

LOCAL RECORD

AN OLD MURDER RE-EXAMINED.—The Ashland Record tells the following: On May 27, 1868, James Harbo shot and killed his father-in-law, James Harbo, in the old man's cabin in the Big Butte section now known as the Harbo prairie. Harbo had been married to a woman's daughter a few months, but had not along peacefully and she had returned to her father. The killing is supposed to have been in reference to a dispute over the ownership of land. Harbo was indicted by the grand jury at the time and was finally released on bail. Harbo retained the ownership of land. Harbo was indicted by the grand jury at the time and was finally released on bail. Harbo retained the ownership of land. Harbo was indicted by the grand jury at the time and was finally released on bail. Harbo retained the ownership of land.

CINDERELLA.—Albany opera house will have a splendid production of "Cinderella" on Friday night. It will be staged on a scale of magnificence and gorgeousness in all its details. It will be presented by an excellent company. The children's story, mother's and father's remembrances, a superior array of specialty artists, new and original music, contrasting electric and scenic effects, artistic properties and costumes, beautiful fairy land scenes, dazzling pieces of palace, and in the midst of the story, the ponderous pumpkin will all be transformed into an elaborately jeweled coach and the Cinderella will be transformed into a superb specialty company including Robert Leland and C. S. Stark, the famous actors; H. Zada, the great Oriental comedian; Miss Ada Sowers, who advised him to leave the country, and several other child artists, and the Coles in their startling mid-air flight.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

A Beard, of Fossil, E. O. is in the city. Leland Webster, the lawyer of Southern Oregon, is in the city. W. R. Garrett, of Portland spent Sunday in Albany. Mr. and Mrs. E. Goin, of Seio, were in the city today. Mr. Mulcahy, the live O P superintendent, went to Portland today. Deputy Sheriff Croner, of Eugene, went to Salem today with a long haired crazy man. Judge McFadden, of Corvallis, is in the city to defend Baker and Phelps for horse stealing. Mrs. O. P. Coahew and children, of McMinnville, have been in the city visiting Albany friends. Mr. Walter East, of Jefferson, who has been in the city to attend his mother's funeral, returned home today.

CIRCUIT COURT

Circuit court convened to special session at 1 o'clock this afternoon, with Judge Burnett behind the bar. After disposing of several unimportant matters the case of the State vs. McGowan, charged with the murder of A. W. Grubbe, at Lebanon, was called at 2 o'clock. About one hundred people were in attendance at Lebanon, besides a large number from other places. Weatherford Wolney and Garland appeared for the defendant, and McClain and Wyatt for the state. Application for continuance was made by defendant on the ground of absence of McGowan, but the court, which was taken under advisement by the court, took the case of Phelps and Baker will be taken up tomorrow morning. The following cases were disposed of: Bridge & Beach Man's Co. vs. Smith & Senders. Motion withdrawn. Judgment for want of answer. J. C. Boyer vs. Smith & Senders. Same as above. J. B. Sietson vs. Smith & Senders. Same as above. Assignment of G. W. Smith, Continued. Bridge, Beach & Co. vs. G. W. Smith and J. C. Sietson. Dismissed with costs. Henry Ammerman vs. Far & McInnis. Dismissed with costs. E. L. Curtice vs. A. Curtice. Referred to H. C. Watson. Continued. H. Bryant vs. Wm. McGilchrist. Default and decree.

HOME AND ABROAD

MONDAY A $200,000 fire occurred at Colfax, Wash., Saturday. A company is being formed to build a custom flooring mill at Swoi Home. Yesterday a couple of employes in a hotel found a couple of rats over the top of a table, and one of them wears a very dark optic. Portland will send a team of eight athletes to the W. D. A. Pair tournament, and the national tournament to be held in Milwaukee in July. Mrs. A. G. Govett of Portland has been appointed administrator of the estate of her husband, Charles H. Govett, who killed himself on March 25. The estate is valued at $200,000. The Portland E. O. makes two pointed remarks in one issue. "Young reminds us forcibly of the dog in the stable. It has more ground than sense." "Young man, do you know what you are made of? The right kind of stuff, but you will get your head on a man who takes office most in fit for office least."

