The Democrat.

OBLIGATION AND OPPORTUNITY.

The victory gives the democrats in congress a great opportunity and imposes upon them a great responsibility.

With the senate and the presidency in republican hands the newly elected democratic house cannot undo the mischiefs done by the Fifty-first congress or repeal the legislation in hostility to the people which the people have rebuked with so strenuous an emphasis. But with their great majority in the house the democrats will have at any rate an unobstructed chance to reform the methods by which the present house has accomplished its will, and they owe it to the country to work that reform.

It will be the especial privilege and duty of the democratic house to reform, once for all, the system by which members of the minority are unseated for partisan reasons. That is a crying evil which can never be cured by any moral suasion or protest addressed to a small and insecure majority.

It will always be practised where the house is close until a new system of determining election cases shall be adopted in lieu of the present systemof determing them by partisan vote in the house itself.

With their overwhelming majority the democrats of the Fifty second congress can apply the remedy. It will be their plain duty to provide for the reference of all contested election cases to a court of justice for an impartial hearing of the evidence and a judicial report upon the merits of each. Such a system once instituted could never be overthrown. The popular sense of fairness would not permit its abandonment.

A great victory is an obligation as well as an opportunity.

MR. BLAINE'S PROPHECY.

In his Philadelphia speech, no longer ago than last Saturday night, Mr Blaine told his audience that Pennsylvania, with the bordering states of Ohio, Indiana, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and West Virginia, constitute the key to the presidential election of 1892.

He warned his hearers that if those states should be carried by the democrats this year the fact would be in effect determinative of the result in 1892. He said he had gone to Philadelphia to give the people of that city warning that "as Pennsylvania votes on next Tuesday the nation may vote two years hence."

Well, Pennsylvania voted democratic on the Tuesday of his prophecy, and of the other six states named by him the democrats have carried all but one—Ohio. In addition, by carrying Iowa a second time and by an increased majority they have fairly added that traditionally strong republican state to the democratic column, and they have carried the republican strongholds of Massachusetts and New Hampshire and achieved remarkable success in other unexpected parts of the country.

Mr Blaine's sagacity plainly saw that democratic success this year would mean that the people reject and condemn the republican policy as reflected in the work of the present congress. The extraordinary victory achieved means that with the utmost emphasis.—New York World.

W G Ewing, of Chicago, will probably contest Abner Taylor's seat in the next congress. At the recent election the names of the latter and A H Taylor, the candidate for clerk of the supreme court were placed in juxtaposition on the republican ballots. When the vote was counted hundreds of ballots were thrown out because Ewing pasters were placed over the name of A H Taylor, instead of Abner Taylor. The democrats claim to have lost 5000 votes in this way. This claim is partly borne out by the fact that the vote for congressman fell several thousand short of the vote for sheriff.

R K Armour, of the Chicago Armour Packing Company, stated in Kansas City the other day that the prices of canned meat are to be raised, but it is not definitely known just how much. The raise is attributed to the raising of the tariff on tin by the McKinley bill. They also advance the price of lard in tin cans one fourth of a cent per pound for the reason of the increase in the duties on tin. The Armours are strong republicans and now that the elections are over speak frankly as to the cause of the advance.

When Senator Ingall's term expires it is reported on excellent authority that he will enter upon editorial work on the New York Sun. It is said that editor Dana has offered him $10,000 per annum to take a position which shall be held to represent the Sun in western politics.

Every democrat who was ousted from his seat by Reed's "business congress" and was renominated was elected by an increased majority and ever district deprived of its democratic member by his being ousted, will be represented in the next congress by a democrat. This is the response of the people to Reed, McKinley & Co.

KISSES.
(A la Romeo and Juliet.)
A prominent physician calls the kiss "an elegant disseminator of disease." He says, "fever is spread by it, so are lung diseases." Out upon the gnarled and careless vagabond! Evidently kisses are not for such as he, and the old fox says the grapes are sour. Let him devote himself to making our women healthy and blooming that kisses may be kisses. This can surely be done by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which is simply magical in curing diseases peculiar to females. After taking it for a reasonable length of time there will be no more irregularity, backache, bearing-down sensations, nervous prostration, general debility and kindred ailments. It is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money refunded.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

Too Young by Far.

