The Democrat.

It takes not less than 13,000 cords of wood to supply Albany one year.

A tax payer of Albany who does not seem to have the fear of the city council before his eyes asks laconically what use the Ferry street sewer is to be put to

Mr Andrew Carnegie says he is a firm believer in the doctrine that the young men of America should take their holidays away from their own country, so that the cobwebs can be entirely swept out of their eyes. Mr Carnegie ought to bear in mind that not all the young men of America are the beneficiaries of a high tariff. The great majority of them have to stay at home and work for a living.

The minister of the gospel fails to please all of his parishioners. There are those in his congregation that could improve the sermon. The school teacher fails to please his patrons. There are patrons who could easily improve upon the methods of instruction. The newspaper man fails to please all his readers. There are many readers who could make a better paper, and so it is in all professions or callings, generally those who know least about a business, know, in their own estimation, most about how it should be run. Notwithstanding all this, when a man wants to learn how to sharpen a plow he goes to a blacksmith

Gov Campbell, of Ohio, made a speech the other day in which he drew a picture of two farmers with 10,000 bushels of wheat each. One started out from Bombay, India, and the other from Ohio with Liverpool for their destination. Each received for his wheat $10,000. Each purchased with his money such goods as he wanted. The man from Bombay returns home with his $10,000 worth of goods happy and contented. The man from Ohio starts home with his $10,000 worth of goods but he is stopped at the custom house at New York and forced to give up $5,000 before he can have them admitted to the country. Thus, though they both received the same price for their wheat it takes 15,000 bushels of American wheat to equal 10,000 bushels of the India man's wheat at Liverpool. All this comes from the beneficent policy of protection.

CAMPBELLS' CAMPAIGN.

The New York World speaking of the campaign of Governor Campbell of Ohio says:

The governor reached Steubinville at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. A dense crowd, apparently of workingmen, surged about the station and cheered wildly when he appeared. An impromptu procession was formed and the governor taken direct to the opera house through streets lined on either side with a cheering crowd. The hall was far too small to hold the people. The governor's appearance on the platform was the signal for wild yells, which lasted for several minutes. The audience had none of the dignity and precision of the western reserve crowds. It knew what it wanted and wasn't afraid to yell for it

That the church is joining with the school-house in the crusade against the custom house was indicated when it was announced that the meeting would be opened by prayer by Rev Williams, rector of the Episcopal church. It is the first big political meeting in the state that has been so favored during the campaign.

When the governor arose to speak he held in his hand an enormous peach. "Just as I was leaving Pittsburg," he said, "a friend presented me with this peach. Did you ever see a larger one?" Silence settled over the crowd; and people looked at each other wonderingly. They evidently hadn't had any peaches in their politics so far during the campaign. The governor gave them plenty of time to wonder, and then went on: "It's only lately you've been seeing such peaches. Peaches didn't grow like that when you and I were boys. In the old times, when we had a low tariff, peaches grew only half as big as that."

The audience began to see the point, and preliminary giggles went up all around. "I dont believe I ever saw a peach as big as that until twenty years ago," he went on. "Formerly we had a low tariff and little peaches, now we have a high tariff and big peaches. Therefore a high tariff makes big peaches. (Laughter and cheers.) Last year under a 47 per cent tariff we had bad crops; this year, the first under a 60 per cent tariff, we have good crops. (Laughter) Men and brethren, do you want any better proof than that of the beneficent effect of protection? (Cheers.)

"Last year the tariff on wool was 10 per cent and wool brought 34 cents. This year the tariff on wool is eleven, and—but hold on, this thing dont fit here. [Laughter.] I guess I'll drop the subject, for if I went on and told you that wool this year was bringing only 27 cents, you'd say I didn't know how to make a logical speech on the tariff from a republican standpoint. [Laughter] Maybe I don't, but you won't hear any republican making a more logical one from this platform this year." [Applause.]

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

Bold Robbery.

