SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.—Dull, heavy beadache, obstruction of the massi passages, discharges falling from the head into the threat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and puttid; the eyes are weak, watery, and inflamed; there is ringing in the cars, dearnes, backing or coughing to clear the threat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scale from ulcera; the voice is changed and has a massi twang; the hreath is offensive; smell and make are impaired; there is a semantion of disances, with mental depression, a backing cough and general debility. Only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common more decoptive and dangerous, or less understood by physicians.

By its mild, soothing, and healing properties, Dr. Sago's Catarrh Bemedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh, "cold in the head," Coryza, and Catarrhal Headache.

At times I could hardly breathe, and was constantly hawking and spitting, and for the last eight months could not breathe through the nestrils. I thought nothing could be done for me. Luckliy, I was advised to try Dr. Sage's Catarrh temedy, and I am now a woll man. I believe it to be the only sure remedy for calarrh now manufactured, and one has only to give it a fair trial to experience astounding results and
