It claims to have been man, which was helpful to every one present. the exclusive instrument in breaking the The executive committee reported that the shackles of the colored man and setting him payment due on the hall had been dischargfree. It claims to have waged the war that carried the colored race from slavery to carried the colored race from slavery to freedom. It claims on all occasions that it shape—excepting the amount still unpaid with great and patriotic disinterestedness upon the hall. After the transaction of some lifted up the negro from a state of degraded servitude to the plane of political equality with the whites. This party has, by its conduct, laid claim to the negro vote because of the great obligation that race owes to it so warmly attached, she thanked the memfor doing this great, good thing for it. No mission or purpose of the republican party has been more strongly asserted than the one of establishing the perfect political equality of the negro with the white race.

But has that party been faithful to the But has that party been faithful to the deeply regret that circumstances have made pledges which it has made to the negroes it necessary for Mrs. Townsend to resign her in consideration of the votes which that office as President of our Union, and take up race gives the republican party? The negro offer this resolution in love and approval of is keenly alive to the fact that this pretend- the consecrated woman who has served us as ed friend has not kept these pledges. Where has it elected a negro to office and thus of our President, that our grateful thanks shown its sincerity in promoting his politi- are due her for the successful management of cal equality. Neither time nor place can be pointed out. But on the other hand scores of opportunities where this might have been done have been willfully neglected, aye, worse than neglected, opportunities that the party has openly refused to embrace. Why this course on the part of remulticants? Simply because all these propublicans? Simply, because all these professions of interest in the equality of the negro with the white race have been and are now insincere. The republicans knew the negroes of the South would vote the republican ticket, and they were perfectly willing that they should hold the effices in Portland that her influence may be felt even the South and described to the state of the south the South and dominate over the whites in that sin-cursed city, and we resign h, there, but they knew their people in the with that hope. North was too insincere to permit colored men to rule over the North, hence that party has uniformly refused to elect negroes to office. But the time has now arrived when the republican party can no longer put off a proper recognition of the longer put off a proper recognition of the services which the negro has rendered that party. Nothing short of a place in the cabinet would be a proper recognition. Will Harrison do it? Will he place some ntelligent negro in the cabinet? We predict that race prejudice among republicans is so strong that he will not dare to do it. He will scarcely be able to overcome this race prejudice sufficiently to enable him to do as much for the negro as President Clears. as much for the negro as President Cleveland has done. And this predicament of Harrison's is directly traceable to the almost universal insincerity of republicans In the Circuit Court of the State of Cre with regard to political equality-for the negro. The republicans would have political equality between the whites and blacks of the South, but never between the two races In the North. This accounts for the fact