LA GRANDE, Oct 9.—Word has just been received here of a daring robbery which was perpetrated upon the National bank of Enterprise, in Wallowa county. Wednesday afternoon Cashier Holmes was alone in the bank, when a man entered and said: "How much money has John Smith, of Portland, on deposit here?" Upon Mr Holmes saying that no such had any money there the visitor pulled out a pistol, and sticking it in his face said: "You are a d—d liar." By this time two confederates had come up on horseback, and while one, sitting on his horse, with a pistol in each hand, warned the people back, the other entered the bank and pushed all the money on the counter, $3500, into a sack. The three then escaped to the mountains in the direction of Cornucopia. A posse was organized and sent in pursuit, but, as the country is sparsely settled, their capture is doubtful. Four thousand dollars more was in the till under the counter and could have been had as well as not had the robbers taken the time.

Shot Off His Find.

BROWNSVILLE, Or Oct 9—This afternoon as William Bolin, of this place, was showing George Keeney his pistol and telling him how safe it was, the weapon was accidentally discharged, the bullet breaking the middle finger of his left hand. The finger was amputated about half way between the knuckle and the second joint. Dr Starr performed the operation and Mr Bolin is again on the streets.

The Catholics Predominate.

WASHINGTON, Oct 9.—Dr Dorchester superintendent of the Indian schools, in his annual report details the work of the year. In giving his estimate of the progress of Christianizing Indians in the Dakotas, he says from from the church authorities he learns that the Roman Catholic church Indian population is those states is 4740, while from 10,000 to 11,000 are of other denominations.

His Preference is Cleveland.

WASHINGTON, Oct 9.—Hon T J Clunie, who arrived here last night, says that California is prosperous, notwithstanding the Mc Kinley bill. He expresses his preference for Cleveland for president, and thinks he will surely be elected.

Named After Her Great Grandmother.

NEW YORK, Oct 9.—Ex-President Cleveland today said he and his wife had decided to call their daughter Ruth. That was the name of Mrs Cleveland's grandmother, and has always been especially liked by her.

A Big Debate!

ADA, O Oct 8.—For weeks the joint debate between Governor Campbell and Major McKinley has been referred to as an impending battle of giants, and the discussion today fully demonstarted they are indeed peerless as exponents of a high and low tariff respectively. The little town was smothered in buntings and decorations. People and marching clubs came from all over the state and much enthusiasm was displayed in the friendly rivalry. The McKinley American tin badges were offset by Campbellites quoting, "American wool, 34 cents, on account of the McKinley bill." About 30,000 people were in attendance. The candidates arrived at noon and were driven to the residence of Professor Lehr. J M Vandervere, chairman of the county democratic committee, introduced Governor Campbell, who began the debate. After he had finished Major McKinley was introduced by J C Howe chairman of the Hardin county republican committee. Governor Campbell's opening speech was listened to with great interest by both parties. He regretted, he said, that he had no time to properly present the indictment of that overgrown monster, which, masquerading in the garb of protection, subsists upon the wage worker and agriculturist. Continuing he said: "Yearly farming is growing more unprofitable. Our commerce is swept from the seas under protection, and the splendid palaces of the protected manufacturers are are crowning the hills, while the imported Huns, Italians and Bohemians are displacing American citizens.

A Gigantic Cigar Trust.

NEW YORK, Oct 8,—The leading cigar manufacturers of this city held a meeting yesterday for the formation of a gigantic cigar trust, to include all the prominent cigar manufacturers of the United States. It is proposed to organized on the same basis as the consolidation of leading cigarette men. The combination will include 25,000 manufacturerf, which aggregates a capital of $25,000,000 A committee was appointed, and arrangements are well under way. It is proposed for the combine to buy leaf tobacco direct from the plantrs and sove the middlemen's progts.

Parnell Dead.

LONDON, Oct 7.—Great Britain and Ireland was startled this morning by the utterly unlooked for announcement that Charles Stuart Parnell, the noted Irish leadee, died suddenly yesterday evening in Brighton. It was known that Parnell had not been enjoying the best of health for years, but nobody expected to hear of his death and no inkling as to his illness had reached the newspapers. He died at his home, Walsingham Terrace, Brighton, at 11:30 yesterday evening. Death is said to have been directly due to a chill caught last week, which at first was not regarded as serious.

Railroad Not too Blame.

