A HUGE EFFORT.

The Baker City Blade, republican, says: Providence seems to be on the side of the American farmer this year. Abundant crops are the rule throughout America and the fact that the cereal crops are almost failures in Russia and India, which have been referred to as Europe's granaries, makes it certain that the American farmers will be able to get big prices for their products. The farmers are to be congratulated, for they have had a hard time for several years, but the turn has now come, and thanks to the McKinley tariff law and the big crops, they are to receive their share of the country's prosperity. Republican legislation did not make the big crops, but, by enhancing the price of farm product, it enabled the farmers to get the full benefit of those big crops.

What a huge effort is here made to induce people to believe that the price of wheat is to be attributed to the good effects of the McKinley Bill. "Thanks to the McKinley tariff law," indeed. Will the Blade or any other blind follower of the scheme of protectionism tell us how it is that the McKinley tariff law can affect the price of wheat? Such stuff as the above is given out by republican papers all over the country to allay the growing discontent springing up among the farmers of that party. That is all there is of it.

A MAN OF SENSE.

Thomas J Barrett, an Englishman, the proprietor of the famous Pears' soap says: "American advertising, said Mr Barrett, costs thirteen per cent. more than English advertising, and by your high tariff you keep millions of dollars worth of patronage out of your papers which you would otherwise get. Unless a foreign manufacturer is making an article of such superior excellence that it will in itself command patronage, it hardly pays him to cater for American trade. This is not because the American newspapers are not good mediums, but because your government endeavors to take the bulk of the manufacturer's profits. I can make a high quality of soap more cheaply than you can in America, because my expenses for material are lower, and I can get labor for lower wages, because my laborers, in their turn, can buy clothes, food, soap and house rent at lower prices than yours can. If your laborers make higher wages they do not, as a class, live in any greater comfort, and your protectionists seem to forget that while they are keeping out of the country a large amount of foreign manufactures, they are also keeping out a proportionate amount of foreign money, which would otherwise be spent in advertising and pushing those goods."

A recent dispatch from Sprague, Wash. says:

It has been rumored for several weeks that the Farmers' Alliance of this county proposed to present a candidate for governor of the state of Washington at the next general election, and that the pressure which is being brought to bear upon other alliances throughout the state a Lincoln county man would be selected for gubernatorial honors. The man mentioned for such candidate is the Hon J B Irvine, at one time a member of the legislature of Oregon. Mr Irvine is a well-to-do farmer and is a prominent figure in alliance affairs. He is above the average orators, and above all is an honest man. But, then, the republican and democratic parties will most probably have something to say as to who shall be governor of this new state.

Mr Irvine is a brother of the Hon R A Irvine of this city and is well known in this county, having resided here for many years.

A Georgia farmer has started a new industry in growing beavers for their skins. Since the prospective failure of the seal fisheries beaver skins are the next best substitute for seals. He owns 1000 acres up and down a creek which is a natural home for the beavers. In summer they scatter each one for himself, but in winter they come together in their homes beside the streams where they have dammed the water. He grows corn to feed them, and finds that they eat it as readily as hogs. Most of the time they forage for themselves, but feeding makes them tame and easily caught. The beaver breeds rapidly, two to six in a litter, and often two litters in a year. The skin of the beaver is now worth $10 each, and next season he expects to furnish between 200 and 300 skins from surplus males, leaving the young and breeding females to increase the flock. The flesh of the beaver, properly cooked, is an excellent food.

Secretary Foster is of opinion McKinley may be elected if he makes such a campaign as he did last year for congress by 30,000 to 75,000. Nothing like brag. Making such a canvass as last year would imply an $80,000 contribution from the fat-fried of Pennsylvania for each of the twenty-one congressional districts. This would amount to $2,400,000 for the state. It will hardly be raised, and besides Ohio has now the Australian secret ballot, a guard against corruption that did not prevail in 1890.

Mrs Campbell, the wife of the Ohio governor, is a tall and handsome brunette. She carries herself in a stately manner and is always exquisitely dressed. Over her dark eyes she wears eyeglasses, which rather add to her beauty than distract from it. People say that her tact will have as much to do as her husband's tactical skill in managing the Ohio campaign successfully.

Congressman Lodge will preside over the republican state convention in Boston Sept. 16th. The Bay state republicans have the full bravado of their Bourbonism. They are doing good service in making Massachusetts democratic.

