No matter, though Mr Blaine's vigorous words had a more limited meaning than the report of the market for the disease for The true cause of the depreciation of silver at the time referred to by the Oregosion is found in the fact that in 1873 by even though it be healed in Congress. some species of clandestine "legislation" silver was demonetized-that is, it, was stripped of its legal tender attribute. This is just what caused silver to go at a discount, In 1878, during the pendency of the bill to remonetize si'ver and authorize the coining of from $2,500,000 to $4,000,soo per month we were told, as we are now that the passage of the bill would drive all the gold out of the country, silver would be the only money that we could keep, financial panics, destructive of the business interests of the country would follow thick and fast, in a word the same cry of alarm was raised then as now by the gold bugs, but the democrats in congress steadily pushed the bill until it finally passed. And what has been the result? Simply tals. Silver soon resumed its place along of and the equal of gold, greenbacks and national bank notes, and ever since that time it has gone rapidly at par, and to-day very few men make any choice, except from present convenience, as between gold and silver. This is not mere theory. It was practical and well-remembered experience. There must be more money and there is no valid reason why silver should not be utilized for that pur-
