Editors and Proprietors.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.—Net receipts derived from Bishop Becker's lectures $30.

Not at home to-day, the General Secretary cleaning house.

The number of visitors at our rooms is on the increase.

Investigate, investigate the workings of our association.

Our membership is on the increase.

There will be a meeting of the Board of directors on Friday evening, Dec 5th, at 7:30 p m. A full attendance is desired on account of important business to transact.

This week finds the Association in possession, by gift, of a very fine and elaborately framed oil painting of Mt Desert, Me. The painting is 22x30 inches, and represents the rolling waves of the ocean beating against its rock-ribbed shore, from which arises Mt Desert. To say the least, it shows that the artist, who is no other than Miss Grace Trumbull, of this city, is one of no little skill, for the art displayed in this picture is simply fine. In behalf of the Y M C A of Albany, Oregon, J. H W Young, General Secretary of the Association, do hereby extend the heartfelt thanks of the Association to Miss Grace Trumbull, the donor of this beautiful picture, with the assurance that it will be kept as a memento of one who deeply appreciates the endeavors of the Young Men's Christian Association to extend the cause of Christ.

THE SCIO ELECTION.—The longest pole got the persimmons in the Scio election Monday. The election was the hottest contested, best natured affair in the history of this city. The contest was on Marshal. A H Hagey was first put up, but about 11 o'clock it was found that he was not in it, when a new ticket was gotten out with W H Ramsey for Marshal. Ramsey is 6 feet 6 inches tall and he swept things, being elected by 10 votes, beating J A Bilyeu, the present Marshal. In the evening Bilyeu wheeled Ramsey through the streets on a wheelbarrow and the picture was a great one. Ramsey is anti-gambling, and the gamblers say they will have to quit. A H Johnson was elected Mayor, Lee Brown Recorder and O S May, Treasurer.

A. O. U. W. ELECTION.—At the regular weekly session of Safety Lodge, No 13, A O U W, held Monday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term:

A H Martin, P M W.
A D Barker, M W.
J A Hyman, Foreman.
E C Phelps, Overseer.
T J Stites, Recorder.
E A Parker, Financier.
A Saylor, Receiver.
A H Phelps, Guide.
M W Orton, I W.
G L Savage, O W.
A J Anslyn, Trustee.

WOULD LIKE TO KNOW HIM.—An item is going the rounds of the press that John Douthit, a cousin of the editor of this paper has fallen heir to an estate valued at $150 000, by the death of his mother-in-law at Marietta, Ohio. We have never had the pleasure of meeting this fortunate cousin in fact we were not aware of the fact that we had a cousin, nearer than of the fourth or fifth degree, anywhere except in South Carolina, but if it is true that our cousin John is wandering around on this coast, and that he has been fortunate enough to fall heir to a fortune, we stand with arms wide spread to embrace and receive him as our own, dear, long-lost cousin.—Ochoco Review.

HALSEY.—"Bob" Andrews purchased a hog one day last week which weighed, 576 pounds.

Among the many things that Halsey needs in the way of improvements none are more essential than a flouring mill.

Frank Friaby, our real estate agent, reports the sale of 65 acres of land one mile west of town to J M Guilford and John Standish at $30 per acre. This land was purchased for a fruit farm.

Rumor has it that a certain Glass-eyed man, supposed to be a resident of Crawfordsville, and who puts in his spare time in Halsey, is taking steps to close up the leading dressmaking establishment of this place and carry away the dressmaker.—News.

IT IS COMING.—Observing Mr. Petty Spink acting in an excited manner this morning, at the French corner, a DEMOCRAT man investigated the matter and learned it was simply over the barometer, which was "way down" even to 28:32. Mr. Spink declared that was as low as it ever got here, and he is a barometer observer. Another old-timer, though, declared he had seen it down to 28:55. Anyway, the indications are strong for a big storm, probably enough to make up for recent deficiency in the storm-kettle.

LEBANON.—The Salem Bridge has been raised to $1200 a year, with Stock bonds, to take effect on Jan 1. W H Guy and Brown & Hansell are probable take out licenses, giving the city two saloons.

F M Miller, contemplating a trip east, has resigned as Marshal of the city, and at a meeting last evening Phil Smith was elected to succeed him.

The paper mills are progressing in a very satisfactory manner.

Mayor Milt Miller went to Portland today on business.

