Rich and Poor.

Prince and Paasant, the Millionaire and Day Laborer, by their common use of this remedy, attest the world-wide reputation of Ayer's Pills. Leading physicians recommend these pills for Stomach and Liver Troubles, Costiveness, Biliousness, and Sick Headache; also, for Rheumatism, Jaundice, and Neuralgia. They are sugar-coated; contain no calomel; are prompt, but mild, in operation; and, therefore, the very best medicine for Family Use, as well as for Travelers and Tourists.

TRUCK SUFFERING.

One of the most horrible cases of suffering reported since the high water comes to light on Will C. creek. Mr. George Rosen and his family, who reside on that stream, were driven from their home by the rapidly rising water, and fled to a mountain near by for safety. They took with them only a part of their clothing and some bedding. They were obliged to eat several days without food or shelter. At last the children's stomachs began to swell, and the father thought they would die. He filled the dog with oatmeal, and they started across the mountain in another hour, but being thirty miles from their home, they were unable to get to it. They were taken to the hospital, and the water finally subsided only after they were able to get to their homes and get a sack of flour, which kept them from starving until relief came. Nearly all the property was destroyed. - Eugene Register.

Holds The Key.

It is interesting to go over the Northwest and see the town that is to become the great city of this section of country, said a big man at the depot. "There's Port Townsend, it holds the key; and then there's Bellingham Bay, it will be on top, and over on Guay Harbor they have just discovered it. Astoria is quite sure to jump to the front; Yaquina City over here has no doubt about the result, and the city of Albany has some big hopes too," and the big fellow chuckled and his friend remarked that some of them will get it. And sure enough, even now, the city of Albany is doing well with its winks, don't know which it will be. Many of them, though, will undoubtedly get together.

As Novelty Effort.

A had result emanating from the food is the increased number of prevalent in the country, resulting in numerous marvellous incidents. The following is one from the Oregon City Courier: One of the queerest incidents that ever happened came to the writer's ears last week. One evening the river was at its highest, an old fellow belonging to Flava Painter came to stop on a raft as it started down the river. It was very dark, and he was alone. He had a bundle of goods on the raft, and he was looking for a place to stop. He saw a light in the distance, and he went on. He saw a light in the distance, and he went on. He saw a light in the distance, and he went on.

The K. of P.

Thursday was the 26th anniversary of the order of K. of P. in the United States. It had been the intention of the members of the lodges of this order at Corvallis, Albany and Salem to celebrate this anniversary jointly at Salem this year and arrangements looking to such observance had been made. But the flood and prostration of the railway and the service made it necessary to postpone joint celebration until a year hence, when it will be held at Corvallis. At the same time, the lodge celebrated alone, and the U. K. of P. were formally inspected by the Major of the regiment at Albany.

A CHINESE STORY.

Some people think the Chinese have no appreciation of the funny side of life; but the following translated from the Chinese shows that they are a little cute in a while: Less familiar is the story of a worthy old man who was unmercifully beaten, at regular intervals, by his unfaithful son. The cruel treatment did not prevent the old man from lavishing carriages on his little grandson, bringing him many presents and indulging all his caprices. One day the old man was asked why he was so very good to the child of the unfaithful son who beat him. "Oh," said the old man; "I'm spoiling him, so that he may beat his father when he grows up."

A BRIDGE AT BROWNVILLE.

Judge Blackburn has returned from a trip to Brownville to investigate the matter of the bridge lost there by the recent floods. The result will probably be the construction of an entirely new bridge, though part of the old one stands, a dilapidated looking structure now. A substantial bridge should be put in that will be too much for the future floods. The estimated cost $100,000 to $200,000. This is the only bridge of any size that went out, the few others being small ones.

ONE KIND OF VILLAIN.

A drummer came into the Umattilla House Monday, says the Dalles Times, and inquiring into the result of the accident near the Cascade locks Sunday asked whether any passengers were killed. He was answered in the negative. This satisfied him, and he said, "I'm glad. If there are no passengers killed it is all right." The cold, heartless villain did not seem to understand that the life of a laborer was just as precious as that of a merchant or business man.

MORE IMMIGRANTS.

The Willamette valley is attracting attention generally, the following being only one of many evidences to that effect: "We need not be surprised if we have the regular jack rabbits here soon. There are lots of them east of the mountains, and it is said they are coming from Clatsop, and some have got as far north as Drain.

DAMAGE DONE.

The accident on the 26th of last July, by which engineer Jack Miller and fireman Quint Zurbur lost their lives, has made the basis of two damage suits. Emma Miller, administratrix of the estate of Jack Miller, brings suit for $5000 damages and W. Q. Guthrie, administrator of the estate of Quint Zurbur, brings suit for a similar amount.

THE LATEST FROM DISTANT PARTS.

Some of the latest news from distant parts of the country are as follows: The fire at the Oregon road destroyed aggregate over $50,000. - Eugene Dispatch. This is from one of the counties where the losses were less than her neighbors. The loss to her next neighbor north was about $20,000.

RETURN THEM.

The party who entered my house on or about Feb. 1, 1890, and took therefrom a suit of clothes, some jewelry and other articles is known and this will give notice that unless the stolen articles are returned I will prosecute the party. If property returned no questions will be asked. A word to the wise is sufficient. - R. E. CONN.

AND ALBANY TOO.

Mrs. Merle Davis, called on the Santa Rosa for San Francisco to purchase her spring stock of millinery which will be the largest, and most tastefully selected and trimmed, ever brought to this city. Mrs. Davis has had experience and thoroughly understands her business. She was formerly from Chicago. - Astoria Columbian.

DONT FORGET US.

The time of the year is approaching when it will be in order for those men to issue a call for a station show. The one held last year was the most successful in the valley, but it will no doubt be surpassed the coming season. San Francisco the gambling spirit is rampant. Every daily in the city but one receives $1000 a month for advertising from the Louisiana lottery, and it is calculated that the gigantic swindling concern sells $100,000 worth of tickets in the city every month.

ALBANY, OREGON, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1890.

LOCAL RECORD.

Mr. Jefferson. - This well known mountain lies in the eastern limits of Linn county, about five miles east of Astoria, and is the highest peak of the Astoria range. It is a live volcano, and has been a source of much interest to the people of the valley. It is a live volcano, and has been a source of much interest to the people of the valley.

ALBANY TO ASTORIA.

An interview of a Columbian man, of Astoria, with one of the directors of the A. and A. R. R. recently in that city, shows that there will be a live progress made between Albany and Astoria this season. Here is some of it: "As soon as weather will permit engineers will be put in the field to make the final survey for permanent location and set the grade stakes. It is not probable that the Astoria road will be early in the summer. I know it will be started this year. It is possible we may start work at the Albany end also this year, but this is a matter which has not yet been decided by the directors. We shall begin as soon as we can, and get all of our material and supplies there as quick as we can."

$5000 REWARD.