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Look Baking Powder ABSOLUTELY PURE

Present—Mayor, recorder, auditor, council members, Whitely, Stewart, Pfeiffer, Burkhardt and Wheeler. The following bills were ordered paid: N. J. Henton, $44.51; R. E. Brown, $17.14; P. J. Smiley, $6.25; B. F. Purdon, $6.00; S. J. Lumber Co., $16.00; McFerron & Propriet, $1.00; Stewart & Sox, $21.80; P. J. Hadley, $20.20; T. H. Hodges, $15.00; coal bill, $5.80. Bill of W. B. Barr, $1.00 continued. Petition for sidewalk on 7th street north side Elm west to city limits, granted. Grade on Baker street from 7th to bridge over canal was ordered changed, the new grade being raised 12 inches, running grade on south end of bridge to Ninth street. The Street Superintendent recommended that 7th street from Elm 1 1/2 blocks west be graded and gravelled from Elm 1 1/2 blocks east, ditches and water carried off. The work on 11th west to bridge be graded and gravelled. The marshal reported notice served on Montgomery, of house of ill repute on Second, east of Montgomery, to abate nuisance. The city officers were directed to take legal proceeding to abate the nuisance. Application of L. E. Bruckin and others asked for new sidewalk. Referred. License to sell liquor was granted A. A. Baker. The owner of the Brink block was ordered to make connection with sewer on side of five days. The committee on fire and water was also directed to examine the said block and ascertain as to its safety.

$8.00 WILL BUY A WOMAN WILL'S MUSIC STORE

IT WILL KILL YOUR WIFE

SEEDS GRASS, GARDEN, FLOWERS. Fresh, pure, sure to grow and sold at Portland prices.

PAINTS & OILS.—The best kind of paint for sale on the coast is the "Phoenix" and we are agents for it.

WILL YOU BUILD THIS YEAR. If you expect to do well in 1900, you must have a large stock of building hardware.

THOU SHALT NOT KILL game crop according to law, and you ought to be a game warden and an expert of Stewarts & Sox.

WE'RE NOT BRACING who we say have the best line of shirts, neckties, razors and pocket cutlery in the valley.

PLOWS.—We have a new chilled plow exactly the same as the "Olive". We guarantee it and sell on trial.

W. L. DOUGLAS $3 SHOE NOT WIP. W. L. Douglas shoes are made in the U. S. A. and are the best made.

W. L. DOUGLAS $3 SHOE NOT WIP. W. L. Douglas shoes are made in the U. S. A. and are the best made.

Star Bakery. Flour and Feed Store. Have removed their store to the Strahan building.

California Fig Syrup Co. J. F. Ford, Evangelist. Of Des Moines, Iowa, writes under date of March 23, 1900.

Wall Paper. Drugs, Paints, Oils, Glass, Etc. J. A. Cumming, Albany, Oregon.

Bicycles. Call on Van Wilson, agent for the Imperial and Parkman, $50 to $150. Ladies taught to ride on a cycle.

Dress Goods, Capes and Jackets, Ribbons and Fans, Lingerie, Hosiery, Underwear, Fancy goods, Shawls, Linings, Infant wear, Motions, Blankets and Bedding.

Read, Peacock & Co. Successors to W. F. Read. ALBANY, OREGON

Umbrellas and Parasols, Trunks and Valises, Hats and Caps, Buttrick's Patterns.

DEATH OF A PIONEER LADY.—Mrs Catherine Wigle, died about noon today at the residence of her daughter, Mrs W. H. Taylor, in this city, aged 79 years. She crossed the plains with her husband in 1852 and settled in Linn county, where the remains will be taken tomorrow morning for burial. For many years she lived in the Willamette valley, but returned to her native Oregon to take care of a daughter who was dying her last days. Her death was caused by a long illness, although she had been for some time a patient in the hospital.

DEATH OF A PIONEER LADY.—Mrs Catherine Wigle, died about noon today at the residence of her daughter, Mrs W. H. Taylor, in this city, aged 79 years. She crossed the plains with her husband in 1852 and settled in Linn county, where the remains will be taken tomorrow morning for burial. For many years she lived in the Willamette valley, but returned to her native Oregon to take care of a daughter who was dying her last days. Her death was caused by a long illness, although she had been for some time a patient in the hospital.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.

THE MORGAN WASSON TRIAL. began this afternoon by the drawing of a jury, and will probably last a couple days. About thirty witnesses will testify. The following is the jury empaneled in the Wagon case, called for the May term of Circuit Court in Crook county, against E. Parker, brother of Parker Bros, of Albany, and J. C. Wagon, formerly of Halsey, and S. E. Gray, owner of the photograph business in Albany.