SERIOUS BUT HUMOROUS.—The Eugene Guard gets off the following funny, but true incidents: Saturday evening, shortly before dark, Levi Levers left Eugene for his home on the river road-ing the road at the Blair place he took three miles below Engene. After reach-ing the road at the Blair place he took the yalking was better. Levere had gone but a short distance after leaving the railroad when a man with a mask over his face, and coat collar turned up.

over his face, and coat coliar turned up, stepped outfrom the brush and present-ing a shot gun told him to throw up his hands, as he wanted his money. Levere had $25 on his person, but did not lose his presence of mind, and replied that he could not get any money from a "poor old tramp." He was then re quested to yield his chewing tobacco, which he quickly did, then was told to go on. The same evening a Free Metho-dist minister was made to throw up his hands, as the wanted his money.
