THAT RECORD.

Appearances are not at all deceptive when they indicate that the friends of Mr. Harrison are much disturbed over their candidate's Chinese record. At first vehement denials of that record were made by all the organs all over the country, but the Congressional Record furnished such indisputable evidence of the fact that Mr. Harrison had voted for Chinese immigration in all its stages that these friends were compelled in their alarm to resort to some other way of defense. These friends have brought forward and published the following letter which they say shows that Harrison has changed his mind:

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 29, 1888.
Rev. J. B. Brown, St. Louis, Mo.—
DEAR SIR: Your kind letter of February 28th has been received. I am very much obliged to you for the kind interest which you take in my behalf. You know me well enough while here to know that I am no schemer for place, and I have not fallen from grace in that respect since you left here.

I did vote with the great body of the republicans in the Senate against the Chinese Restriction bill, as it was called. It seemed to me then to be in violation of our treaty with China, and it was a little hard for me to let go of the old idea that this was the free home of all comers. I think there has been a very general change of sentiment on that subject since. We do not need to ask anybody to come to this country now, as we formerly did, and I think we have a right to preserve our own institutions by excluding a fair election as to who shall come here. I do not like that class of immigration that comes in gangs; that can be driven into pens and on shipboard, and hired, not by personal contract, but by bosses, and the Chinese immigration is very much of this sort.

Very truly yours,
BENJ. HARRISON.

It is proper to say first that a great many people think this letter was not written on the "day of its date," but that it was an after consideration prepared ex post facto to meet an emergency, and that Harrison never knew anything about it until he saw it in print. If the letter is genuine it does not help matters for Harrison any. In the first place it comes too late. As early as February 28th last and even much earlier, the presidential bee was humming vigorously in Harrison's bonnet. Next, in this letter, he does not deny that he voted against Chinese restriction. So that question is settled. He seems to defend his vote by saying that it was cast "with the great body of the republicans in the Senate," but the laboring men of this coast who were using every endeavor to check the flow of cheap Chinese labor here to compete with them will be slow to see this in any defense, but on the contrary they will be the more certain convinced that Mr. Harrison on principle was opposed to restriction, because his party leaders were in harmony with him in opposition to the bill. In conclusion, he does not like that "immigration that comes in gangs." Well, this is too thin. The best immigration that has reached our shores from Germany, Norway, Sweden and other countries has come here in gangs, so this shows that this protest of Harrison's is a weak sham, a mere subterfuge. The people of the Pacific coast are opposed to the Chinese coming here, whether they come in gangs or singly. It is a matter of supreme indifference to wage people in what way they come. The supreme fact is they do not want them to come here at all.

Albany is now standing erect on her feet, but it is a question wholly with her own people whether she will remain so. There are many competing towns in Oregon, and those that outstrip others in the march of progress will owe their success to the spirit, energy and enterprise of their own citizens. The fate of Albany is in the hands of her friends and the question is to act or not to act.

Harrison opposes cheaper coats, because it seems to him that cheaper coats would necessarily involve cheaper men in them. Men who labor daily for their food and clothing, may be "cheap men" in Harrison's estimation, but they will be too dear to be bought by crisp two dollar bills on election day.

We want reduction of the tariff. We are taxed on every interest; blood is not only extracted from the larger veins of the body politic, but it is bound hand and foot and covered all over with gallinippers who are allowed to suck blood from every vein.—General John A. Logan, Cong. Globe, April 25th, 1870.

A first-class woolen mill would be of more benefit to Albany than twice its cost expended in stately bricks built to rent. We fear many of these stately bricks will be marked, "no rent." If our people do not do something to build up manufacturing interests in our midst.

A bet of two to one was made yesterday in this city that Cleveland will be elected. The parties to the bet were two drummers, one from San Francisco and one from Portland. It is unwise for democrats to make such bets. Before many weeks they will be able to get bets even.

A correspondent suggests the following as an "old saw" republicanism: Of all sad words of tongue or pen, The saddest are these, "We can't have Ben."

As we understand it, Mr. Harrison is in favor of building a Chinese wall around the United States that will keep out pretty much everything except the Chinese.

WILL WE ACT?

Will we take hold and act now while it is called to-day? If there ever was a time when the people of Albany should be true and loyal to their own interests, now is the time. The tide of prosperity for Albany has set in. Shall we lend our efforts to swell and buoy up that tide, or shall we lie idly on our backs and allow the ebb to carry us farther back into the sea of sluggishness and inactivity? If we would see our city grow and prosper, if we would see the magnificent water power in the city utilized in manufacturing enterprises, if we would see it march forward to permanent growth and prosperity, then must we lend a strong, helping, right hand. No town can grow into a city except through the efforts of its own citizens. Money to loan and brick buildings to rent is none other than a sandy foundation. Such a foundation will do very well until the storms of adversity and hard times begin to beat against it. Then it gives way and the business of such a town flattens out. Therefore we must help ourselves. We must furnish labor for the idle. Strong laboring men with a will to toil are the mainstays of prosperity and no town can grow without such. What shall we do? Come out to the Board of Trade to-night and talk about it.

And now they say that when the Mills bill goes to the Senate, after its passage in the house, that body will substitute a bill of their own for it. It is said this substitute will remove one-half the duty from sugar and put several articles on the free list. The tax on tobacco will be removed. Now we protest that such a bill would be an open, contemptuous slap in the face of the Chicago platform, and it would be worse than that. It would be an out-and-out free trade document. The idea of the republican Senate putting articles on the free list in response to the demands of the Cobden Club and under the direct influence of British gold. Our protected industries will all be ruined, hoo, hoo, hoo.

A private letter from an old friend of the editor of this paper who has been in Washington city many years, says: "The democrats here have strong hopes of success in the coming election; a great majority believing the race will be an easy one to win. The wagers so far laid on the result, particularly in New York, are largely in favor of Cleveland's election."

A Warning.

The modes of death's approach are various, and statistics show conclusively that more persons die from diseases of the Throat and Lungs than any other. It is probable that everyone, without exception, receives vast numbers of Tubercle Germs into the system and where these germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop, at first slowly and is shown by slight tickling sensation in the throat and if allowed to continue their ravages they extend to the lungs producing Consumption and to the head, causing Catarrh. Now all this is dangerous and if allowed to proceed will in time cause death. At this point you must act with promptness; allowing a cold to go without attention is dangerous and may lose you your life. As soon as you feel that something is wrong with your Throat, Lungs or Nostrils, obtain a bottle of Boschee's German Syrup. It will give you immediate relief.
