Coming in our midst with comparatively little acquaintance with our people, these two women have made for themselves a grateful place in the hearts of the many. Among their pupils one notes the come de la-creme of the pretty school muses of today. The colors of this distinguished school seem to me well chosen. Rose color, to prefigure the tint of all youthful hopes, and green, typical of eternal springtime in the land of science. Happy little maidens!—but now I must mention one other feature, this time, of Tuesday evening's happening. Dr Coke Smith, of the farfamed Vanderbilt, is to deliver a literary address, which I prophesy will be replete wich all that is of learning and interest. Without doubt he will have a large gathering to welcome him to our dear, dusty Birmingham!"

Terrific Jimes.

H H Sittmon, of Grants Pass, was in the city aday or two ago, and left a piece of slate at the A M & M Co's office, taken maner, and it thundered. The poles were on the postait telegraph lice, and eight of them struck by lightning were broken into splinters. The wire for half a mile was torn from the poles and some of it lost, and insulators were melted. It was an uncommon freak for this thunderless an uncommon freak for this thunderless an uncommon freak for this thunderless an Davis passed through Albany today from Roseburg on their way to their homes in Salem. They had been in attendance on the graduating exercises of the Roseburg public school. Mr Davis delivered the annual address, and Mr

HIS FOOT IN FT.

The people want good money and plenty of it. They want all their money of equal value so that a dollar will be the same, whether made of gold, silver or paper. The demand for the free coinage of silver without limit is a demand that the people of the United State shall pay for silver bullion more than its market price; a demand that ought so to be made by the producer of any commodity.

Even the most prominent loyalists dared not openly deneunce the crime, and many were forced to hall is found the picture of Gen Grant, and across a hall in the senate chamber hangs the picture of Abraham Lincoin. The picture of Jefferson Davis was placed in the hall of the house, but, the impression that the picture of George Washington had been removed from the hall, is all wrong. The people of this state have been abused, maligned and slandered about this matter. If so mebody desires to witness the devotion of the people of Arkanaas to the memory of Washington, let a quarter of a million of men attempt to come and sign what is known as the "McNiel Memorial." now in the departments at Wathington, and on the strength of which Lincoln promoted of a million of men attempt to come and take his picture from its place in the hall of the house of representatives. I shall cheerfully serve you when I can.
