The Democrat.

THE CAUSE OF IT.

Republican newspapers and republican eaders have been persistently telling their party followers that the tariff bill and Force bill had nothing to do with the defeat of their party in November. As a mere partisan, we trust the rank and file of that party may be made to believe it. The democrats feel that they could have no better issue to go before the people on in 1892 than the McKinley bill and the in 1892 than the McKinley bill and the Lodge Force bill. But as tending to show Ar | 0.00 A M the hallucination under which the leaders

"We demand that the war tariff, which has too long survived the object of its creation, shall be radically revised, giving very material reductions in the necessaries of life, and placing raw material on the with the world for a market, and that such luxuries as whisky and tobacco shall in no manner be relieved from internal taxation till the high protective sariff has been wholly rid of its extortions. We especially denounce the McKinly bill as the crowning infamy of protection

We denounce the force bill now pend-Ar 100 A b in congress as a dangerous and revolutionary measure, devised for partisan purposes. It will open the wounds of the war and retard the happy day of regeneration and peace, and we hold that one of the grandest ims of the alliance is the restoration of fraternal feeling and true concord among the people of the republic,'

Here is indubitable proof of the serious proads which the campaign of education is making into the whilom serried ranks of that dying party.

as been a genuine and decided change. There is no room now for despair as to democratic supremacy and the permanence of the supremacy. The republican party has had its day and must go. The exigency which called it into exist nee is over. The great party of the future in this country is the democratic party, and no oppressed popular interest ever looked to that party in vain.—New York World.

Some people have a habit of saying everything is dull and quiet on all occa-sions. They would do it if there were a dog fight on First Street, a drunken row in an alley and every store was crowded.

It is a very bad practice to lie that way unsecessarily. Things don't have to be at white heat to be moving. It isn't necessary for home people to be trading property at inflated prices in order to have matters stirring in the proper share.