A JEFF DAVIS RELIC.—Mrs Alderson, residing four miles across the river, in Benton county, was in the city to day, and while here showed a DEMOCRAT man a genuine Jeff Davis relic. It was a piece of the cape of the cloak which he wore when captured in woman's attire. It is of heavy black goods and was given Mrs Alderson by one of the men who helped to catch him, an old friend and neighbor of her's. Being connected with one of the noted events of history the relic is one full of interest.

REFORMERS.—Among those who believe in the ability of the farmer and labor to organize and demand justice, says the Reform Journal, we find J B Roberts, of Shedds; J S Morris and B F Darby, of Scio; H F Miller, Stayton; B A Irmise, A M Shelton, T P Goodman, James Shelton, of Jordon; Isaac Bates, Rev W Huriburt and John W Thomas, also of Stayton; H H Cook, of Brownsvillee; Geo. Ashby and F M Albough, of Whiteaker; P M Lathrop, of Mehama. These are earnest men, possessed of that real patriotism necessary to save a nation.

SOMETHING DOING.—After all there is quite a little life in the real estate market. Among other transactions, during the past month, Mr. S. N. Steele, the real estate man, sold for A. J. Hodges the remaing lots of Fairdale, 64 in number to Mr. E. S. Barrows, the life insurance man, and since then ten of the lots have been sold to other parties. The prices of last year prevail and the tendency is upwards.

A GOOD SHOWING.—At the regular monthly meeting of the Salem Building and Loan association last night, $1000 was loaned at seventy-four month's interest in advance, and $800 at sixty months. It is understood that already three hundred shares for the new series to be opened in January have been pledged.—Statesman.

HIGH MEAT PROSPECTS.—The indications are that it will cost something to eat meat next year. The following is from the Grant to News: We understand buyers are endeavoring to contract beef cattle in this county at $35 per head, to be delivered next spring. This is another indication that beef is rapidly increasing in value. If you have any steers and slathers of hay and plenty of time to feed it to the cattle, the News would say to feed it and sell your beeves next summer.

A BAND COMPANY.—The Halsey Ultimatum band has been formed and articles of incorporation filed with the secretary of state. John Standish, I A Phelps, T A Powell, and R Bamford are the incorporators and directors. Halsey is the place for the principal office, and $1500 is the capital stock.

SCIO.—Ed Goins last week sold his interest in the lease of the Jefferson mills to his partner, and will in the future devote his entire attention to his business interests in this city.

Mr. J. G. Eagan, of the firm of Eagan & Acheson, marble dealers of Albany, accompanied by Johnny Murphy, made us a pleasant call on Tuesday.

Sheriff Matt Scott was in our city Wednesday and Thursday in the capacity of tax collector. He collected in both precincts, Scio and Franklin Butte, a little over $2500.

Two men were on our streets thanksgiving day whose combined ages amount to 187 years. Uncle Johnny Crabtree, aged 91 years, of this county, and Grandfather Bailey, of Salem, 96 years old. Truly they have something to be thankful for.—Press.

A BUSINESS SOLD.—Dr. Geo. W. Gray the pioneer dentist, of this city, has sold his dental office, fixtures and business here to Dr. S. E. Starr, of Iowa, who will take charge of the same on January 1, when Dr. Gray will retire from the business and devote his time to resting up and other interests. The Doctor began practicing in the spring of 1861 and has been in business here continuously since.

AN ELECTRIC SHOCK.—A very peculiar accident happened at Eugene a few days ago: While a butcher who works for Fisher & Watkins was turning on the electric light in their cutting room, he accidently touched the metal above the shade and was immediately knocked down. The floor he was standing on was covered with salt water, which formed a conductor for the electric fluid.

THE SALEM ELECTION.—At Salem yesterday P H D'Arey, dem., was elected Mayor by 5 majority. Goodell, rep., was elected Recorder by 175 majority. Harry Minto Marshal by 70 majority, and E J Swafford Treasurer by 280 majority. 895 votes were cast for Mayor, and a big vote was polled, the contest being a very hot one, particularly on Mayor.

A PORTLAND WOMAN named Sharp, given notoriety in the Portland Mercury, a sensational paper, which, though generally tells the truth, says the woman claims to have been engaged to Sam Smead, a wealthy liveryman of Corvallis. Mr Smead formerly resided in Albany with his wife, from whom we understand he has been separated some time.

A COSTLY PICTURE.—Mr Watt Monteith placed in his saloon to day an oil painting, such as caused so much consternation at the recent fair at Portland. It was purchased of Grunat, of Portland, for the reputed price of $1250, and was painted by one of the famous Parisian artists, Michelet, we believe.

