the surplus line question has at last been solved and a boon to underwriters granted. "We are the general agents for several first class insurance companies," the circular reads, "and are prepared to issue policies for any required amount on a short notice, regardless of location or degree of hasard, and we are allowed the privilege of fixing such rates as may in our judgment seem adequate." Two of the aforesaid first-class (?) companies are mutuals, the Portland Union Indemnity Association and the Tremont Mutual Fire of Tremont, O. Mr Nelli of the firm is president of the Portland and Mr Raymoud is secretary. J P Elderkin (who was formerly genera: Eastern agent of the Farmers and Merchants of Albany) fills out the completement of the firm.

The coroner's jury, empaneled by Coroner Scott, found a verdict in accordance of the above facts. Harsls' head, feet and right arm were severed from the body and the bowels and breast horribly multilated.—Statesman.

Though a pair of shoes were found on the track near the body of Harris, his feet were not multilated and it is probable they had not been worn by him. MEETING SOME BREAKERS,-Mr Terry, representing Lewis & Dryden. of Portland, who is in the city delivering "Albany Illustrated," is meeting with some knotty problems, caused by the tricks of B F Conrad, who got up the work. Conrad sold out to Lewis & Dryden. One of the contracts presented in Albany was signed by S E Young for $75 worth of pamph lets, Mr Young states that it is a forgery. He only ordered $15 worth. Some others are refusing to receive the pamphlet according to the contracts presented. The book, so far as Lewis & Dryden are concerned, is a good job.

MORE ABOUT HIM, -- Homer G Harris, who was killed by the cars near Marion Tuesday evening, worked in J H Settle-mier's nursery near Woodburn for a few days and left that place on the "blind baggage," or the tracks, of last Tuesday evening's train This baggage," or the tracks, of last Tuesday evening's train. This was the train that stopped at the Marion woodpiles, and which killed young Harris. His people at Mc-Minnville are highly respected.—Statesman. If this is true it will prove that the man killed was not the one who escaped from the Albany officers.

Prof C B Leatherman, formerly principal of the Athena public school, has been engaged as principal of the Weston school for the coming term. Prof Leatherman has commenced suit against the Athena directors for the recovery of two months salary, school having been dismissed at the end of seven months by the directors, on account of a measle epidemic. He was engaged to teach for the full term, and

It takes more men to run the passenger trains on the S P road in California than formerly, a new employe styled the "train ticket agent" having been added to the crew. His business is to relieve the conductor of all business connected with the collection of tickets and money for fares, leaving the conductor nothing to do but to look after the running of the train. One of the objects is to prevent "leakage."

THE MAN RUN OVER .- It is now definately learned that the man killed was the 21-year-old son of Hon Wyatt Harris, of McMinnville, recorder of Yamhilleouniv.

Memberseserond Things.—"Will the commicient brother who penned the wheat item in the Democrat, be kind enough to tell his readers that "the commercial editor of the Harrisburg Courier" was correct when he stated that May & Senders sold 3000 bushels of wheat at $1 a bushel, and that the one dollar, which is, by the way, a few cents more than has been given by any one in Albany this season, was the price paid to them here."—Harrisburg Courier.

The following from a Harrisburg correspondent, absolutely reliable, will show that the "Democrar knew what it was talking about: "The amount paid for the wheat of May & Senders was one dollar secked and I, o, b. the boat, was bought by Fischer, of Corvallis, who said it was not really worth it, but he would pay it rather than cut off any of his established trade. We would call that price 92c net, not more. No merchant has paid a dollar a bushel for wheat here. I write you this because I don't believe in a town getling out misrepresentations just to appear "big." Odds and ends of wheat are coming in here at 90c."
