OREGON GIANT

Will Chop all Kinds of Grain. Sure Death to Wilds sons why you should buy the Giant:—

1st. Because it is the best mill in existence.
2nd. Because it is made at home.
3rd. Because it will grind more grain than any other mill.
4th. Because it does not waste work through any other mill.
5th. Because it is so simple to run that a boy of 15 can run it.
6th. Because it does not heat the grain in grinding as other mills do.
7th. Because you can make as many as you wish with the Oregon Giant.
8th. Because you want of space will give you the day, the evening, with any mill.
9th. Because it will run on coal or wood.

LOCAL RECORD.

LEBANON.—M Marks has rented a farm adjoining his nursery of Mr. Isom and will take possession soon. According to the survey which has just been made, the broad exterior will miss Sordville 1 1/2 miles. W. Turnidge has bought W. H. Rittenberg's candy and cigar store and will buy the business for the second time. Diesel, in Lebanon, Sept. 14th, after a lingering illness, Mrs. A. E. Williams, deceased was an old resident of Lebanon county.

It is stated on good authority that several families in Albany are coming to Lebanon to buy from the Columbia Lumber Co. the very best grade of lumber at $1 a sack in Lebanon. Miss Abbie Fry went to Albany Monday to enter the Albany Collegiate Institute. Miss Bessie Kirkpatrick and Bert Wright will also enter that school next week.

G. Lovelace and wife intend moving to Albany soon. Mr. Lovelace and his lady came to Lebanon about two years ago, and during their stay in that city they have made a host of friends who are sorry to see them leave.

Joseph Crabtree, for whom a warrant of arrest has been for about three months, was last Saturday arraigned before Justice Flason on the charge of larceny of two horses. Mr. Crabtree employed A. F. Stone to defend him and the district attorney, J. R. Wyatt, of Albany, believing the charge could not be maintained, promptly instructed the justice of the peace to discharge him.—Advance.

PROBATE MATTERS.—In estate of J. R. Thompson inventory filed. In estate of Alonzo Bardwell inventory filed; real property, $8000; real estate $2720. Appraisers, M. K. Williams, Spurling and Thos. Brandon. Administrator, Mrs. M. P. Harwell. Petition to sell personal property granted. Report of sale in estate of F. F. Croft, continued.

In estate of Mary T. and Gertrude Zeiner, B. H. Gross was appointed guardian. Bond $1300. Approved, Appraisers, O. F. Oshorn, James Wilson and F. M. Jack. In estate of G. H. Keeney, citation ordered issued to heirs for sale of real property (mostly Waukegan), for Oct. 8, 1 p. m.

MISS TOWNSEND MARRIED.—An Albany man, recently in San Francisco, met Miss W. M. Townsend, who ran the Racket store in Albany last year, with whom the Democrat had a small racket on account of articles dropped to our country in Nebraska paper. But she is not Miss Townsend now; Mrs. Young, being the wife of one of the firms of Connelly & Young, proprietors of the famous Racket House. The case is a romantic one. Mrs. Townsend in Albany when passing through the city, resulting after she left this city in marriage. Connelly & Young leased the Racket House less than a year ago, and hence Mrs. Young steps from a small racket store in Oregon city into the best place in the city.

TOOK PREMIUMS.—Among the premiums awarded at the State fair, George Bestman, of Albany, received second premium on brood mare and colt. J. Zimmerman, of Miller, took the sweepstakes premium on draft horse of any age or breed, and let premium on stallion, four years old and over; Moses Parker, of Albany, took 1st premium on mare 4 years old and over; R. B. Pearl, of Hazelton, took 2nd premium on stallion 4 years old and over; Nichols & Husted Bros took 1st premium on stallion 4 years old and over; and on draft horse of any age or breed.

