene City, Wednesday, and once returned to the Silente. Lane was married to Mrs. Eliza Halo Gleese about three weeks since, but tired of his new wife and slid out with Miss Anna Lane in been married two or three times, and as our informant said, is nearly in the marry—Post.

DIED.—Mrs. G. W. Sanborn, wife of the painter, died at her home in the Third Ward, Saturday evening, of quick consumption, and was buried Sunday afternoon, funeral services being conducted by Rev. Pritchard.

A PENSION.—Last Saturday evening, Mr. John Morrison, a worthy member of the G. A. R., of this city, died a faithful soldier, received from Washington pension papers, granting him a pension on account of rheumatism of six dollars a month, beginning in April, 1887.

LANDRETH.—The Polk county murderer was given a trial Tuesday, a short, open, defenseless one, and found guilty. He was to be sentenced at one o'clock today. Hanging is almost too good for men like him.

LOOKS LIKE.—The last Harper's contains a picture of Gov. Alger, of Michigan, who is a candidate for the Presidency, and who passed through Albany with the Logan party. Governor Alger's picture looks some like Jehany Irvine, of this city, only more so. Fact.

AT GOS.—C. B. Roland & Co., of this city, are selling their entire stock at cost. Those wanting bargains should call early.

W. McLAUGHLIN. Fashionable Tailor. Nobby suits and pants, cut and made to order, from the latest line of samples, direct from Prick, a specialty. Cleaning and repairing promptly done. Main Street, Albany, Oregon.

Wanted. Farmers to know that they can buy or sell boots and shoes cheaper than anywhere else in town and get a rebate of 5 per cent off cash. BROWNELL & STANARD.

SEATTLE.—Monday afternoon, Mr. Hoffman received a dispatch from Director Kellogg that the tournament and State Firemen's Association would be held a Seattle instead of Portland, as the latter place had failed to raise the necessary funds, and the date has been changed to July 2nd to 6th. Portland has been subscription ridden and even another party lay heavy on her back, while Seattle, young and buoyant jumps to the front and offers to raise the necessary amount, about $2000. The change means the approval of our fellow men, as it will offer a much more enjoyable excursion for them, and then they are anxious to visit a city that will knock the chip of Portland's shoulder.

SEVEN FAMILIES.—An intelligent Minnesotan is in the city as advance agent for six or seven families, who wish to leave their long, severe winters for our shores, mild ones; but he doesn't believe in leaping in the dark, and wants to know what can be done when he gets here. Some are farmers and some mechanics. He is delighted with the Willamette Valley and if he sees a prospect of plenty of work ahead he will advise his friends to come to Oregon, probably to Linn county. Sober, industrious, thrifty people, they are the kind we want here, and we hope to see our Minnesotans navigate this way, believing they possess the energy that makes business.

CHIEFS, ETC.—A gentleman who has been traveling through the county informs us that Mr. Richard Chandler, residing at Seaside, Lebanon, is putting the finest new barn in Linn county. It is a large structure and contains stanchions for eighty cows. Mr. Chandler now milks fifty cows a day, the milk from which he manufactures into cheese, the product of which amounts to five or six hundred pounds a week. This he carries down through the Valley, experiencing no trouble in finding a market for it. Mr. Spruett, and perhaps others, sell his cheese in this city. On account of the large demand he intends to increase his business, hence his new and mammoth barn.

GRANGE PICNIC.—A picnic given by Tangent Grange, assisted by other granges and friends, will be held at Blewett bridge, June 7th, 1888. The exercises will consist in vocal music, hand music and speaking. Ample preparations have been made for an interesting and profitable time for all. Grangers are urged to bring their badges. Bring baskets full. Everybody come. Meet on the grounds promptly at 10 o'clock a. m. By order of the committee.

FIGURED OUT.—An Ohio man writes to an Albany man about our country. He has the matter well figured out. He wishes to sell his farm, consisting of 185 acres, for $50 to $100, the prevailing price there, as he believes that is too much money to have invested in farm property, and buy one here for $20 to $40. If he does so he will give him not get a larger one than he now has. The trouble here is not in body or farms. Our farmers are carrying more land than they can handle.

