Such meetings cannot fail n bringing the people of God nearer to each other, and so there is power in united prayer, may we not hope for a great spiritual blessing as the outgrowth of this day of prayer, Rev Mr Little prached to a large and ence last ev ning from the two fold sub "The wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ." The waves of sin, both physical and spiritual were faithfully making a very dark picture. But the pictures were illuminated when the speaker showed that these wages need not be accepted, but instead of death, the gift of God, which is eternal life through Jesus Christ, is freely offered to all. Ser vice again tonight. All are cordially in