NOT ALL TOLD.—The whole story of the affair in Newport wherein W. W. Condon and the mayor of that city were burned in Albany has not been published. In addition to the burning the hoodlums posted small and cross-bone designs all over town, and made various threats of what they would do. The mayor cut the pole upon which the eagles were hung, down Sunday morning and they were arrested for working on Sunday. A number of Mr. Condon's friends tried to persuade him to leave the place, as they were afraid the hoodlums would carry out their threat to tear and feather him. But he stood his ground and has accomplished what he desired, — Eugene Register.

AN HONEST BOY.—On Tuesday Miss Laura Holmes, of near Co's valley, reported to the gate-keepers of the fair the finding of her pocketbook containing $14. These generous-hearted men, after a fruitless search for a subscriber, and got over the line dollars, which the little 7-year-old son of C. A. Post, of Polk county, and so reported. Out of the amount raised two dollars and fifty cents were given the honest boy, and the balance to the young lady, who is an orphan and cares for her mother's needs.—Statesman.

MIXING CLASSES.—Claims have been taken up in the Santiam district since our last report, as follows: The Yellow Stone, by Z. T. Bryant, J. B. Kelley and T. E. Tolson; The Thomas, by Edson, by Herbert H. Ames and J. D. Standish; Mikkie Harris, by A. Halvorsen; Extension of C. Miller, by F. P. Clark, E. Holmes and C. Miller; Gold Dollar, by Frank B. Hastings.

DECIDEDLY ROMANTIC.—The Ashland Record tells the following: Dr. J. M. Taylor, well known in Ashland, arrived in this city Saturday from Chicago with a bride. The lady is Miss Maria Morgan, of the Ladies Aid, and she is a sister of her school vacation traveling in California with her mother, where the doctor met her and they fell in love. Mrs. Morgan and daughter were passing through the Portland hotel. Mrs. Morgan was opposed to her daughter marrying until she had had her education, and being only 19 years old. On the 21st of August, Miss Morgan left the Portland hotel, and came to Albany, where she was met by Dr. Taylor, and they were married.

MR. CLAIR YOUNG returned from Newport, where he filled the position of clerk of the Ocean House in a popular manner for three months. Licenses were issued for the marriage of Ambrose Seefeld and Leonora Campbell, Chas. P. Uren and Mary Francis, and also of A. Kendall and Anna E. McBride.

C. W. AYER passed through Albany today for Portland, where he is making a tour of inspection of the fair. He is expected to return to Albany on Monday. Mr. Ayer is a member of the Oregon Agricultural Society and reports a fine exhibition from Southern Oregon.

ANOTHER CASE is reported from Knox Butte, where a man named Miller, who was a large number, Mr. Miller would have had them arrested but it was difficult to identify the thieves.

MR. GEORGE KNOX leaves tomorrow for the Bonington Springs in Crook county, where he has a large tract of land. He has been in the country and found that a hope must be provided for the future of the country. Mr. Knox is a member of the Oregon Agricultural Society and reports a fine exhibition from Southern Oregon.

MR. ED COX, brother of W. A. Cox, who has been residing in the east several years, though at one time a resident of Albany, is now in the city. Mr. Cox was in the city for a month or two, and is now on his way to the east.

A PARTY consisting of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Foster and Mr. Upton, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Casey, of Salem, Miss Lora Vance, of Albany, Miss J. M. Williams, Able and Lizzie Parrott, Lora and Belle Willis, and E. L. Jack and Charley Parker, of Corvallis, spent Sunday at the North Union.—Roseburg Plaindealer.

MR. THOMAS JONES and family returned this noon from their trip to California, going on by way of Laytonville. They report splendid treatment on board the Willamette Valley. Besides seeing the sights in San Francisco, they visited San Jose and Santa Clara. At San Jose they were the guests of F. E. Tabler, who had called on them at the fair. Mr. Jones is a member of the Oregon Agricultural Society and reports a fine exhibition from Southern Oregon.

MR. J. C. STANARD, of Brownsville, is in the city. Miss Jane Morris went to Salem this noon to resume her duties in the public schools of that city.
