INSTITUTED .- On last Saturday a Re becca Degree Lodge of I. O. O. F. was instituted in this city with 24 charter members. The name of the new lodge is Beulah, No. 35. Regular meetings will be held on the first and third Friday evenings

DIED .- Mrs. C. T. Ingram, another of Linn county's ploneers, died at her home in this city on Monday evening, Nov. 12th, 1888, of a complication of rheumatic troubles, at the age of 66. Mrs. Ingram had been an invalid for a great many years. She leaves a husband, several children and many acquaintances particularly among the old residents here, to mourn her loss.

POPULATIONS,-1474 votes were cast in the East Portland precincts in the recent election, and the Vindicator figures out from it a population of 8844. On the same basis Albany has a population of 5652. Letting the East Portland paper figure for us a remarkable growth will be observed.

Standish and Dyson eturned from the Blue river mines las week. Owing to the rain they did not ish their trail to their mines, but got with n about a mile and a half and intend to reurn in December and finish it and do some work on the claim. The Crossus claim had just got the returns from a ton of ore shipped to San Francisco. It milled them between $79 and $80, mostly gold and the fate of the camp, that has been so long hanging in the balance, is at last de-cided, and there is much rejoicing, for now a road will be built and a mill go n the spring, and the work of active deelopment will begin in real earnest.-Cor.

A Composition.-Just what little girl wrote the following composition on " Boys," ve do not know; but it is cute enough to have been written by some Albany school girl : "Boys are men that have not got as big as their papas, and girls are young wemen that will be young ladies by and bye. Man was made before woman. When God looked at Adam He said to Himself, 'well, guess I can do better if I try again,' and then He made Eve. God liked Eve so nuch better than Adam, that there has been ore women than men ever since. Boys are a trouble. They are wearing on every thing but soap. If I had my way, half the boys in the world would be little girls, and the rest would be colls. My papa is so nice that I guess he must have been a girl when he was a boy."

SMALL POX IN PORTLAND .- The papers of that city of to-day say very little about the condition of small pox there. Never theless there are over fifty cases of the dis ease. Dr. Cusick, brother of J. W. Cusick, who has been there, says the number ex ceeds fifty. A drummer says it is nearly one hundred. A stray case in the suburbs of Salem is reported in full, while the many and the progress of the disease at their own doors are not mentioned. With then it is the business of Portland against the weifare of the Northwest. If the reports that reach here in reference to the extent o the disease there are true the course of the press of that city in suppressing and lying about the disease is reprehensible.

A DIFFERENT THING.—If this isn't true about a Portland man one of our exchanges is to blame. The man staid out election night and went home towards morning full of gin. This was the dialogue that followed : "That you ?" "Yes, dear." "What time is it ?" "Just a little after eleven, I think." "No such a thing," she snapped; "I heard it strike twelve o'clock long ago. Now, sir, where have you been ?" "Listening to the election returns." "Yes, of course ; betting, too, I suppose ?" "Yes, a little." "Oh, dear me ! How can you behave so? You, the father of a growing family! I'm pained beyond ___" "But I won five hundred dollars," broke in the husband. "Oh, did you dear? Oh, how deliciously jolly ! Of course you'll put it in the bank for the children. Come here you dear old sweet thing and let me kiss ou." Curtain falls and "such is life in LEBANON, Nov. 8th, 1888. The Republicans of Lebanon ratified the election of Harrison and Morton last Saturday evening, A large bonfire and the fireing of anvils was the out door demonstrations But the most attraction and genuine enthusiasm was at the Union Hall, which was filled to its utmost capacity, where was to be found women, children and old gray haired men wiping tears from their cheeks with joy. The meeting was called to order and Mr. T. A. Swan, late of Kansas made chairman, on assuming his duties he thanked the audience for the honor and said the people were to be congratulated on having chosen as good a man as General Harrison for the President, He knew that he was a good man for he knew him personally. The first speaker introduced was Dr. John A. Lamberson, who said it gave him great pleasure to address his fellow soldiers on an occasion of this kind. The speaker continued by saying that four years ago when he heard the anvils firing his heart was filled with sorrow; but to-night it was overflowing with joy. He thank God there was not one drop of southern confederacy blood in his veins. You ask a young democrat why he is a democrat and he will say because my father is; but fellow citizens its not true with a republican. I remember when my father and brother rejoiced over the assassination of Lincoln, and fellow citizens I am ashamed of it. (At this junctive the crowd dispersed and the speaker closed.) The next speaker was Judge F. M. Miller, who made a rousing speech. If Harrison was a railroad Attorney and the Chinese friend he defeated "Grover Cleveland." The next speaker was brother "Trime" who thanked God for the victory. The last, but not least was Roscoe Humphrey who still claimed to be a democrat, but not a free trader was in the sawmill business and would not support free lumber, as it would be shipped in here from Michigan and he would be forced to shut up shop.
