The Albany Colts, Saturday afternoon, at the Goltra Park grounds, ran away from the Indian boys, or rather men, of Chemawa, with wonderful ease, playing one of the finest amateur games ever witnessed on the coast. The Colts made one of the finest amateur games ever witnessed on the coast. The Colts made 1, 0, 1, 3, 7, 1, 1, 1, 0, a total of 15 scores in the order named, while the Indians made nine 0's. The battery work of Fleming and Miller was wonderful The former struck out 13 and was steady as a clock at critical periods, while Miller played an errorless game. The support was strong and reliable. Albany people may well take pleasure in supporting The game was umpired impartially by