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 13.—Four little girls, whose ages ranged from 10 to 13 years were tried here to-day for stealing $500 worth of goods. They were charged with shoplifting. Their names are Mary Hughes, Mary Nolan and Aggie and May Terhune. The girls confessed their guilt, and Mary Nolan, the brightest of the four, described the operations of the gang, which has extended over a period of three months. Among articles taken were cloaks, hats, umbrellas, stockings and jewelry.

A Gentleman Now.

SEATTLE, Nov. 13.—The board of public works, a body created by the new charter, today made the startling discovery that the city surveyor under the system of the old board has been paying his men one price, but charging the property owners another. The present city surveyor who has only been in office a few months was officially taxed with the irregularity to-day and admitted it, but threw the blame upon one Wallingford, a member of the council. He also admits that it was done, and so advised the new surveyor. As the city spent over $300,000 on street work during the year, the scandal threatens to assume serious proportion.

Students and Soldiers.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 13.— A serious riot occurred here last night between students and a company of militia. The students fell in behind the company, much to its annoyance. Lieutenant Granger ordered the company to charge the students. Then ensued one of the fiercest hand to hand conflicts ever witnessed here, the malitia using their muskets as clubs, the students anything available. The injured are numerous, and there was one fatality, Irving Dennison, of Toledo, O., who died this morning. He was struck by a stone.

Complete Pennsylvania Returns.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 13.—Completed returns finished this evening show Pattison, dem., for governor, has 16,554 plurality over Delamater, rep.; Watres, rep., for lieutenant governor, has a plurality of 22,365 over Black, dem.,; Stewart, rep., for secretary of state, has a plurality of 25,491 over Barclay, dem. The prohibition vote reached 17,000, while the labor people polled 250 votes for their candidate.

Left for the East.

WALLA WALLA, Nov. 13.—G W Hunt left this morning for another visit to New York and eastern cities. Hunt refused to be interviewed before leaving as to his business affairs, but it is supposed, from all that can be learned, that his purpose is to sell his bonds, as it is understood that the arraignments previously made have fallen completely through.

A Spunky Woman.

TACOMA Nov 12—Mary Kirby made herself famous by capturing burglars in her fathers hotel? Five men registered last night. This morning she heard a noise in the room of a guest and saw a man jump in a closet. She closed the door on him but there was a window in the closet. She seized his coat tail as he was about to spring out at the same time screaming for help. A man was choping wood in the next yard, came to the rescue and held him until a policeman arrived. These men are Frisco toughs on their way to Seattle.

A Local Sensation

AKRON Nov 12—A sensation was created to day by the arrest of A Collins ex mayor of Akron for robbing the till in A Gille saloon. He has been missing money for a long time and several hands were discharged. Detectives today caught Collins taking money and found marked coins on his person. Collins is 70 years old and the head of one of the prominent families in this section of the state. He also is a thirty-third degree Mason.

Young Moody Married.

PORT TOWNSEND Nov 12—R Moody son of ex Gov Moody of Oregon was married to Miss James The wedding was a brilliant affair. The couple went to Victoria this after noon and will visit Oregon before returning home.

Deserting a Town.

WASHINGTON Nov 12—Advices from Granda Nicaragua the scene of the recent earthquake are to the effect that within 300 miles there are 25 volcanoes none in the vicinity of the city being active and prophecies have been made as to the ultimate fate of Granada, some persons agreeing with a noted French expert that the city will sink out of sight or a volcano will be thrown up in its midst. Many buildings have their walls badly cracked. Thousands of inhabitants have fled to adjacent towns

A Big Wreck.

LONDON Nov 12— The ship Serpent was wrecked 20 miles north of Cape Finisterre and 247 men drowned. Three escaped. Serpent went on the rocks during a storm on Spanish coast. It was impossible to obtain assistance. The ship remained in her helpless position until broken to pieces by the seas that swept her over. The crew was swept overboard by the remorseless waves and drowned.