NOY BURNED.—Among those in business at Palouse City during the fire was Mr. Ed. Bettelmeier, son of Mr. A. Settler, a native of this city. Very fortunately for him he was not burned out, and with one other store, was all that was left of the business houses. As a result he has been doing a rushing business. His brother George is in business at the booming city of Rosalia and is doing a fine business.

ONE WAY.—Mr. Wallace, who has been President of the Board of Trade of Greeley, Colorado, while in the city told an Albany man about how they attracted attention for a small outfit. For $40 they ran a small advertisement, asking the readers to write for descriptive pamphlets, in twenty-five or thirty-cent quantities. They received a large number of inquiries, resulting in considerable immigration. Why not try it.

MARRIED.—At the home of Mr. J. W. Ellison, Sheels, Linn county, Oregon, May 27, 1888, by Rev. H. Gould, Dr. W. M. Thompson and Miss May B. Graves. Commencement Exercises.

AT HALSEY.—A large assembly greeted the candidates at Halsey Friday. Music was furnished by the Halsey and Crawfordville Bands for the occasion. The discussion was opened by a speech from Corporal Tanner in the first part of the day. Then D. R. N. Blackbird made a lengthy speech, and Goodman represented the Prohibition party. He was followed by Judge Whitney who shows by his position that he is the Judge of Linn county wants, his administration being characterized by economy and good judgment. W. W. Richardson was next on the list. He wanted to know if they people of Linn county did not want him to represent them in the next Legislature to elect a Republican U. S. Senator. Mr. Taylor, the prohibitionists, was next, and he asked the same question in reference to the prohibition party. Mr. Jeff Meyers followed and asked how it would do to elect a Democrat who would vote for Democratic U. S. Senator, Col. Irish here appeared, when all eyes turned on him. He handled the tariff question in a masterly manner, and completely annihilated Corporal Tanner's remarks, made during the forenoon. The meeting was probably the most successful yet held.

MURDER AT ROCK CREEK.

Result of a Feud. Some time ago we mentioned the fact of a serious trouble existing at Rock Creek. In this county, in which the Thomas Brothers had been warned to leave the community by a vigilant "committee of 13," on account of an old feud that has existed among a few of the inhabitants there for some time. Such has been the feeling that Charles and William Thomas have never left their home without a gun in their hands. From a gentleman who just arrived from there we learn the particulars of a tragedy in connection with the affair that occurred there Wednesday forenoon. About 10 o'clock Charles Thomas left the Pluke place, on Mad Creek, (the Pluke's are on the county; for the Post office, which is situated at the west end of the new Dan Smith bridge. He had gone about half the distance, probably half a mile, when three masked men rose up from the bushes on a ledge above Thomas and fired. Thomas returned compliments with one shot; he claimed that the three shots were fired at him; but parties at the bridge store say only two. One of them took effect in Thomas's left shoulder, going clear through his body and coming out in a downward course, breaking the collar bone. Thomas yelled and ran for Pluke's, while the neighbors around the bridge and vicinity raised for the scene of the firing, everybody instantly understanding what was up. No clue or trace to the assassins could be found. One of the Pluke's, with whom the Thomases were stopping, ran swiftly to a neighbor, who was suspected of being a vigilant, but the parties immediately were dispatched far, but had not arrived when our informant left. The wound is thought to be very dangerous, if not fatal. Heretofore the Thomas brothers had always been on the Post office together, but for some reason Charles went alone on this occasion. Injustice excitement prevailed. A majority of the citizens were in approval of the conduct of the Thomases heretofore, nor of the affair generally; but this will naturally give them some sympathy. In the neighborhood around the bridge and vicinity raised for the store at the east end of the bridge in Marion county, and down on the O. P. a saloon run by J. E. Sorbin, and nearly by several farmers in that vicinity past the Thomases have been in many quarrels with some of them in the tragedy has resulted.