SALEM, Ore Oct 7.—After a careful investigation, the state board of railroad commissioners exonerates the Southern Pacific and its employes from all blame in the accidental killing of J W Hamilton, at Central Point, September 25, the facts showing that Hamilton deliberately threw himself on the track before the train. The same conclusion was reached in the killing of an unknown man at Harrisburg August 19. Commencing the 19th inst, the board will make an official semi-annual tour of inspection of all railway lines in the state.

Old Lady Captures a Coyote.

JACKSONVILLE, Or Oct 7.—Yesterday morning Mrs C Hoffman, aged 79, a pioneer lady of this place, went out to her poultry yard and found a large coyote inside the chicken house. She promptly closed the door and called her son in law, David Linn, who shot the brute. It was afterward scalped, and the $2 50 bounty claimed in the name of the courageous old lady who captured the animal.

Shaken Out of Gear.

By malarial disease, the human machinery cannot perform its office. Digestion, secretion, evacuation are disordered, the blood becomes watery, the nerves feeble, the countenance ghastly, sleep disturbed and appetite capricious. Terrible is this disease, fell its consequences. There is, however, a known antidote to the miasmatic poison, and a certain safeguard against it. In malarious regions of our South and West, in South America, Guatemala and on the Isthmus of Panama, as well as in transmarine countries where the scourge exists, this inimitable preventive and remedy, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, has, during the last thirty-five years, been constantly widening the area of its usefulness, and demonstrating its sovereign value. Liver complaint, dyspepsia, constipation, kidney trouble, rheumatism and debility are all remedied by it.

HORRIBLE FRATRICIDE.

Frank S Ingram Kills His Brother, Henry Ingram.

Not in the history of Albany, has the whole community been aroused to such a high degree of excitement as it was last night and this morning when it learned of the most frightful tragedy and fratricide ever committed in the Willamette valley.

About six miles south of this city, on their respective farms, have been living Frank S and Henry Ingram, brothers, aged about 35 and 38 respectively.

Last night Chas. Louden, a man in the employ of Frank Ingram, came riding hurriedly into town and informed the sheriff that at about 8 o'clock Frank had shot and killed a man at his residence. The sheriff notified Coroner Farrell who at once summoned the following jury: C W Watts, Geo Humphrey, Alex Rennie, E A Milner, Robert Strong and John Mullan. The party at once repaired to the scene of the awful tragedy when the following facts, substantially, were testified to by Frank Ingram, the fratricide, John W Oakley, his nephew, aged about 16 years, and Chas Louden, the hired man.

Frank, Louden and Oakley had eaten supper, after which Frank directed the hired man, Louden, to go to the barn with his gun and watch to prevent any one from setting fire to it. He told the boy, Oakley, to wash the dishes, while he, he said, would watch out in the yard. Frank says he went into the yard near an outhouse and leaned up against an apple tree to watch, and after nearly an hour he was aroused up from a slumber into which he dropped, by the report of a gun about one hundred yards away.

Very shortly he saw a man approaching him about 8 feet away with a gun. He called to him to halt and throw up his hands, when the man at once shot at him. He then fired two shots simultaneously from two 44 caliber revolvers holding one in each hand. The man fell, and at this juncture Frank heard another man (whom he knew not) running away, when he fired one shot at him. At this point in the awful tragedy he heard the murdered man make a noise and saw a motion as if he were about to attempt to raise his gun to shoot, when Frank walked up to him and shot him again in the face, the powder burning the nose and cheek.

When the shooting ceased the hired man, Louden, and the boy Oakley came upon the scene. The hired man asked Frank if he had got one of them when the latter replied that he had.

The hired man swore before the jury that he asked Frank who it was when he replied he did not know but he thought it was Henry, his brother.

The corner found the dead man lying on his back. Dr W H Davis who accompanied the jury examined the dead body and found two bullet holes very close together and near the right nipple, both of which passed through the heart and lodged under the skin on the back. They were taken out by cutting the skin.

The shot in the face entered near the nose and came out at the base of the skull behind. C W Watts, a member of the coroner's jury informs a DEMOCRAT reporter that there was almost perfect harmony in the evidence of the three witnesses, Frank, Louden and Oakley. The verdict of the jury was substantially to the effect that Henry Ingram came to his death from three pistol shots from the hands of Frank Ingram, and charging the latter with deliberate murder. The sheriff arrested Frank and he was lodged in jail.