Figures Speak.

PORTLAND Nov 12—Washington is down in the census returns for 349,516 inhabitants and Oregon for 312,490. Yet Washington has never cast as many votes by 20 per cent as Oregon,. The explanation is that in Washington the census was fully taken while in Oregon there was really no census at all. As Washington shows 350,000 inhabitants with 60,000 voters Oregon with 75,000 voters can have no less than 400,000 inhabitants. This also is just about the proportion of inhabitants to voters in California, Minnesota, Nebraska Colorado and other states.

The city of Seattle at an election held last Tuesday threw 4109 votes. Tacoma at the same time threw 4322 votes. The combined vote of the two cities was 8431. The election at Portland last June was 8696 and of Portland and E Poatland together 11,916.

Blain the Man.

WASHINGTON Nov 12—H C Lodge member of congress and author of the election bill is credited with the following utterance.

I attribute the defeat in Massachusetts to one man and one utterance of that man more than any other thing. It was the declaration of J G Blain that the McKinley bill not sell a barrel of pork or flour and it did more harm than all the assertions of the democrats together. The party was discredited by a party leader and one who has been looked up to as a oracle. The men in that state who believe in Blain proved largely indifferent th the success of the candidates. Blain is responsible for our defeat, while I prefer not to be quoted now, I shall before long seize the oppertunity to repeat in public what I now say to you in confidence.

A Side Show.

COLUMBUS Nov 12—There was a sensational tragedy at the racetrack today. The grand stand was packed with people. After the conclusion of the gentlemens race T Dawson left his sulky and went behind the judge stand. In a few seconds a pistol shot was heard and saw Dawson running pursued Dick and Robert Howard and J Bickerstaff who was firing at him. In a minute Dawson returned fire but soon fell and expired. The assailants were not injured. The tragedy was the outcome of a family quarrel Dawson having deserted Howards sister. There is much excitement The Howards refuse to speak.

No More Consumption.

BERLIN Nov 12—A Frankfort telegram says the emperor has made a personal gift of $250,000 to Prof Kock and another of the same amount to endow a national institute for the production of anti-consumption lymph used in Koch's process.

MISFITS.

"Please state in the DEMOCRAT that this is magnificent weather," says an Albany man, "and send me several extra copies."

The great chemist, Prof Liebig, said: "We must drink twenty-three barrels of the best Bavarian beer to get as much food as is in five pounds of bread or three of meat." Another fact which drinking men well know is this: that a moderate beer drinker drinks more alcohol in a day than he who takes whiskey "cocktails" three times a day.

The following poem has been handed us for publication. It simply shows what great changes take place in a year and the world keeps growing:

Last fall—
A little horse hair sofa
In a corner stood,
Youth and maiden sparking,
So far so good.
This fall.—
Little baby in a crib,
Giving lots of bother,
Youthful wife making bibs,
Beside baby's father.

When any one asks you how you feel, if not well, you should say bad, and not badly, as is the custom with many, an adjective and not an adverb being proper.—Albany Democrat. That's all right for Albany, but in Salem you say good, and not goodly or goody.—Statesman. Yes, that's Salem's style, "if not well" they say good, that black is white and the spider green, anything to deceive the public and their friends. Albany tells the truth.

It is said that "music has charms to still the savage breast," or words to that effect, and any one passing the blind organ grinder on Third street this morning would have readily conceived the spirit of the saying, for lying beside him as he was grinding out some of his most pathetic airs on his instrument, with a sign hung about his neck to "help the poor blind man," was a small silver side salmon which has been left no doubt, for some one's contribution.

It is said to be bad luck to wear a number 13 shoe. This is a serious matter with Corvallis young men.

Some one tells the DEMOCRAT the hydrant water being used now comes from the Calipooia instead of the Santiam. If so the fact offers food for reflection, in view of the fact that the Calipooia sewer and city cemetery are only a short distance above the wheel.

