TEMPERANCE COLUMN.

Edited by Albany W. C. T. U. The Women's Christian Temperance Union of West Washington Territory, held their annual convention at La Conser the 19th, 20th and 21th of this month, by the city of New York, containing over tration. We, the undersigned, hereby agree to 14,000 persons, will convince the most skepclose our respective places of business on the tical observer, that the chief cause of crime, national holiday, the 4th of July, (all day.) sickness, and poverty, which fill these instiexcessive indulgence in intoxicating drinks."

The first obstacles that we meet in our upus. They come from what we call, in scientific language heredity. How are we going to get rid of them. There is but one waywe must grow out of them. When we appeal to a man to overcome the evils inherent n him, we can appeal only to the manhood he possesses, whether it be much or little. And here is the field for our moral sussion in the temperance reform; the field for the Gospel minister ; the conscientious teacher ; the faithful father and mother.

Before man can reach his highest estate. before he can feel that he is out of the slough of drunkenness and standing tirmly on the highway of happiness, he must in some way overcome the evil that is in him. If this be so, we, as christian temperance workers must labor with patience and perseverance to root out the evil, remembering that untiring effort for the individual, is as much needed as of Harrison labor for the masses.

The specious plea of the liquor men is that they create a demand for labor, and give work to 600,000 persons. This is the plea of lottery-men, gamblers, opium merchants, publishers of obscene literature, and was the plea of the old slaye-masters. It is one branch of trade against many honorable and useful

What Col. Hawley Says.—In writing up a trip through the Willamette Valley Col. Hawley, who in 1881 favored the Dem.

Were the $900,000,000 annually spent for liquor applied to the comforts of life, it would afford employment for 300,000 additional persons, whose yearly wages would be $90,000,000, and there would be $350,000,.

Let our wise men tell the country that our

T. because he in the Coast range through which the Ore-gon Pacific railroad finds its way to Yasaid that word, and ejaculated with set teeth, "the Chicago Convention of course." But there were plenty more interested in the firemen's tournament, and who seemed to think about as much depended on it.... As recorded in the County Clerk's office It is now ascertained to be a fact that more rain has fallen already in June in Albany up by other states. than in any June for at least ten years Since 1878 the highest June precipitation was in 1884, when 3.33 inches of water fell. This month fully five inches have come down. The average for ten years was 1.28 inches in June.... The gentleman who runs the auction of oil paintings thinks Albany Rusk, 20; Harrison, 95; McKinly, 3. people lack an appreciation of good oil paintings, studio works. Paintings which he claimed should bring at least one hundred dollars sold for five to ten dollars.... Sheriff Smallman will not have to hunt houses in the desperate manner that is proving the experience of several officials, as he will only have to mount the jail stairs. Treasurer Curl has a home here, and will probably remain in Albany where he will prove the steady, reliable citizen that has characterized his administration of the Treasurer's office. Mr Reid the Superintendent is already pretty com fortably settled, and his successor, Mr Guri will move to Albany and devote all his time to the business of the office. Judge Whitney is already located in the Foster Block, and Judge Blackburn will retain his present office in the O. F. Hall. Surveyor Fisher is sufficiently "well fixed" so that the change of the compass to Mr O'Conner will not affect him. John Shea will remain in Sweet Home, and like Mr Thompson, will gaze from a distance at the Albany Justices as they tackle most of the vote solid for Sherman this afternoon. Asked about stampede to Blaine he said if they break to him it will likely go to him. He is a very strong man.

GOLDEN WEDDING.

1838-1888. Married June 21st, 1838, by Rev. Nais but slightly bowed and the bonnie young 10:4t a. m .- McKinley, of Onio takes bride of twenty-two is now a well preserved and venerable grand-mother. True indeed, time has done his work with them as age are in their faces and their whitened locks give token of advancing years ; yet pany of children, grand-children and friends their hearts were young as ever They told with delight of the fashions and scenes of fifty years ago. What would our young people of to-day think of having to publish the bans "three several Sabbaths in the church" and then have a marriage ceremony an hour long? Their Golden wedding was a little less tedious and less formal. They have had ten children ; but four of whom are living, viz: Mrs. Isaac Elder, of Eddyville, Iowa; Mrs. John Crawford, of this county; Mrs. John Mil-lard, of Albany, and Mr. John McBride, of Peoria. All were present and with nine-teen grand-children and a few friends made a company of over fifty. The venerable couple took their places on the floor and after a few remarks of a historical character by their pastor, Dr. Irvine, all joined in fervent prayer for Heaven's richest blessing upon their declining years. Then came the golden presents from children and grand-children. A fine gold watch and gold-headed cane for Mr. McBride and a beautiful rais of cold for the state of the beautiful pair of gold framed spectacles, gold thimble and wedding ring for Mrs. McBride, After hearty congratulations and many kisses from the little folks all sat down to a bountiful dinner prepared by loving hands. Then after some hours spent

A BRIDGE BY ALL MEANS,-If the Albany Board of Trade would like to submerge itself with glory and do more for Albany than several hundred thousand circulars can do, let it put on foot a scheme for building a bridge across the Willamette at this city. It is bound to come sometime and the sooner the ball is set rolling the sooner the bridge will be built. Ferinstitutions and the precinct got a bridge One can be built here if our citizens only say the word, and, as the Board of Trade is the spokesman, let the members act, and the sooner the better. For years Albany, sale, always fresh and pure at Portland which pays nearly a fourth of the taxes of prices to dealers, We also keep a full the county, has been helping to bridge every little streem in the county, and very properly. Now isn't it about this city's turn to get a benefit. For a bridge here the county should contribute a very liberal amount and probably would; Albany would come to the front with a good sized sum, its citizens and business men mould subscribe very liberally, because it would be a bonanza to them, and the farmers of Benton county would turn their pockets inside a structure is so much needed here. Every city on the Willamette will in time have its Hiscock takes the chair. Roll call ordered be the last? Not much!
