ALBANY'S PAST.

People who depend upon the Oregonian for an honest view of the political situation will undoubtedly be fooled. It is the most one sided paper in the U.S. From the DEMOCRAT of Oct. 31, to Dec. 26, to 1873.

One needs to see eastern papers to judge candidly of the prospects. The grose value of property in Lion county was $5,248,397; indebtedness Sapientiae, in a series of articles in the Herald, is having lote of fun with pope, demopopy, etc., and now some one has been very unkindly trying to instruct him on the free silver subject, whereas