It is a matter of small importance to the great masses of the people who hold the offices, but it is a matter of grave importance what the policy of the government shall be. This accounts for the great weakening of protectionism.

The Lafayette Courier says: There is quite a fight "brewing" between Judge R P Boise and Geo H Burnett, Esq, both of Salem, for the republican nomination for circuit judge of this district. Judge B is said to want the office another term. Burnett's friends claim that the old judge is too old. It will be an interesting "mi l."

The biggest card Major McKinley can play in Ohio is to get some bona fide workingman whose wages have been increased by his bill and exhibit him throughout the state. He would indeed be a curiosity, and prove a drawing attraction.

Day by day members of the farmers alliance are deserting the dangerous doctrine of the sub treasury scheme. This shows that there are many thoughtful earnest men in that movement.

Ex-Senator Farwell of Illinois says if Harrison should be nominated by the republicans the democrats will be sure to elect. He is for Blaine.

Blaine thinks that the republican party must "get nearer to the soil." It seems to be getting under the sod with all reasonable speed.

DEMOCRATS IN THE ALLIANCE.

Democrats in the farmers' alliance have an excellent opportunity to do educational work that is much needed, and if those who need the education are sometimes refractory there is the more reason for patience and perseverance. Democrats in the alliance may take it for granted that it will be beset by refuse politicians from the garbage heaps of both parties, and that it will have an assorted variety of wild or corrupt schemes thrust on it. But this need not make any difference. None of these schemes can stand under discussion, and it will not be long before the political tricksters will be exposed. Democrats who joined the alliance under a constitution guaranteeing them freedom of political action have only to stay in it and support the constitution. It would be worse than useless to draw out and form a new organization in any locality where the attempt is made through the alliance to dictate their political action. If they are democrats they are not likely to be tossed about by every wind of strange political doctrine. The great advantage of democratic principles is that it enables the plain people who are not political economists to see what is just and wise in government. Every democrat is thus fitted to do missionary work, and democrats in the farmers' alliance have a notable opportunity for it. The alliance in the West is very largely composed of men who have been republicans; who are now disgusted with that party, and, being so, are in a fair way to realize a great increase in political usefulness. But naturally they cannot escape immediately from all their republican prejudices. From these they can be weaned only by education and patience. If, as a result of such prejudice or ignorance, the attempt is made to use the alliance to compel democrats to support un-democratic measures or to vote for political adventurers, all there is to be said is that the man who has the first instinct of democracy in him is his own master in politics and will vote his own principles for the men who represent them.

The alliance has been taken bodily into politics and it will go wrong on some points of great importance, but on the whole it is doing a great deal of good by the agitation it is effecting, and whether or not democrats are members of it they have no reason to check this agitation as long as it is mainly directed against republican policies. What the alliance needs from democrats is assistance and direction, not obstruction or opposition.—St Louis Republic.

MORTGAGE STATISTICS.

The count of the home transcripts, made in accordance with the mortgage collection clause of the census act, has been completed by the census office. There are returned by the enumerators 2,491,930 farms and homes occupied by owners, which are encumbered by mortgages. This includes some, about which the enumerators made no report, and which belong partly to the class of hired and partly to the class owned free, as well as partly to the class owned and incumbered. Until this unknown quantity, due to the failure of the enumerators, is eliminated, it may be regarded as approximately true that two and a quarter millions of twelve and a half million families of the United States occupy and own encumbered farms and homes, and that ten and a quarter million families occupy farms and homes, either hired or owned free. The preliminary results indicate that the average debt per farm in Iowa is $1283, per home $719, and the average for farm and home $1140. If these averages hold good for the Union the encumbrances of farms and homes of the United States occupied by owners, is about $2,565,000,000.

A PERPETUAL DEBT.

The republican leaders have evidently adopted as their own the theory that "a national debt is a national blessing."

Secretary Foster, who is just now engaged in extending rather than in paying the maturing 4½ per cents, says in a recent interview: "I am considering the advisability of converting the 4's in time in the same way."

Indeed! And so the contiauance of the $50,000,000 of maturing bonds is to be followed by a perpetuation of the more than $500,000,000 of the bonds which fall due in 1907? Debt-paying is to stop that the demands of Billion Dollar Congresses may be met!