There has been a feud existing between the two brothers for some time over a division of the estate left them by their parents. Frank claims that when he was a boy he was driven from home and for five or six years remained away. His parents dying, he returned to take possession of 160 acres left him by his mother. He claims that ever since he returned his brothers and sisters have been trying to drive him away. For some time some one, supposed to be Henry, has been prowling around Frank's house and some shots were fired. It is claimed that Henry had made threats against the life of Frank.

Like all troubles of this kind it is difficult to form a just conclusion until all the facts can be obtained. There are those who say that Frank has been quarrelsome with the whole family and that Henry has been a quiet, inoffensive citizen, and that he was constantly under restraint through fear of Frank. Public sentiment seems to be mostly against Frank, not so much from what the public knows about last night's fearful tragedy, but from what it knows of the course of life of the two men.

So far as we know there are four sisters and three brothers in the family. The sisters are Mrs Rader, of Toledo, Mrs Scammon of Chehalis, Wash., Annie Ingram of the same place and a married sister living in the hills this side of Brownsville. One brother, John, lives also in Washington. They have all been notified by telegraph.

The deceased was a member in good standing in the A O U W and will probably be buried by that order.

STATE SCHOOL STATISTICS.

Figures from the Annual Reports of the State's County School Superintendents.

The school statistics presented in the annual reports of the several county school superintendents for the year 1891 have been collated and tabulated in the office of the state superintendent of public instruction. These statistics are compiled from the reports which were made by the superintendents on March 1st, as provided by law. Below are presented some of the most interesting points of these reports:

MISFITS

Ed Purcell was yesterday sentenced to four and Green Hayes to two years for horse stealing. They were jailed at McMinnville last Saturday and were taken to the penitentiary today.

Mr James Brown, of Lebanon, met with quite an accident the first of the week while lifting a boiler of hot water accidentally spilling it on himself scalding him pretty bad but not seriously.

Bob Burdette says God wasted mud when he made the man who takes a newspaper from the post office for two or three months and then has the post master mark it "refused" in order to avoid paying for it.—Ex.

Twenty million rubles have been expended by the government buying seed corn for the peasants of the famine-stricken district, and 100,000,000 rubles will be required to furnish the starving peasantry with bread.

The banks of Umatilla county have $1,000,000 on deposit, while the county this year produced $250 for every man woman and child within her borders. This is a record that any county might be proud of.

An exchange says they tell a joke on the Indian attendants who represented the Klamath reservation at the recent Methodist conference at Salem. A big circus was at the capitol city at the same time, and the Indian delegates left the conference to attend the circus, which they pronounced "immense." The spread of religion is very healthful at the Klamath reservation, though the Indians insist on having some variations. For instance, they never name the children themselves, but await the clergyman whom they insist shall select the name. A great many of the boys over there are called Isaac, and it was often asked why, until it was found that the Rev Isaac Driver had been over there christening the children and had named them after himself.

An Albany man, who was in Stayton a few days ago tells of Mr Geo Sacrey, 61 years of age, residing there, who chopped and corded three cords of wood in five hours He was never sick in his life.

The interesting fact is learned that Mr C W Johnson, of Roseburg, who has sued the S P R R Co for $15,000 on account of injuries in the Lake Labish accident, was traveling on a pass.

The proposed base ball league for the coast will consist of the clubs of San Jose, San Francisco, Oakland, Sacramento, Salem, Portland, Tacoma and Seattle, instead of as stated heretofore.

FRIDAY.

Linn county has but one suit in the supreme court.

The five stamp mill on the Little Annie mine in the Bohemia district after a five day's run cleaned up $2,140.

Rev H V Rominger, formerly of this city, married two couple at the Portland exposition last Wednesday evening in the presence of about 12,000 persons.

THE LECTURE.—The lecture last night by Luther Benson was entertaining and instructive in the highest degree. Humor, wit, pathos, argument, sentiment and logic were so combined as to hold as by a spell the attention of the audience all the time. It will pay every person in the city to hear him. He will lecture at the M E church tonight. Admission 10 cents. Doors open at 7. Lecture begins at 8 o'clock.

