

The Democrat.

LET US INVESTIGATE.

Harrison was inaugurated on the 4th inst. and failed in the iron manufacturing trade...

Now it is given out that Mr. Blaine is going to work in a systematic manner to reform the diplomatic and consular service...

The population of Oregon, as indicated by the returns from the Registrar General's office...

It was a foregone conclusion that Albany would get the reform school. But Albany, not like some other places, is fortunate in being amply able to get along without an "Asphyxiator."

Mrs. Emma Gatewood, colored, has just died at Scottsdale, Penn., aged 117. She was the mother of 11 children, all of whom, except one, are living...

The Shah of Persia was the only foreign potentate who congratulated President Harrison. Such congratulations are not customary...

A great many people think a newspaper should have about a page of local news, whether anything happens or not.

Just imagine what a load, long, continuous howl would have gone up from every Republican newspaper office if Mr. Cleveland had been re-elected President and the following from Works had collapsed the second day after his inauguration...

There seems to be quite a protection argument concocted behind the fact that if the United States were to become involved in a foreign war...

There is a cob pipe factory located at Seaside, Mo., which is doing a rushing business. The factory pays at the rate of 1/2 cents for 1/2 inch cobs and 3/4 cents for 1 1/2 inch cobs.

The Pittsburgh girl who married an Italian count about a year ago is coming home, having procured a divorce from her titled husband.

The Widow Callahan, of Texas, owns 50,000 sheep, and Mrs. Rogers, of the same State, is the possessor of a similar number.

The more insurance fees the German American the more he will find that they are loyal to the country which has given them relief from the burdens of Bismarckian government.

Postmaster General Wanamaker carries life insurance to the amount of $1,750,000, the largest amount placed by any single individual in the United States.

We would now ask what the Republican organs would have said had Mr. Bayard with his stainless reputation, put his own son or nephew in this place, as a successor to one of the leading jurists of the country?

A Republican Senator says President Harrison ought to give the Chief of the New York State a first class foreign mission in recognition of his services to the Republican party in the last campaign.

Two of Mr. Blaine's sons have already been appointed to pleasant positions at Washington. What is the matter with giving young James, who is a place in the Treasury Department?

The salt producers are about to take a bold public sentiment by forming a trust. If they form it on the copper trust plan there won't be salt enough in it to save it.

Charles Arbuckle, the millionaire coffee dealer, better known as "Baby Bunting," has purchased a property in Brooklyn for $450,000.

The monument to Vice-President Hendricks is to be commenced at Indianapolis soon and finished in October.

Who dare say that Albany will not, in the near future, be the Kansas City of Missouri and the Lowell of Massachusetts?

These operators on the Kennebec river state that Maine's ice crop will be 250,000 tons about this season.

Advice to Mothers. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses...