Mr Peebler has returned from Southern California, where he left his wife at Pasadena. The daily temperature was about 80 to 85 and oranges were in their glory. Mrs Peebler remained for her health.

Monday evening the friends of Rev. Shangle, of the M E Church, South, tendered him a donation surprise party that was a very nice affair, appreciated as much by those who believed it was more blessed to give than to receive, as by the worthy recipients of a liberal purse and many substantial things a minister needs, as well as spiritual backing.

Shot by a Night Watchman.

Saturday evening, just before the Portland train arrived, nightwatch McClain, seeing a tramp-looking man on the platform, told him he had better leave, as he was looking for a tramp on the train and wanted no confusion. The man said he was a cook and had just gotten a job at the Waverly house. McClain, not taking any stock in his assertions, ordered him off, and he disappeared.

A despatch had been received by the marshal, from Salem, ordering the arrest of a tramp who would probably be on the train, and when the train arrived McClain was on the lookout. Seeing a man jump from behind the cattle pen, near the water tank, and run, thinking it might be the man he was after he ordered him to stop. The man refused. Then McClain told him to stop or he would shoot. Not doing so he fired as the man was going around the freight house, with intention of hitting him. The man stepped and then came back, declaring he had been shot, which proved to be the case. On approaching him the nightwatch learned it was the L.AD claiming to be a cook. He took him to the Waverly house, where Dr Mason attended him. The ball had passed into the man's right side, going under the skin only and out a short distance further towards the front. The man gave his name as Fred Votley. He had gotten his breakfast that day at the Exchange hotel, free, and his dinner and supper at the Waverly, where he had been hired to take the other cook's place, beginning Sunday morning. It is doubted though, if he were a cook at all, and it was thought he was intending to leave on the train, he says he was at the depot to meet a friend whom he expected through on the train, in order to tell him that he had a job.

A Match Hunt.

If you will allow me space in your paper I would like to give the boys great praise and credit. They certainly did well as hunters on thanksgiving day, armed with shotguns and knives. Walter Settle and Mervin Turner were chosen as captains. When they started for the woods one would have thought from the sound of guns they would not leave a single bird; yet we can't miss them, except now and then we see a carcas with his head carved off and gone, which was all that was necessary for a score. One man captured a live skunk, sacked him and started, but he got so loud he got his freedom. Another found a dead whitepoke; he carved off his head, and on he went, thinking no one had seen him.

The score was as follows:

Captain Settle	680	Captain Turner	357
J. Caldwell	125	G. Long	60
I. Hite	125	J. Wilbanks	140
A. Frankwell	40	W. Hannon	10
R. Watson	710	G. Hoffich	300
F. Minzenmire	125	R. Hoffich	972
D. Lee	357	T. Hoffich	972
J. Hannon	338	D. Taylor	1805
H. Obling	90	I. Turner	100
S. Caldwell	124	C. Poter	90
	5760		5910

A party will be given the following week, also supper furnished by the losing side.
NIMROD.

THE INDIAN WAR.—People generally do not anticipate anything serious with the Indians in Dakota. A more serious matter is that of getting the best groceries at the least price. A sure way to learn how is to call on Powell & Co. Their prices the lowest. For a complete assortment to select from, they stand in the front ranks.

NO DANGER.—No one can ever be wrecked financially who buys their groceries of Parker Bros. You are sure of good quality, low prices and first class treatment. Their stock is always up with the market, consisting of the freshest vegetables and best groceries to be found. Their bakery department in splendid hands, and their baked goods can always be relied on.

NOTHING SMALL about Matthews & Washburn. See the necessary article that all newly married people want (shortly), that they offer to give to every couple married between Thanksgiving and New Years, 'ot, who purchase a cook stove

THE CITY ELECTION.

A very small vote was polled at the city election Monday, due to the fact that the only city officers to be elected were the marshal and treasurer, the re-election of the present efficient marshal being a foregone conclusion. Following was

The republicans elected two aldermen and the democrats one, yet the majority of the latter was exactly the same as the combined majorities of two others, making the city even. Many voters, though, did not pay much attention to politics.

TAKEN TO THE ASYLUM.—Nancy J Fitzwater was brought from Lacomb this morning, and on examination ordered sent to the insane asylum, where Deputy Sheriff Smith took her this noon. She has been almost a complete idiot since eleven years of age. Taking a more violent nature it was found almost impossible to take care of her longer, hence the action.