Nor is this all. The last congress heaped to the $150,000,000 point that new form of debt, indefinite in amount and in duration, required annually to pay pensions. It also voted sugar bounties and steamship subsidies, which will call for nearly $20,000,000 annually for years to come.

If a national debt is a national blessing, the party in power has ordained that this country shall be abundantly blessed.

The election in Kentucky yesterday, resulted in an overwhelming victory for the democrats. They elect their state ticket by majorities ranging from 28,000 to 50,000. They have an overwhelming majority in the legislature. The third party polled about 20,000 votes. In only five cases did the farmers put out a separate ticket for the legislature against the democrats. Nearly all the 20,000 votes cast by the third party were republicans.

The republican managers in Ohio have set too large a task for Secretary Foster in assigning him to defend in the McKinley canvass the "Billion Dollar Congress attack." Fine words butter no parsnips, and stump talk will not fill up the hole in the treasury nor abate the re-heaped war taxes.

Secretary Rusk says the condition of crops abroad will cause a large demand for our wheat, and the foreign shipments may be the largest on record. Statistics show an increase of acreage here compared with last year of ten per cent.

Of 10,757 farms in Utah, 9724 are made fertile by irrigation.

OBITUARY.

Died, at Oregon City, July 28th, 1891, Effie Dean Arnold, aged 10 years, 7 months and 19 days. She was the daughter of Mrs Charles Dodge, and resided in Albany two years prior to her departure for Oregon City, to which place she removed last May. Many a little child in Albany will remember her as an affectionate friend and schoolmate.

For two weeks she struggled with that dread disease diphtheria, but her anxious mother and friends at last thought they saw a ray of hope. She grew better and called for her playthings. But soon the poor, tired little hands let fall the toys, and twining her arms about her mother's neck she whispered: "Mamma, I am going to die; don't cry, dear mamma, I am not afraid."

"When the day king had surrendered his banner of gold, and twilight had deepened through woodland and wold," she sank to sleep to awaken in a world that knows no night, no pain, no death.

Money in Circulation.

WASHINGTON, Aug 4.—A statement has been prepared at the treasury department in regard to the amounts of money in circulation on the first of July, 1860, 1865, 1885, 1889 and 1891, from which it appears that the assertion that there has been since the war a great reduction in the amount of money in circulation is without foundation. All the statements furnished are made up on precisely the same basis—the amount of each kind of money in the treasury—and the remainder is given as the amount in circulation. The amount of money in circulation in 1860 was about $435,000,000, and the amount per capita was $13 85. In 1865 there was $723,000,000 in circulation, and the per capita amount was $20 82. Twenty years later the circulation was over $1,292,000,000, and the per capita was $23 02, while on the first of January last the amount was nearly $1,529,000,000 with $24 10 as the per capita allowance, the highest in the history of the United States.

Fourteen Men Killed.

WESTLAKE, La, Aug 4.—The breaking out of an old feud between a band of robbers known as the Ainsworth gang and the cattlemen of this section resulted in the killing of fourteen men and the wounding of sixteen others. Following is a partial list of those killed: Dyson, Marion, Markle, Lee Perkins, Owen Ashworth, of the Red Bone gang; and James Ward and Swan, of the cattlemen. The latest report is to the effect that everything is quiet. The coroner is making an investigation.

Joined the Farmers' Alliance.

KANSAS CITY, Aug 4.—The Star's Topeka (Kansas) special says: A letter from Harrison Kelly, ex-congressman from this district, in which he renounces the republican party and declares that in the future he will be found fighting with Peffer, Polk and Simpson, has created much talk in political circles. Kelly says he has turned to the new party, the people's party, as the best medium through which to accomplish the reform designed by the people.

Through the Matrimonial Papers

SALEM, Aug, 4.—A sequel to a romance in real life is about to be given from the circuit court. Mrs Mary Goodenough filed papers instituting suit against Evin Daly for damages to the amount of $2500 for breach of marriage contract. The plaintiff alleges that the defendant enticed her west to marry her and now that she is here, ready and willing, he refuses. Daly is an old Grand Army man and says he was to marry her if she suited him, which he aver, she did not do,

Fire at Baker City.

