THURSDAY

A CONTEMPTIBLE SCRUB

Gets Four Years in the Penitentiary.

Sheriff Johnson, of Lane county, passed through Albany this noon for Salem with Frank Marshall, who was sentenced this morning at 8 o'clock to the penitentiary for four years for attempt at rape. Marshall will be remembered as the thing who insulted Mrs. Alphine on the steel bridge several months ago. He was also imprisoned in Corvallis for indecency committed near the Cloverdale school house. About three weeks ago he went to Lane county where he tried to commit rape on both a little girl and a woman, and it was for this he was arrested and promptly sent to the penitentiary. As he went by the name of John Brown his identity was not known until this noon, when Chief of Police Lee recognized him as Sheriff Johnson took him to Salem. Marshall is one of the lowest curs that ever walked a street and deserves a life sentence, as society will never be safe with such a fiste at large.

Mr. A. B. Paxton went to Portland today on business.

H. H. White came down from the mines yesterday.

Mr. Charles Pfeiffer returned last evening from a trip to Portland.

Miss Lora, the nine year old daughter, of Mr. Frank Purdom, is ill with the typhoid fever.

Capt. E. J. Lanning and W. W. Rowell are up the Santiam fishing. The catch will be a big one.

Dr. J. A. Giesendorfer, a prominent physician of Arlington, is at the Imperial. Dr. Giesendorfer, in addition to his private practict, is one of the physicians of the O. R. & N. Co.—Oregonian.

Prof. W. Gifford Nash, the talented young pianist expects to leave in a few weeks for Berlin, Germany, to spend a couple of months in prosecuting his musical studies.—Corvallis Times.

Messrs Dunc Monteith, Phil Baltimore and Sky Meeks, left yesterday for La Grande to attend the State tournament of rod and gun clubs. They are among Oregon's best wing shots, and the DEMOCRAT looks for good reports from Eastern Oregon.

About 35 of their friends tendered a surprise to Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Nolan, Monday night, in honor of the fifth anniversary of their wedding. They carried with them a fine lunch of lemonade, ice cream and cake, and a delightful evening was spent.—Corvallis Times.

Mrs. E. Redeker gave an afternoon tea yesterday. About forty of her lady friends attended in an informal manner. The service was a very pretty one, and was greatly enjoyed. Delicate sandwich rolls, coffee, ice cream, cake, etc., were partaken of. Mrs. Redeker was assisted by Mrs. Capt. Overman, Miss Mildred Burmester and Miss Flora Mason, as waiters, and Mrs. Little, Mrs. Young and Mrs. Sox.

THE GLORIOUS 4TH.—The committees met at the council chambers last evening and discussed the coming 4th of July celebration. The finance committee have collected sufficient money to insure the success of the event. The talk revealed the sense to be in favor of making it a live day, with races as the main attractions. There will be two hose races, a wet test and hub and hub, 3 bicycle races of one-half, one and five miles, three foot races of 100 and 200 yards and one mile and the usual other small contests. Of course there will be a big oration by the best orator to be secured. A committee on music was appointed, to consist of Rev. Poling, chairman, Arch Hammer and S. N. Steel. Another meeting will be held on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. The public may rest assured that they will see something at Albany on the 4th of July.

DROPPED OUT.—Two important wool buyers dropped out of the Corvallis market Tuesday, Senders of Albany and the representative of the Oregon Cit, woolen mills. Whether or not others will follow and the price drop from 12 cents remains to be seen. The price has been kept up, it is understood, by the competition of buyers for valley wool factories, the market reports at no time justifying more than 10 and one-half cents, while 12 cents has been for several days the ruling price. Most of the wool in the county has been disposed of although there are several large lots in the north end of the county unsold.—Times.

THE SALEM B. & L. A.—At the regular meeting of the Salem Building & Loan Association, which was held under adjournment this morning at 9 o'clock, $1150 were loaned at 85 months and $1040 for 78 months, interest in advance. Withdrawals, to the amount of $2650 were ordered paid out of the funds in the treasury. The secretary reported that notwithstanding the trying times of the past year—only one borrower had become so far delinquent as to give cause for foreclosure proceedings. The fact that in the five and one half years of the Association's life there have been but two foreclosures— aggregating some $1500, shows the very healthy condition of this strong local organization.—Journal.

A CHEEKY BURGLAR.—Last night a couple of strangers wanted to sleep in the barn of Joe Meyers. Will Middleton stops there nights and permitted them to do so. They went into the other part of the barn, where they remained awhile and then came out, saying they were going for a drink. After they had gone Mr. Middleton made an examination and found one of them had stolen a good pair of pants, putting them on and leaving his old ones, passing Mr. Middleton with them on. He notified Marshal Lee this morning; but it was too late to trace them.

