ABSOLUTE PROOF.

That Indictment Charge a Boomerang.

Below we give several documents which absolutely settle the facts in reference to the indictment of Henry Blakeley twenty-five years ago, so long ago as to make reference to the matter ridiculous as a political weapon. The last sentence in the following letter of the county clerk will express every true citizens feelings in the matter:

A LETTER.
PENDLETON, Or., May 21, 1896.

DEAR SIR:—
Mr. W. M. Blakeley, was in my office this morning, and left with me and for my attention your letter of the 17th inst.
Pursuant to your request and under his direction I have procured from the clerk of the circuit court for this county, certified copies of the indictment against Henry Blakeley and others returned in 1871 and certified copy of the order of court dismissing it as to all the defendants, also certified copy of the indictment returned during the same year against James W. Fenn, alias William Butch, together with a certified copy of the judgment and sentence of the court sentencing him to the pen for two years on his plea of "guilty."

You will observe that this James W.
Fenn was the only witness that appeared to testify before the grand jury in the case where the indictment was returned against Henry Blakeley et al.

I will be glad to furnish you any other information that you may need and that I can get in regard to this matter, and hope that you will be able to use this as a veritable boommerang, against the contemptible mud wallower who would try to use any thing of this kind as political ammunition. Yours very truly, A. D. SULLIVAN.

ceedings were had: On the 6th day of May, 1871, being the 6th judicial day of said term:

State of Oregon Plaintiff James W. Fenn, indicted under the name of Wm. Butch, Defendant.

This day the court came on for hearing and for passing judgment against the defendant, and said defendant having heretofore pled guilty and this time tence law. It is ordered and adjudged that the defendant, James W. Fenn, be imprisoned under the name of William Butch

STATE OF OREGON,) COUNTY OF UMATILLA,)
I, S. B. Burroughs, County Clerk of the County of Umatilla, State of Oregon, and ex-officio Clerk of the Circuit Court, do hereby certify the foregoing to be a true copy of the Journal Entry and Judgment entered in the above entitled action and recorded in Book A of Journal of said Court at page 558 and of the whole thereof, as said entry of judgment now appears on record and in my custody.

SWORN STATEMENT OF W. M. BLAKELEY
State of Oregon,) Umatilla county,) I, Wm. Blakeley, being first duly sworn depose and say, that I am and have been for the last 25 years, a resident of Umatilla county and State of Oregon.

That the indictment found in the Circuit court of the State of Oregon, for Umatilla county, in the year 1871 against Henry Blakeley, was procured by false testimony and under a misapprehension of the facts; that said Henry Blakeley was not on hearing of it voluntarily and without being arrested came to Pendleton, the county seat, and gave a bond for his appearance to meet the charge whenever prosecuted.

That the prosecuting attorney, after a false statement of his own motion in open court, stated that he was informed that Henry Blakeley had no connection whatever with the facts alleged in the indictment and voluntarily and as a matter of justice, dismissed the indictment as to said Henry Blakeley.

That as a matter of fact the cattle in said indictment as having been stolen, were cattle belonging to Henry Blakeley's father, Capt. James Blakeley, of Brownville, Oregon, and caught in the indictment as being the property of this affiant.

Subscribed and sworn before me this 21st day of May, A. D. 1896.

A. L. SULLIVAN,
Notary Public for Oregon.

James W. Fenn on whose testimony the indictment was found was convicted of the same crime of coat Mr. Blakeley was indicted, as will be seen by the above records. Mr. A. Farlow, of near Jefferson says Fenn stole $400.00 from his father since serving a term in the penitentiary of this state and is now a refugee from justice, supposed to be in British Columbia.

The documents referred to in the above letter show the dismissal of the indictment and the discharge of Henry Blakeley; and the indictment of Fenn, fully covered by the documents published.

The Jefferson Review says: Mr. Carson has never yet been able to vote at a presidential, state or county election, and now wishes to be placed in a position to enforce laws which, not being a citizen, he had no voice in making. Mr.
Hayden, on the contrary, was born in this state, and though yet young in years, ranks among our foremost criminal lawyers. The office in the case is a political one, and qualifications for what should be considered. We believe that Mr. Hayden, by virtue of his ability and a lifetime passed within the borders of our state, is entitled to the office, and expect to see him elected.

Pacts and no fiction count.

The people this year are not believing what they read and hear until after investigation.

If you believe in a non partisan bench vote for John Burnett for supreme judge.
Mr. Burnett is one of the able lawyers of Oregon.

Memorial day comes on Saturday, and will be respected politically in this city.
The demonstration will be on Thursday night by public speaking at the court house.

A vote cast for C. F. Bigbee for county School Superintendent on next Monday will be a vote for a man who has spent one half of his life in the interest of the public schools, and one who will guard the interests of the public schools as he would his own.

How It Worked.

Some Good Men to Vote For.