Saturday evening the 26th inst. Hon. J. K. Weatherford spoke for one and a half hours to the citizens of this place on the subject of the tariff. Mr. Weatherford made an unusually good speech, and was being right to the point and his views were past depicting. Temporary officers for a permanent Tariff Reform Club were elected and a committee on permanent organization appointed to report Saturday evening, June 2nd, when permanent organization will be effected.

The county candidates were here Monday the 28th and spoke to a large and patient audience for over three hours. Hon. J. J. Whitney was the first speaker and he showed the people here how much better the affairs of Linn county were managed than those of other counties. Mr. Blackburn followed but he could not touch Mr. Whitney's points. Mr. Whitney made several votes for himself and the comparison caused Blackburn a corresponding loss. Another thing that will not help Mr. Blackburn any here is the fact that Capt. N. B. Humphrey is making a special effort in his behalf especially to detect Mr. Whitney, which will confirm in the minds of the people here that Judge Whitney is certainly an honest man: All the candidates acquitted themselves very well. Mr. Jeff Meyers was present with a large and very handsome bouquet at the close of his speech by Miss Lydia Stannard. The entire ticket will get a good vote here. There will not be anything like the scratching done there two years ago.

One day last week Mr. Omar Vernon's team ran away throwing him out of the wagon and breaking his leg below the knee. Dr. Hill reduced the fracture and the patients doing well.

P. Ryves little daughter is quite sick. Dr. Bartley has left Grant for parts unknown. The R. R. hands working at track laying here have all quit work. Tramps are numerous in this vicinity and steal every thing they can use or sell. Girls how would you like to take the arm of a young man who would stand on the Church steps and smoke his cigarette. Real Estate and Employment Agency.

Completely Democrat. PEPPERBURY, Va. May 25.—The democrats yesterday elected their entire ticket, headed by Charles F. Celler for mayor by 220 majority, and eight of the twelve councilmen. Thus the entire municipal government passes into the hands of democrats for the first time in eight years. A large number of negroes voted the democratic ticket.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

At 10 Wednesday the procession for the observation of memorial day services formed in front of the G. A. R. hall and marched to the cemetery in the following order: Flag bearer, Martial music, 318th Regt. Co. H, company. Flower wreath by A. B. Blaine. Members G. A. R. and old soldiers. Members W. R. C. Mrs. Brink's class and school children. Citizens on foot and in carriages. The procession to the cemetery was a large one, characterized by the presence of a profusion of flowers, now in its glory. A halt was made around the grave of Martin Helfron, the last to be buried, when imposing ceremonies were had, conducted by Commander Reed. Music was furnished by a choir gotten up by the W. R. C. and by a class of little girls under charge of Miss Helble, whose sweet singing attracted general attention. The address, a twenty minute one, was delivered by Hon. L. B. Montano, and was listened to with earnest attention. Upon the close of the exercises the graves of Mr. Helfron, Capt. Arch Mitchell, N. F. Cross, J. M. Barstow and Robert Carter, in the city cemetery, and General Mary V. Brown and Capt. Mathews in the massive cemetery, were formally decorated, the presence of the company adding very largely. The procession then returned to the city and dispersed. The observance of the day was conducted in a very successful manner, the presence of the company adding materially to the effect of the procession and exercises.

Halley. In weekly DEMOCRAT of May 25th an item needs correction. It is true that Halley has a room; we have a new school house; we have a new store; we have a new butcher-shop; we have a half barrel of whiskey; but that whiskey had not reached the aforesaid butcher-shop when last heard from. It rests quietly in the depot and is quite an object of interest to the average Halleyite.

May 25th was Patriots Day at Halley. Picnic under auspices of the Band. Fine day, big crowd, good music, Corporal Tanner, good dinner county candidates, Col. Irish and through it all that whistery mood in the depot, a unified example of inebrious desuetude. This incident is only another evidence that the liquor traffic must be destroyed, and regulated. Prohibition is better policy in Halley than in the law forbidding the sale of liquor to minors is in Albany. We all know that the use of strong drink takes the manhood out of the most of men and is the worst way to destroy the business. If association with the stuff degrades men, what effect has it on the manhood of a young man who would stand on the Church steps and smoke his cigarette. Real Estate and Employment Agency.