PUBLIC SCHOOL EXERCISES.—Closing exercises for grades 1, 2, and 3, central school, will be held tomorrow forenoon, beginning at 9:30 a. m. For grades 4, 5, and 6 exercises will commence at 10 o'clock. At the Madison St. school the exercises for the four rooms will begin at 9:30 a. m.. All exercises for the day will close by 11:30 a. m. The graduating exercises will be held in the opera house commencing at 8 o'clock p. m. For defraying expenses an admission of ten cents will be charged at the door. All are invited.

Are tell tale symptoms that your blood is not right—full of impurities, causing a sluggish and unsightly complexion. A few bottles of S. S. S. will remove all foreign and impure matter, cleanse the blood thoroughly, and give a clear and rosy complexion. It is most effectual, and entirely harmless.

Chas. Heaton, 73 Laurel Street, Phila., says: "I have had for years a humor in my blood which made me dread to shave, as small boils or pimples would be cut, thus causing shaving to be a great annoyance. After taking three bottles S.S.S. my face is all clear and smooth as it should be—appetite splendid, sleep well and feel like running a foot race all for the use of S. S. S.

THE SANTIAM MINES.

Work to Be Pushed at Once.

W. B. Lawler, the mining expert, who has been camping on the track of the Santiam mines for the past year, and Amos Strong, of Salem, were in Albany today on their way to the mines, where active work will be pushed at once. The following in today's Oregonian gives the situation:

Mr. William B. Lawler, a mining expert, who for a year past has been engaged in advancing the interests of Linn county mines, left Portland last evening for Mehama City. He has purchased the interest of Mr. F. N. Shurtleff and G. McD. Stroud in the White Bull mine, and now holds absolute control of that and adjoining properties situated in the Quartzburg mining district.

Mr. Lawler is associated with Mr. J. F. Medina, manager and owner of the London Bank of Central America, and other wealthy capitalists, who intend investing a large amount of money in developing the many resources of Western Oregon. A few weeks ago Mr. Arthur Pearse, an English engineer, visited the property, and his report only adds to the favorable mention heretofore made by leading experts. Mr Lawyer is now arranging to commence active work, and it has been entirely due to his energy and persistence that all obstacles have been overcome, and the development of the property really begun. The work of this season will be the driving of three tunnels, the sinking of two shafts, and the building of a wagon road from Gates to Quartzville. A mill, 40-stamp capacity, will also be constructed, and, before the snow flies next winter, the property will be in fine working condition. Hank Smith, so well known on the Comstock in its palmy days, and until recently superintendent of the Bullion-Beck mine of Utah, will have charge of the property. It was his report that convinced Mr Lawler one year ago of the value of the property, and subsequent development has proven the accuracy of the statemets made by Mr. Smith regarding the Quartzburg property.

A Silverton Crime.

Louis Smithie, confined in the Portland jail awaiting the action of the grand jury on a charge of stealing a cow, has confessed to the murder of Geo. W. Young three years ago at Mott, a small place near Dunsmuir, Cal.

The story as told by Smithie is that five years ago he went to Silverton, Marion county, where he became acquainted with Geo. Young, who with his wife and four children was residing at that place and was cutting wood for a living. An intimacy sprung up between Smithie and Mrs. Young. The parties afterwards went to Sissons, Cal. On the way Young noticed how familiar Smithie and his wife had become and his jealousy became aroused to such an extent that he threatened to shoot Smithie.

Finally it was determined by the guilty couple to put Young out of the way forever. Accordingly Mrs. Young made an appointment with her husband to meet her at Soda Springs on Soda Creek. Young came and when he was sitting on the bank of the creek his wife came up behind him and seized hold of him. Smithie then plunged a knife into his breast, killing him. The body was then concealed. Young was missed in the neighborhood but people supposed that he had abandoned his wife and no search was made for the body.

Acting on Smithie's confession Sheriff Sears arrested Mrs. Young, widow of the murdered man, in a log cabin near Beaverton and she now occupies a cell in the county jail awaiting developments.

ARE THEY READY.—Yesterday afternoon Judge F. J. Taylor received the following telegram from his father-in-law, W. H. Anderson, dated at Missoula, Mont:

"Had a talk with Hammond; he leaves tomorrow and expects to find things ready to commence work at once."

In conversation Judge Taylor said that the committee expected to have all things in readiness for Mr. Hammond when he arrived. "I am confident that the loyalty and patriotism of our citizens will not fail now that victory is in our grasp.

"You will notice that Mr. Hammond does not say he is coming to build the road, but that he is coming to Astoria and expects to find everything ready so that he can commence work at once. The inference is plain—he is ready; are we?—Astorian.