Sample tickets are out in order that voters may practice so that when they go to the polls they will know just what they want and make no mistake. Beware and get the X's where they belong.
We give some illustrations.

13. X John Burnett, of Benton Co.
Mr. Burnett is a lawyer whose property speaks for his business capacity. He is an able attorney thoroughly versed in the laws of Oregon. Do you want a non-partisan bench, then vote for Mr. Burnett for supreme judge.

30. X Samuel L. Hayden, of Marion Co.
Mr. Hayden is an attorney of about ten years practice, whose capability is unquestioned. He has been successful particularly in the criminal line, notably in several important cases. Do not believe the stories of combinations circulated for political effect. Vote for him for district attorney.

24. X H. W. McElroy, of Linn Co.
25. X J. M. Philpot, of Linn Co.
26. X H. O. Watson, of Linn Co.

These are men who can be trusted to work in the interests of the people, against useless combinations and other extraneous matters that have been the bane of our state.

35. X Samuel M. Garland, of Linn Co.
Mr. Garland is a native of this county and is an attorney of ability, careful, prompt, reliable, who would look after the interests of the people, using economy. Mr. Garland will not allow illegal fees in any officers bills. The total expenses of the county under the present administration were approximately 35 per cent more than under the democratic judge, J. J. Whitney. A vote for Mr. Garland for county judge will be for an economical administration.

40. X W. E. Potter, of Linn Co.
Mr. Potter knows how to run his own farm as well as any man in Linn county.
He has a model place. He is a reliable steady man, and is the only candidate for a place on the board of county commissioners from the forks

41. X O. A. Archibald, of Linn Co.
Mr. Archibald is a native of this county and is not only a young man of splendid personal character, but is thoroughly qualified for the duties of county clerk.
He would make an exemplary official.

48. X Henry Blakeley, of Linn Co.
Mr. Blakeley is a reliable, honest, steady man, capable of filling the office of county sheriff to the satisfaction of the people.
He is active and energetic, a worker himself. With the exception of about five years when a young man, spent in foreign Oregon, he has lived all his life in Linn county and well he is known to the people that every attempt to injure his character has reacted in his favor. If elected, as he probably will be,
he will respect the law himself before asking others to do so.

50. X M. P. Peery, of Linn Co.
Mr. Peery, a son of J. H. Peery, is a young man of excellent education and personal attainments. He is not only a good penman, but a very careful young man, capable of filling the office of county sheriff to the satisfaction of the people.
He is active and energetic, a worker
in Linn county and well he is known
to the people that every attempt to injure his character has reacted in his favor. If elected, as he probably will be,
asking others to do so.

55. X T. J. Montgomery, of Linn Co.
Mr. Montgomery is an old resident of Linn county who would make a faithful treasurer.

56. X M. Miller, of Linn Co.
Mr. Miller is one of Linn county's educated men. He is a pioneer in all the work, besides possessing that reliability and carefulness that will make him specially fitted for the office of assessor.

61. X C. F. Bigbee, of Linn Co.
Mr. Bigbee has been one of the best of his life since maturity as an instructor in the public schools with which he is thoroughly identified. He is pronounced competent and well qualified to attend to the important duties of this office.

62. X O. B. Rose, of Linn Co.
Mr. Rose will make as good a coroner as anybody, and will attend to the office if elected.

Do We Want a Change?

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:

In the article in the Morning Herald of May 27, 1896, taken from the Brownsville Times, they try to make it appear that a change in the office of county recorder necessitates a turning of the office upside down, and that the taxpayers of Linn County should not payers of Linn County should not the opportunity of electing the matchless services of D. F. Hardman for county recorder for the next two years.

An examination of said records, Vol.
41, pages 247, 250, 313, and 314. Vol.
42, pages 15, 16, 182 and 254. Vol. 43, pages 15, 16, 182 and 254. Vol. 43, page 31, mortgage record Vol. 39, 130, 131 and 132, and many other pages too numerous to mention will convince any fair-minded person that we have had enough of Hardman's matchless services and that the office of county recorder was turned completely upside down by Mr.
Hardman, and if the voters of Linn county vote for Mark M. Peery for county recorder, and thereby elect a man who will immediately turn the office of county recorder right side up and conduct it in that position during his term of office.
Voters do and examine these records.

X O. B. ROSE, of Linn Co. A VOTER.

Too many men in Linn County have been reborn of Sheriff McFarren in open court. The Democrat has tried to rebaptize them in the name of the county. I have known Prof. Bigbee several years and have had the pleasure of visiting his school and as far as I was able to judge the school was being taught in a first class manner. He holds a first grade county certificate and is entitled to a second certificate without further examination.

I believe he is in entire sympathy with our public schools, and should the voters elect him to the position to which he is entitled, he will be placed in a position to enforce laws which, not being a citizen, he had no voice in making. Mr.

An Awful Disaster

VICTORIA, B. C., May 26.—A terrible accident occurred here today. A steam lighter was wrecked in the harbor, and about 100 people were making
