SYMPTOMS OF CATARRI.-Dull, mile the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acria, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are wesk, watery, and inflamed; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, backing or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers; the voice is changed and has a nasal twang; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debdity. Only a few of the above-mander symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive naddangerous, or less understood by physicians.

By its mild, soothing, and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the weist cases of Catarrhs, "cold in the heads," Coryza, and Catarrhal Headache.