Tonight F Co will close their encampment with a banquet at the armory

The exterior of the county jail is being cemented; a much needed improvement

There was a big house at the M E. church, south, last night. Several conversions are reported.

The races at Independence began this afternoon. Charles Barrows and I. W. Mosher are there with several trotters.

The De Moss family are now in London. Their most famous production "Sweet Oregon," will be sung at the public school graduating exercises tomorrow night

A man went into the Santiam mines yesterday to figure on taking an eight ton boiler for the big forty stamp mill in, another evidence of the fact that business is meant.

Lee Nealy, who has been eluding arrest for illegal voting at the recent city elections, was captured Wednesday at Albany by Chief Lee. He gave bonds for his appearance.—Corvallis Gazette.

Arrangements have been made for a grand ball to be given at the opera house on the night of Thursday, July 4th. The dance will be preceeded by an entertainment and concert, full particulars of which will be given in due time.

Jas Wilbanks was going towards Corvallis in this county, opposite that city on Tuesday when his team ran away throwing him out and breaking two bones in his right leg near the ankle. The wagon was literally broken to pieces.

The contract for building a bridge across Alder Creek in Benton county was let to H. S. Porter at $88. Geo. D. Ridinger and J. B. Tillotson bid $100 each. The contract for building an Oak Creek bridge was let to George Ridinger at $144. Mr. Tillotson bid $148. The highest bid was $225.

R. M. Stevens was taken to the penitentiary from Lane county this morning by Sheriff Johnson for two years. Stevens is the society young man of Eugene who burglarized a drug store to the surprise of his friends in that city. He was previously considered one of the nice young men of the city.

The grand lodge of Masons in session in Portland yesterday elected the following officers: Grand master, M. D. Clifford, Canyon City; deputy grand master, Phil Metschan; grand senior warden, W. H. Hobson, Stayton; grand junior warden, J. B. Clelland, Portland; treasurer, Daniel McKercher, Portland; secretary, J. F. Robinson, Eugene.

John Long, the victim of last Thursday's shooting affray, is in a fair way for recovery. The ball has not yet been extracted, and no attempt will be made to remove it until the swelling in the parts subsides Mr. Friendly has about recovered his equanimity, and remains mostly about his own premises, where preparations are in progress for leaving the city to take up an abode elsewhere.—Times.

THE OTHER SIDE.—The Corvallis Gazette says sympathy in that city is generally in favor of Mr. Friendly. That most people, while they do not uphold Friendly in his violation of the law, believe that he was aggravated beyond measure, and was so wrought upon by the supposed wrongs that had been done him that he lost his reason. The Gazette goes for Long in a very hot manner, and claims he had a shooting scrape with a tin horn named Brown, whom he paid $400 to skip out, as well as other things of a sensational character.

FRIDAY

One of the features of the Commencement exercises next week will be the Sophomore's entertainment Tuesday night, when "Under the Laurels" will be presented. The Public School Library.

The pupils of the public schools have read eight hundred and twenty-five volumes during the last four months of school. These books were taken home and allowed to be kept for two weeks. The teachers have questioned the pupils about their reading and in some instances have required them to write a composition about the book read. We have thus been able to determine what has been done. Aside from the number of readings above mentioned, sets of books have been used in class exercises in the school room. The patrons of the school need have no fear of their children reading any trashy literature from the school library, as every volume in it has been carefully inspected. We believe great good has been done both in creating an interest in school work and in cultivating a taste for pure literature. I would also like to add that every book has been returned by the pupils and great care manifested in returning them in good condition. HIRAM TYRER, Principal.

ANOTHER HOLD UP.—This (Thursday) morning's Coos Bay stage, which left here at 6 a. m., was held up at 9 o'clock on the top of Hoover hill, about 14 miles west of this city, by a lone highwayman, who relieved the mail sack of its valuable contents and a passenger of $30 in cash. George Langor was driver and there were two passengers, Raymond Brumbaugh of San Francisco, and a Mrs. Francis. The robber presented a gun and made known his wants. The mail sack was handed out to him and he split it open, and after helping himself to what he wanted he returned the sack to the driver and requested the male passenger to fork over, which he did. The robber was masked. Only the way pouch was opened. There were three registered packages in the sack but no registered letters, and it is quite likely the robber got but little for his trouble.—Roseburg Plaindealer.

RAPID RIDING.—Engineer Casey was called with his yard engine Tuesday to take to Portland W. D. Fenton and Judge Bronaugh, attorneys of the Southern Pacific railroad, in their special car. He had orders to "open the throttle," and he made such a run as is seldom experienced in Oregon. He went to Portland and back—104 miles—in the actual traveling time of about one hour and thirty-five minutes, or more than a mile a minute. He was shaken up so he didn't sleep any that night.—Statesman.