The Coroner's jury yesterday evening paved the way for a large number of big damage suits against the Southern Pacific by reporting that they found the ill-fated trestle to be an unsound, unsafe bridge, and that the Southern Pacific company is guilty of criminal negligence in allowing such a structure to stand and to be used for the passage of trains."

The well being sunk here for gas is 525 feet deep and the prospects for oil and gas are equal to any of the Pennsylvania oil regions. Mr Corbett having been greatly troubled with the enormous amount of salt water has not been able to make very fast progress, but is determined to go down 1500 feet if necessary to obtain gas, oil and coal.—Drain Echo. Perhaps it will prove another W S Ladd bore.

Crawford & Paxton have recently taken a large number of stereoscopic views from scenes around Albany. They show that we have some natural scenery that is very attractive. Though not rugged and fierce like some of that on the Columbia, nor grand like mountain scenery, yet the views are the kind people like to look at. The Willamette is a pretty river. Several scenes of Thornton Lake, with the autumn foliage in its glory, will prove popular attractians for center tables.

We acknowledge the receipt of a $1 silver certificate in payment for an advertisement, which looks as if it had been used as a flag in both the Mexican and Civil wars and afterwards used as a wash rag for several years; but by a powerful inspection the name of C A Jordan, Treasurer, can be found on it, so it is not so aged as it might be, and will pass on sight. It is a peculiar fact that some people hunt for their worst money, their scrubbiest wood, the smallest potatoes, the wormiest apples and the most afflicted onions with which to pay the printer, though the press is the backbone of the country.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN.

Birchall was to hang yesterday. The M. A. T. knows what it is to have all birch hang over him in the days of his schooling.

The weather recorder should give the total depth of frost at the end of this month. It would, strangely enough, materially affect the amount of rainfall, though frost and rain, to be sure, are distant relatives only.

There are plenty of pests in the world. Not only are there fruit pests; but tramp pests, dog pests, cat pests, gossiping pests, lying pests, etcetera, all around us.

The Man About Town observes that the Oregoniana column in the Oregonian is one of the ablest in any paper on the Coast. It is made up from the state exchanges without credit, in the one before us the first item being one a month old from the DEMOCRAT, and the last several days old from the Corvallis Times. Any paper, though, that will kick at the Oregonian stealing little, unimportant items should be clubbed with a telegraph pole, for all the papers steal from it by the wholesale until it is sort of a family necessity.

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E Hurd of Groton, S D, we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my Lungs, coughs set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr King's New Discovery for Consumytion, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles; it has cured me and thank God I am a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at Foshay & Mason's drug store, regular size, 50c and $1.

BROWNSVILLE.

November 10th, 1890.

We are pleased to learn that there was a quorum out on last Tuesday and no Boss Reed to count them.

Jas Shea, of this place, went to Albany on Saturday by Narrow Gauge and hack, as the Lebanon train had passed the junction. He and others had to telegraph for a hack and team. He came back the same day or night, as it was 3 o'clock Sunday morning when he got home. All lay at the junction until 1 o'clock Sunday morning, waiting for the Narrow Gauge train.'

All of the section hands from Coburg to Woodburn went to the junction to commence laying standard gauge rails and think it will be completed to Brownsville in about ten days.

The flume to the Woolen Mills will be done to night, and the mills will start on Tuesday.

J M Waters, of Seattle, is here looking after the slow-pay fellows, and John is good at that.

The man Wilkinson, spoken of as late of Brownsville, has not lived here for 6 or 8 years, and was never married at this place. He has his third wife, we are to'd. We only speak of this so people who do not know will not think we are all no good, as we see we have another fellow published in the Times, and it does look as if we send out our share of bad ones; but we can say what is our gain will be some other places loss.

Our band has employed Prof Engkoffer, late of Spokane, and will again take music lessons. We hear the Prof will also teach the Crawfordsville band.

A. Jack Adams has sold his place here and will move his family to Lebanon this week. Success, Jack.

Dick Bradley, of this place, came into town last Saturday, on muleback. He looked like a 49er and was just from the mines up the creek.

IN MEMORIAM.