"German Syrup"

Here is something from Mr. Frank A. Hale, proprietor of the De Witt House, Lewiston, and the Tontine Hotel, Brunswick, Me. Hotel men meet the world as it comes and goes, and are not slow in sizing people and things up for what they are worth. He says that he has lost a father and several brothers and sisters from Pulmonary Consumption, and is himself frequently troubled with colds, and he often coughs enough to make him sick at his stomach. Whenever he has taken a cold of this kind he uses Boschee's German Syrup, and it cures him every time. Here is a man who knows the full danger of lung troubles, and would therefore be most particular as to the medicine he used. What is his opinion? Listen! "I use nothing but Boschee's German Syrup, and have advised, I presume, more than a hundred different persons to take it. They agree with me that it is the best cough syrup in the market." ⑥

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Linn County.

ALFRED DITTBENNER, Plaintiff
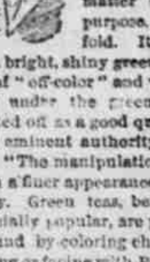
Berherdine Dittbenner, Defendant.

To Berherdine Dittbenner, the above named defendant.

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit, by October 26th, 1891, that being the first day of the term of this court following the expiration of the time prescribed in the order for publication, and if you fail so to answer for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in his complaint, viz: That the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant be forever dissolved and for the costs and disbursements of this suit to be taxed.

This summons is published by order of Hon. R. P. Boise judge of said court, and made and dated the 9th day of September, 1891.
J. K. WEATHERFORD,
(9 11.d'v) Attorney for Pltf.

A Revelation.



Few people know that the bright bluish-green color of the ordinary teas exposed in the windows is not the natural color. Unpleasant as the fact may be, it is nevertheless artificial; mineral coloring matter being used for this purpose. The effect is two-fold. It not only makes the tea a bright, shiny green, but also permits the use of "off-color" and worthless teas, which, once under the green cloak, are readily worked off as a good quality of tea.

An eminent authority writes on this subject: "The manipulation of poor teas, to give them a finer appearance, is carried on extensively. Green teas, being in this country especially popular, are produced to meet the demand by coloring cheaper black kinds by glazing or facing with Prussian blue, tumeric, gypsum, and indigo. This method is so general that very little genuine uncolored green tea is offered for sale."

It was the knowledge of this condition of affairs that prompted the placing of Beech's Tea before the public. It is absolutely pure and without color. Did you ever see any genuine uncolored Japan tea? Ask your grocer to open a package of Beech's, and you will see it, and probably for the very first time. It will be found in color to be just between the artificial green tea that you have been accustomed to and the black teas.

It draws a delightful canary color, and is so fragrant that it will be a revelation to tea-drinkers. Its purity makes it also more economical than the artificial teas, for less of it is required per cup. Sold only in pound packages bearing this trade-mark:

BEECH'S TEA
"Pure As Childhood."

If your grocer does not have it, he will get it for you. Price 60c per pound. For sale at

MRS. GRAHAM'S
Cucumber and Elder Flower Cream

Is not a cosmetic in the sense in which that term is popularly used, but permanently beautifies. It creates a soft, smooth, clear, velvety skin, and by daily use gradually makes the complexion several shades whiter. It is a constant protection from the effects of sun and wind and prevents sun burn and freckles, and black heads will never come while you use it. It cleanses the face far better than soap and water, nourishes and builds up the skin tissues and prevents the formation of wrinkles. It gives the freshness, clearness and smoothness of skin that you had when a little girl. Every lady, young or old, ought to use it, as it gives a more youthful appearance to any lady, and that permanently. It contains no acid, powder or alkali, and is as harmless as dew and as nourishing to the skin as dew is to the flower. Price $1 00, at all druggists and hairdressers, or at Mrs Gervaise Graham's establishment, 103 Post street San Francisco, where she treats ladies for all blemishes of the face or figure. Ladies at a distance treated by letter. Send stamp for her little book "How to be Beautiful."

Sample Bottle mailed free to any lady on receipt of 10 cents in stamps to pay postage and packing. Lady agents wanted.
