R. B. SKIWOORTH, of Mississippi, county.

WASHIE, WASHIE.

An Albany Chinaman, ugly and brown,
Stood polishing shirts in his den downtown,
With dangling pigtail and palinstaking
smirk.

And here is the song he sang at his work:
Hallsonee Molton,
Olemalgaee,
Chinee-mancee good man,
Whisky flee.
Eatee much rat soup,
Nicee puppee,
Velly cheapie livee,

Hip, Hipse!
Chinee-mancee good man,

Suppose Cleveland had made use of the following in his message:

"Many duties now collected and which give but an insignificant return for the cost of collection might be remitted to the direct advantage of consumers at home. I would mention those articles which enter into the manufacture of all sorts of goods, and which are paid upon such articles goes directly to the cost of the article when manufactured here and is paid by the consumer. These duties not only come from the consumers at home, but act as a protection to foreign manufacturers of the same completed articles in our own and distant markets."

Would not every republican in the land have charged him with being a free trader? Most certainly, for the language is stronger than any thing to be found in his message, but the above quotation is from President Grant's seventh annual message and not a republican in the land was so foolish as to call him a free trader.

The Herald still refuses to commit itself on the subject of putting sacks and twine on the free list. Here the farmer is directly interested. The 40 per cent duty on sacks and twine deprives him of at least one cent on every bushel of grain shipped. He is so bound down to his party platform, it is so radically partisan, that it does not dare to favor the removal of duty from sacks and twine although it would be of immense benefit to the farmers and of little detriment to any one. The farmers are now awaiting to hear from the Herald-Democrat on this subject, but it is as one brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth. Courage, neighbor. This hypocritical pretense of being the friend of the farmer will not avail much longer.

The county elections in Tennessee last Tuesday settled two questions. In every county party lines were closely drawn, and the contest was hot, because it was known that on the result of these elections, state and national elections this year. The Republicans made a desperate effort to capture the office of sheriff, as in Tennessee the sheriff appoints all election officers and has control of the election machinery. But in every county there were substantial Democratic gains. In many counties a Democratic sheriff was elected for the first time in 25 years. In Davidson county, which went Republican in 1886, the Democrats had nearly 400 majority. Shelby county, which once was close, went overwhelmingly Democratic.

The Capital Journal, a well edited, respectable republican journal, in speaking on the tariff question says:

"When Mr. Foster, the president of the American Tariff Association, wrote in a confidential circular recently about 'frying the fat out of these wealthy manufacturers, whom he describes as 'the only persons who benefit by the tariff,' he knew precisely what he was talking about."

So, he did. The manufacturers, and not laborers, are the ones who receive the benefits of high tariff. Were it not so they would not spend their money so lavishly to prevent any reduction of the tariff.

The Salem Statesman, though quite radical, has an editor who not only has the intelligence to understand the platform of his party, but the courage and composure to defend it. He says: "If the choice should have to be made of taking the tax off whisky or relinquishing a part of the protective duties, then, we say, retain the duties for protection." The Statesman deserves credit for this frankness honesty and consistency. That paper would do just what the republican platform pledges its party to do—the entire repeal of internal revenue rather than surrender any part of our protective system."

In 1876 twenty-four days intervened between the nomination of Hayes and the appearance of his letter of acceptance. Thirteen days after his nomination, and thirteen days after his nomination, and Haycock's thirty-seven days after the democratic nomination. Blaine's letter appeared forty-three days after his nomination in 1884 and Cleveland's forty days after. It has now been seventy days since President Cleveland's nomination and fifty-one days since Harrison was nominated.

Mr. Harrison's Chicago speech of last February is not quoted by republican organs at this time, and is probably not one of those 'apples in gold in pictures of silver' to which the Lowell Courier (rep.) refers. It was in this speech that he says: "I cannot find myself in full sympathy with this demand for cheaper coats, which seem to me necessarily to involve a cheaper man and woman under the coat." A statement that the Chicago Herald says "in its frank brutality has been seldom equaled."

Four years ago, speaking of the presidential outlook, the Oregonian said: "Appearances must undergo a great change if it (the republican party) do not secure a more decisive victory than that of four years ago. Not a very good prophet them and may not be now."

No one is given that the regular polls open by a resolution of the board for Lincoln county, will take place at the Court House in Albany, commencing at noon Wednesday, August 25th, 1888. All ballots in the market will please be ready for the beginning.

GRAIN BAGS.

The grain bag traffic on the Pacific coast last year amounted to 33,000,000 bags, and the indications now are that 4,000,000 more will be required for the wheat crop this season. The prospect for a large wheat yield never was better. The entire bag capacity of the California Jute Mill Company is about 1,250,000 per year, and not more than this number can be produced by the double shift prison force at San Quentin. The great bulk of these goods, or over 30,000,000 bags, comes to the coast from Calcutta.—Portland Journal of Commerce.

So, according to this statement which may be relied on, 32,500,000 of the sacks necessary to handle the farmers grain on the Pacific Coast this year comes from Calcutta. The duty on these sacks is 40 per cent of their cost at place of purchase, that is, for every $100 worth of sacks imported the importer has to pay $40 duty. This is added to the price of the sacks when sold to the farmer. Then how much duty do the farmers of the Pacific Coast have to pay on the 32,500,000 sacks? That depends upon their cost abroad. If they cost 5 cents a piece the entire cost would be $1,625,000, and 40 per cent of this amount would be the duty or tax which the farmers would have to pay, which would be $650,000. Let farmers reflect what a burden this enormous tax is, and then say whether they would have a reduction of taxation or not.

The Oregonian says a new postmaster has been appointed for Oregon City, leaving O'Dell, of Salem, the only republican postmaster in office in the state. It might have added that not a single republican in any paying or presidential post office has been removed in this state since Cleveland became president. He allowed every one to serve his term out. No republican president would have such a broad and liberal policy.

The river and harbor bill became a law without the signature of President Cleveland. The President says that it contained items which he could not approve, yet the bill as a whole was of such vast importance to the country at large that he would not be justified in vetoing it.

An Explanation.
What is this "nervous trouble" with which so many seem now to be afflicted? If you will remember a few years ago the word malaria was comparatively unknown in the English language, yet this word covers only the meaning of another word used by our forefathers in times past. So it is with nervous diseases, as they and malaria are intended to cover what our grandfathers called biliousness, and all are caused by troubles that arise from a diseased condition of the liver, which in performing its functions find it cannot dispose of the bile through the ordinary channel is compelled to pass it off through the system causing nervous troubles, malaria, bilious fever, etc. You who are suffering can well appreciate a cure. We recommend Green's August Flower. Its cures are marvelous.

North Kowling.
Mr. W. H. Morgan, merchant, Lak City, Fla. was taken with a severe cold attended with a distressing cough and running into consumption in its first stages. He tried many so-called popular cough remedies and steadily grew worse. Was reduced in flesh, had difficulty in breathing and was unable to sleep. Finally tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and found immediate relief and after using about a half dozen bottles found himself well and has had no return of the disease. No other remedy can show so grand a record of cures as Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Guaranteed to do just what is claimed for.—Trial bottle free at Foshay & Mason's Drug Store.

News of the South.
Mrs. Phosha Chesley, Peterson, Clay Co., Iowa, tells the following remarkable story, the truth of which is vouched for by the residents of the town: "I am 70 years old, have been troubled with kidney complaint and lameness for many years; could not dress myself without help. Now I am free from all pain and lameness, and am able to do all my own housework. I owe my thanks to Electric Bitters for having renewed my youth and removed completely disease and pain. Try a bottle, only 50c. at Foshay & Mason's Drug Store."
