plays an important part. Six years ago Rev W G M Hays accepted an appoint-ment made by the Home Mission Board of the UP Church, of Waltsburg, Wash. When he reached his field he found only about twelve members in the newly organized church. He was soon convinced of the need of an educational institution in that locality, and determined to open a high grade academy. A building was erected by the citizens at an outley of $6,000, with the understanding that an erdowment of at least $5,000 would be raised outside. After vigorous efforts by Revs Mr Hays and W R Stevenson, and least ten years that created the interest which the Eden Fontana Combination in the endowment Las been raised.

A BAD MAN ARRESTED.—At the May term of circuit court, 1831, Stephen Hill and Ed Kellow were indicted by the grand jury for stealing a fine yearing bull. They were placed under boads and Mr Hill stood trial and was acquitted by a jury, but Kellow jumped his ball which was paid by his bondsman. Kellow kept himself well hid from the officers until a few months ago, when Sheriff Wells apprehended him over in Tillamook county, a warrant was sent to that county for his arrest, and several unsuccessful attempts were made by the sheriff of Tillamook to were trade by the sheriff of Tillamook to 2:30-Opening session and busine capture him, and also other parties failed 30 minutes. taking him by coming on him by surprise at his cabin, and brought him to Dallas where he is safely lecked in jail to await Prof W J Crawford. the verdict of a jury of guilty or innocent.