WORE THE PANTS BACK.—John Doe, the man who stole Will Middleton's pants out of Joe Meyer's barn Wednesday night was arrested by Detective Day in Portland last night. Marshal Lee was notified and went to Portland after him, having just ten minutes in the metropolis, arriving home on the noon train, with the prisoner, who made a plain case by keeping the pants on. He will be held for the grand jury.

THE REVIVAL.—It seems there are some who are not aware that a noted evangelist is among us. Rev. E A. Ross is holding services twice a day at the M. E. Church South, at 10 a. m. and 8 p. m. Come christians let us make a grand rally for our own good and the help you may be to others. Come every body. It surely is a mistake to deprive yourself of this chance to hear Mr. Ross.

The next meeting of the Oregon state board of pharmacists will be held in Albany in October, their first meeting here Dr. M. M. Davis was recently elected president, M. J Lane, treasurer and D. J. Fry secretary.

In our last issue we placed two small an estimate on the number attending the big picnic Frank Nickerson stood at the entrance to the Academy grounds and counted over 6,000 people, so there must have been about 7,000 people in the city on that day.—Lebanon Advance.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The closing exercises of the public schools began this forenoon with the lower grades and will be completed to night in the opera house with the exercises by the graduating class. BLACK EYE TO COAL OIL.—Waterloo is probably about the smallest city in Oregon that will have electric lights. The correspondent of the Advance says: The electric light plant has arrived and the wires are being strung throughout the woolen mill, and in a few days the mill will be thoroughly equipped for work by night as well as day. Several of the business houses, including both hotels, will have electric lights put in, and Waterloo will do her best to give the Standard Oil Co. a black eye for raising the price of coal oil.

The loss by fire on the residence of E. E. Parrish was adjusted at the full amount of the policy, $650.

NOTA BENE.—"Under the Laurels" to be given by the Sophs. is simply immense. Come, bring your wives, children and sweethearts. Come, prepared to laugh at all witticisms and to weep—? Be sure and do not miss the poison scene —so pathetic and—but that I am forbid to tell the secrets of that poison cell, I could a tale unfold, whose lightest word would harrow up thy soul; freeze thy blood; make thy two eyes, like stars, start from their spheres; thy knotted and combined locks to part and each particular hair to stand on end, like quills upon the frightful porcupine.

But what is left to tell? The closing scene is exceedingly beautiful, even beyond expression, so remember the date June 18, 1895, and come and see for yourself for only seeing is believing. Tickets 25 cts, reserved seats 35 cts. Tickets on sale at Hodges & McFarland's.

ROWING NOT DRIFTING.

The Commencement exercises of the public schools, at the opera house, last evening, were attended by a large audience. They were of a different order from the usual public school commencement, there being no orations, the fact being appreciated that fourteen and fifteen year old pupils are too young to produce original productions of the required high order. The innovation was very acceptable and the exercises were greatly appreciated.

A song was heard by a male quartet, Messrs Howland, Hammer, Littler and Poling. After an invocation Rev. Abbett, Orah Harkness recited the "The Angels of Buena Vista, assisted by the class of girls graduating with her, Lutie Sternberg, Ida Stellmaker, Bessie Payne, Irene Neelands, Clara Settlemire, Anna Miller, Carrie Murray, Grace Livingstone, Addie Chamberlain and Annie Cox, in tasty costumes, preceeding the unique recitation with a Mexican march. It was meritorious. Music by the orchestra. "Ignorance of our Country a Crime" was well presented by Carl Rankin. Clifton M. Butler's theme was "The Most Important Event in American History," the defeat of Burgoyne. Clara B. Settlemire was heard on the piano in "Sweet Bye and Bye" with variations, displaying a careful and expressive touch. Addie M. Chambelain recited "The Wicked Little Quaker," with good effect. James M. Longhbottom handled the subject "Critical Periods in American History" in a thoughtful manner. Grace Livingstone and Bessie Payne were given a rousing encore upon the singing of "Sweet Oregon." Owen Beam read the class history and prophesy, an original production containing several bright hits and making a reasonable future for the members of the class without having all of them president of the U. S. Lutie Sternberg and Anna Miller presented a piano duet in a talented manner.

President W. C. Hawley, of Willamette University was heard for 45 minutes in a thoughtful address on the value of education, giving its development in the history of the world, presenting the U. S. as the climax of nations. While commending diplomas as records of work done, he told of the greater diplomas of Columbus, Washington, Fulton, Morse and Edison, not written on parchment.

Miss Irene Neelands delivered the valedictory, paying a just tribute to teachers and fellow students and sensibly imphacising the fact that graduation from the public schools did not compete one's education but was the stepping stone to a higher field. The diplomas were presented by Judge Flinn, president of the board of school directors, and the exercises closed with benediction by Rev. Abbett.