WHEREAS, It has pleased our Divine Master above to call from our midst Sister Alice Walton, an honored member of Oak Plain Grange, who died at the home of her father, S G Collins, near Shedd, October 17th, 1890.

Whereas, She was a sincere and devoted Christian, and leaves to mourn her loss a husband, a devoted mother and father, brothers and sisters; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we as a grange extend to the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy in the hour of their affliction and sorrow.

Resolved, That our hall be draped in mourning for 30 days.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread on the minutes and a copy be sent to the family, also to the DEMOCRAT and Herald-Disseminator for publication.

Then weep not friends, what time ye lay
The cold, moist earth above my ashes;
Think what a rest awaits my clay,
And smooth the mound with tearless lashes,
Glad that the wasted form within
Has done at length with care and sin.

Think that with her the strife is o'er,
Life's stormy struggling battle ended;
Hope that her soul has gained that shore
To which, though weak, her footsteps tended.
Breathe the dear hope above her sod
And leave her to rest—and God.

MRS D A DAVIS,
MRS J RAMSEY,
MRS I M SPRENGER,
Committee.

OAKVILLE, Or, Nov 13, 1890.

Left home at Oakville, Or, on the 10th for a vacation. A few lines may interest some of the readers of your paper. We took dinner in the upper part of Linn county in a place called Harrisburg, my first visit to the place. Let me say to any one that may pass that way to keep their dogs tied to the wagon as they are liable to loose them. My dog was stolen from almost under my wagon. I said I would soon come up with them, and when they saw I meant to stay with them, they give him up after detaining us an hour. Came to Coburg, and am camped. Quite a little place, lots of men at work here, grading and building bridges for the railroad and are now camping within a mile of the Golden Egg quartz claim. Considerable stir about timber claims, some paying $75 to be located. Two or three logging camps running, one for the Corvallis mill. From here I go to Hot Springs.

TEMPERANCE COLUMN.

Edited by Albany W. C. T. U

Mrs L M N Stevens, president of the Maine W C T U, writes that the state convention just closed was the largest and best by far ever held in Maine. It made a profound impression in Portland, where it was held. All the pastors of the city came to the convention with, or sent, greetings and words of cheer. Over six hundred new members have been added during the year.

The North Dakota W C T U at its convention at Jamestown, September 29th, created a department of charitable work and elected Mrs Linda Slaughter superintendent. The object of this department is to prevent suffering among the poor of the state during the coming winter, and its headquarters, together with the department of "The Relation of Temperance to Labor," will be at the W C T U reading rooms at Bismarck, where all donations may be sent.

Until the drink factor is eliminated from the problem there can be no successful solution of the wage question or any other question that relates to the betterment of the working classes. Any system of social reform that does not take full cognizance of the vast and awful waste of property and human life caused by the drink traffic fails at the vital point and cannot succeed. As long as the saloon and gin palaces crowd the streets of our cities and towns so long are poverty and misery the inevitable condition of vast multitudes of our people. Universal peace, happiness and prosperity are not possible in a country that knows such a thing as the saloon.—New York Mail and Express.

Nature produces the light given by the firefly at about one-400th part of the cost of the energy which is expended in the candle flame, and at an insignificant fraction of the cost of electric light or the most economical light that has yet been devised.

Cure for Spinal Weakness.

E F Weelsler, Yates, Orleans Co, N Y, writes:

"My wife, five years ago, was confined to her bed with inflammatory rheumatism of the muscles of the back. The doctors thought her case hopeless, and doomed her to be a bedridden invalid. The violent pain kept her awake almost every night. She lost over thirty pounds in weight. To ease her pain I thought I would put on Allcock's Porous Plasters. I covered her back with them. To my great delight she began to sleep well. The pain very much abated in one week. I then took the plasters off washed her back, and put on fresh ones. at the end of the second week she insisted on getting up, and by the third week was entirely well and able to attend to her household duties."

Cannot be successfully traveled without good health. To reach wealth or any coveted position in life requires the full possession and operation of all the faculties kind nature has endowed us with.