A NEW SABBATH SCHOOL.—A Mission Sabbath school was organized in the Crowder building, in the Third Ward, yesterday, by the Baptist Sabbath school. There were 112 on the inside, all the building would hold, and many on the outside. C H Hart was elected Superintendent, and Mrs Croft Vice-President. It is intended to erect a chapel in that part of the city suitable for the work.

Anyone who enters the store of L. E Blain will be struck with the large stock of clothing which he has on hand for the winter trade, and as well with the choice assortment of patterns, the very latest styles being found in his stock. He unquestionably has a fine stock of goods for the purchaser to select from, and when he has made his selection, getting just what he wants. The prices, considering the quality of the goods, are very low. In that respect they talk for themselves. It doesn't take very much money to get a fine business suit of him. One doesn't have to be a millionaire to dress well if a customer of Blain. Mr. Blain has the exclusive agency here for the Albany woolen mill suits, already very popular. His stocks of furnishing goods, boots, shoes, hats and caps, are leading ones in their line. The suits which go from his tailoring department are commented on as being very stylish and splendidly made.

IN CONSTANT PAIN 15 M

And How it Was Cured by Electricity After All Other Known Remedies Had Failed—Total Deafness Cured by the Same Method Eighteen Years Ago, and Remains Permanent to This Day.

No 14, MALKET ST, PORTLAND, OR. } November 28, 1890.

Editor Oregonian: Seeing so many cards and letters in favor of Dr Darrin, I think it justice to him, and as well as the afflicted, to tell what he did for my wife two years ago. For fifteen months prior to calling on him she had been suffering constant pain night and day from the effects of rheumatism in her arm and shoulder. She had not raised her arm to her head during that time. She could not sleep only by taking opiates and her general health was poor and broken down. After a course of electric treatment by Dr. Darrin, she was cured, and has never had a return of her former troubles. Will gladly answer any questions by mail or otherwise. C. F. MAYHEW.

Total Deafness Cured by Electricity.

Mr. Editor: In 1872 my daughter was taken with membranous croup, and upon her recovery was left totally deaf. I called on two eminent physicians who said they could do nothing for her. As a last resort I took her took her Dr. Darrin, who cured her so she has never been troubled with deafness since. I consider it one of the greatest cures of electric treatment on record, and with great satisfaction give this testimonial. I reside in Berkley, Alameda Co, California, and will take great pleasure in answering any inquires concerning this most remarkable cure. Yours respectfully,
WILLIAM S. DIBBLE.

The doctors are crowded with patients from 10 a m to 8 p m. They have a large country practice and send their electric remedies to anyone desiring home treatment for any curable chronic, acute or private diseases, which are kept strictly confidential.

One of the doctors is visiting different towns in the state to better accommodate those who find it impossible to come to Portland. One of the doctors will be at the Hoffman house, Eugene City, Dec 1 to 5.

The head office at 70½ Washington St, Portland, will run as usual. Consultation and examination free. All classes treated free from 10 to 11 daily. Charges moderate, being only $20 a month for each disease, or in that proportion, as cases may require. Send for circulars, free to any address.

BROWNSVILLE.

December 1st, 1890.

Died, at this place, on Nov. 26th, of consumption, Josephine, wife of Henry C Mackey. She was buried in the city cemetery on Thanksgiving day.

The meeting at the Baptist church on last Saturday was well attended, but as of old no minister was elected. There appears to be two factions in this church and both are like the dog in the manger that cannot eat the hay and will not let the cow have it. This looks bad for those who profess to love the good of mankind. Time to come and let us reason together.

For some reasons Thanksgiving day was not observed here. Some were too busy to give thanks and like most Americans were in the mad race for the $, while others were deprived on account of the sorrows of the day.

We see the Times has called in Nemo, of this place, on the county business, and says we will divide the county, etc. Now Nemo likes to descant on his service, when other men said if we can't get justice at Washington we will divide the Union, yet he is in for division. If so, and it is not done, then we say have as much money spent in the south half of the county as in the north, and if not, register an eternal kick about it; but as for us we have no fault to find, as all of the rivers in this part are bridged, and if a bridge is a necessity in some other place put it up. I guess we will come down with our proportion of the taxes, and continue to do so as in the past. We cannot see what there is to kick about, for one part of a county who has no large and turbulent streams to contend with, to be always growling at those who have is not in true accord with the best interests of the county nor of the whole people. The greatest good to the greatest number, is our motto, with special privileges to none. J. P. C.
