Oregon has never been aroused on the question of Chinese immigration as our alster state has been. In fact when a great party submits to the dictates of a miserable set of Portland ringsters, it is not wise to expect any appeal to reasoning faculties to be heard. The Chinese question was settled right by President Cleveland, only to be overruled by his Republican successor. What do the people propose to do about it?

THE GRANGE AND THE ADMINISTRATION

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS in politie. Political discussion at its meeting NASHRILLE, Tene, Oct, 15 .- The negro is forbidden by grange law, and the law acrupulously observed, for the reason that the emocratic state committee to-day adopted a The Roseburg Reesew reminds the people of the pledges made by the republican landers last fall on the Chinese restriction augustion. It very truthfully says:

The present administration is successfully evading the Chinese exclusion act much to the disgust of California Republicans, and if the workingmen of Oregon know their friends it will be found that they are also disgusted with the party of false pretenness. The San Francisco Call, one of the very ablest Republican papers published says that either Mr. Windom, or the administration must go. The cause of the south that in the early days of the order in this state, a certain governor took occasion to advise farmers to keep out of it. The grange now numbers more than 7000 members in New Hampshire, and it may be safely asserted that in the Silva-Boundary policion and the two races of the South by incendiary speeches, wholly uncalled for; that the committee states to the collored people of the countition. But the numbers of the grange, as a rule everywhere, are intelligent, thinking and independent men, and while they do not carry politics into the grange halls, their influence in politics as free citizens is by no means to be despised. As an illustration, it may be recalled that in the early days of the order in this state, a certain governor took occasion to advise farmers to keep out of it. The grange now numbers more than 7000 members in New Hampshire, and it may be safely asserted that embership is so equally divided in most sub- set of resolutions setting forth that the repub-
