RIVAL ARMIES .- There was a demon stretion Wednesday evening by the two holy bands of this city. The occasion was made memorable by the fact that it was to be the first appearance of the 'Army of American Volunteers.' There is all over the world a band of professed christians known to the people as the "Salvation Army," and they are of English origin. They put their feet hard upon the neck of the infant American band of christians Wednesday evening such in the same manner that the "mother country" attempted to throttle her offspring in revolutionary times. "Johnny Bull's finger" is in every pie, be it of christianity or bloodshed. Wed-nesday night the Salvation Army was

They were anxious and almost compelled to proceed, so they started their teams on the run down the grade, and passed through about 30 pards of colid flame. George's face and pards avere quite hadly burned and his hands were quite badly burned and his beard was singed. One horse was burned slightly and harness and wagon more or less damaged. They got through all right at last, but were badly scared. The fire is thought to have been purposely started. Great damage has been done to timber and traveling was made dan-

I was a sufferer for eight years from Eczema, but now am entirely cured. The palms of my bands were covered and badly inflamed; little white blisters appeared, then would peel off, leaving a red, smooth surface, which would burn like fire and itch. On the inside of the upper part of my limbs, great red blotches would appear, and as soon as I became warm, the burning and itching would begin. Night after night I would lie awake and scratch, and sinest go wild. I got a box of Curicuna, and a bottle of Curicuna Resouvent, and after a few applications I melted the redness and inflammation disappear; before I had used one box there was not a sign of Eczema left. I can truthfully assert that $2.00 worth of Curicuna Resembles cured que.

Drummer Stephen P. Hart's $25,000 damage suit against the Southern Pacific Railroad Company was decided by Judge Shattuck in department No. 1 of the state circuit court today. The case, which involved many points of especial interest to railroads and passengers, was tried before the court a short time ago, Hart claimed damages for being ejected from a Southern Pacific train. He had a difficulty with the conductor over his ticket, which was of the identification class, and resorted to the law for satisfaction, monetary and otherwise.

The decision of the court is that Hart