BAKER CITY, Aug 4.—Duncan brother's flouring mills in this city were consumed by fire at 12:30 this morning; loss $27,000; insurance, $17,000. It is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

The Bar All Right

NEWPORT, Or Aug 3.—The Oregon Development Company's steamer Willamette Valley Captain Patton master, came in over the bar this morning at 8:30 o'clock, when the tide was but two feet six inches above low water, drawing fourteen feet six inches of water. She had on board fifty-one passengers and a very large cargo of freight. The government survey boat General Wright has been here twice, and each time reported only seventeen feet of water at full tide, or nine feet at low water, and right in the teeth of this report an ocean steamer, sails in over the bar without any trouble whatever. The people here think there is some mighty big mistake behind these reports and several able men are investigating the matter. Siuslaw is making similar and louder complaints, and some definite action will soon be taken.

Escaped Jail.

ASHLAND, Aug 3.—Elso and Fay Coon, two of the self-confessed counterfeiters held here in waiting to be taken to Portland by a Deputy United States marshal, and also wanted at Oakland, Cal, on a similar charge, escaped from the Ashland city jail last evening by prying out one of the iron window bars. Thus far no trace of their whereabouts has been found. Two other members of the gang young Nutt and his father, have been in custody at Grant's Pass and were taken to Portland tonight.

An Innocent Man Hanged.

BEATRICE, Neb, Aug 3.—More than fifteen years ago Jack Marion and Cameron set out together in a wagon on a trip. They were last seen at Blue river, near here. A few days later the supposed body of Cameron was found in Blue river, and when it was discovered Marion had been seen with Cameron's team and goods in his possession he was suspected of murdering his companion. He was apprehended ten years afterward, tried several times, and finally executed in March, 1887. William Wymore, uncle of Marion, has alway believed the latter innocent, and finally proved it by finding Cameron alive in LaCrosse, Kan.

A Costly Fire.

CHICAGO, Aug 3.—The immense department store of Siegel, Cooper & Co, a seven story building covering a quarter of a block, at the corner of State and Adams streets, was entirely destroyed by fire this morning. The loss on stock and building will reach $800,000. The other losses amount to $255,000.

Killed by a Marshal

MODESTO, Cal, Aug 5.—This city was thrown into a state of intense excitement last night about 9:30 o'clock, occasioned by City Marshal R D Young shooting and killing Barney B Garner, who resisted arrest. Garner had been drinking in the afternoon. Frequent requests of the marshal for him to remain quiet were not heeded, and when Garner was told to consider himself under arrest he made a motion to draw a pistol; Marshal Young immediately drew his own and fired two shots, both bullets going through Garner's body, killing him instantly. Young immediately gave himself up and went to the county jail. Garner was a saloon keeper, and was quarrelsome when under the influence of liquor.

A Church Fight.

CLEVELAND, O, Aug 2.—There was a lively time at St Ladislau's Catholic church today. The congregation is made up of Hungarians and Slavs. They are about equally divided. There has been a great rivalry between the two nationalities. Finally the priest, Father Marztouve, decided to hold a service for the Slavs in the morning and the Hungarians in the afternoon. This morning the Hungarians wished to dedicate a banner, and the priest gave them half the service. When the Hungarians left the church they created a disturbance outside. The Slavs went out and drove the Huns from the churchyard, using clubs and paving stones. The battle was in progress when the police arrived and put a stop to the hostilities.

Counterfeiters Bound Over.

ASHLAND, August 1.—Young Nutt and the two Coon brothers, arrested yesterday for counterfeiting, were bound over today to appear in the United States court at Portland. They have made a confession of the business, and officers are now hunting for the outfit with which the coin was made, its location having been disclosed by one of the gang. Another arrest will probably be made yet, which will make a clean haul of the gang.

The Road to Wealth

Cannot be successfully traveled without good health. To reach wealth or any coveted position in life requires the full possession and operation of all the faculties kind nature has endowed us with. These conditions cannot exist unless the physical being is in perfect working order, and this is impossible when the liver and spleen are torpid, thus obstructing the secretions, causing indigestion and dyspepsia, with all of their accompanying horrors.

English Dandelion Tonic

exerts a specific influence over the liver, excites it to healthy action, resolves its chronic engorgements, and promotes the secretions; cures indigestion and constipation, sharpens the appetite, tones up the entire system, and makes life worth living.
