To Friends of Bimetalism.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 6.—Bryan today gave out the following:

"To the bimetalists of the United States:

"Conscious that millions of loyal hearts are saddened by temporary defeat, I beg to offer a word of hope and encouragement. No cause ever had supporters more brave, earnest and devoted than those who have espoused the cause of bimetalism. They have fought from conviction and have fought with all the zeal conviction inspires. Events will prove whether they were right or wrong. Having done their duty as they saw it, they have nothing to regret. The republican candidate has been heralded as the advance agent of prosperity to the American people. If his policies bring real prosperity to the American people those who opposed him will share that prosperity. If on the other hand his policies prove an injury to the people generally, these supporters who do not belong to the office-holding class or to the privileged class will suffer in common with those who opposed him. Friends of bimetalism have not been vanquished; they have been simply overcome. They believe the gold standard is a conspiracy of the money changers against the welfare of the human race, and until convicted of their error they will continue the warfare against it. The contest has been waged this year under great embarrassments and against odds. But in spite of the efforts of the administration and its supporters, in spite of the threats of the money lenders at home and abroad, in spite of coercion practiced by corporations on employes, and in spite of trusts and syndicates, in spite of the enormous republican campaign fund, and in spite of the influnces of a hostile daily press, bimetalism has almost triumphed in its first great fight. But bimetalism emerges from the contest stronger than it was four months ago. I desire to commend the work of the three national committees which have joined in the management of this campaign. They have laid the foundation for future success and will be remembered as pioneers when the victory is at last secured. No personal or political friend need grieve because of my defeat.

"My ambition has been to secure immediate legislation rather than to enjoy the honors of office. Therefore defeat brings to me no personal feeling of loss. Speaking for the wife who shared my labors, as well as for myself, I desire to say that we have been amply repaid for all that we have done. In the love of millions of our fellow citizens, so kindly expressed; in the knowledge gained by personal contact with the people; and in broadened sympathies we find full compensation for what efforts we have put forth. In the face of an enemy rejoicing in its victory let the roll be called for the engagement and urge all friends of bimetalism to renew their allegiance to the cause. If we are right, as I believe we are, we shall yet triumph. The year of 1900 is not far away. Before that year arrives international bimetalism will cease to deceive. Before that year arrives those who have called themselves gold standard democrats will have become bimetalists and be with our party, or have become republicans and, thus open enemies; before that year arrives we will have convinced still more people that the trusts are a menance to private welfare and to public safety; before that year arrives the evils of the gold standard will be even more evident than they are now, and the people will be ready to demand an American financial policy for an American people and will join with us in the immediate restoration of the free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver at the present legal ratio of 16 to 1, without waiting for the aid or consent of any other nation."

The Haves And The Have Nots

Albany, Nov. 9.

Editor Democrat:

This expression is used in England to express the difference between the Liberals and the Tories.

All the "Haves" are not Tories for many rich men and many of high birth are in the Liberal ranks, not from self interest but from a true desire to help the struggling masses.

The use of the above expression by the editor of the Oregonian shows that he has a pretty clear idea of the present trend of political change in the United States. When Archbishop Ireland writes of the "proletariat" he also shows that he understands this trend partially.

Heretofore other questions have divided the people of this country but in this campaign for the first time we find nearly all wealth on one side, and hereafter the struggle of the classes for more power and the struggle of the masses for a greater restraint of the classes will go on.

It is no use to deprecate this as has been done by many speakers and writers. It is worse than folly to try to ignore it. Upon the solution of this question depends the future of our republic. It will be, no doubt, a long struggle. The result will probably be grudging concession by the Tories under pressure from the Liberals, as has been the case in England. Organized as a liberal party, the democratic became the Tory party prior to the war, owing to the domination of the slave holding class. Organized in the interest of the black masses the republican party has become in time the champion of the wealthy white classes and is now the Tory party of the country. The democratic party now champions the cause of the masses and is the Liberal party of the future. The political issue of the future is control of the trusts, syndicates and corporations. In themselves they are not bad but great factors in our progress, but this is no reason why they should not be controlled. Left to themselves they will destroy competition.

Properly controlled, competition will compel them to make reasonable prices. They are exceedingly powerful and "having no souls" are strictly business, that is selfish. The future advancement of our country depends upon the uplifting of the poorer classes. All who are moved by christian spirit desire that equal opportunity in life's struggle be given to all. This in my opinion will be the aim of the new Liberal party. Many of the reforms advocated by the populist party will be dropped temporarily but the Initiative and Referendum, income tax, graduated inheritance tax, and popular election of senators will no doubt be brought forward. Government saving banks, express and telegraph service will also be part of the policy of the new party, but government ownership of railroads will probably not be urged at present by the party generally. As the new party occupies so much of the ground of the populist party there is no good reason for continuing as a separate party, but many reasons for cementing the alliance begun in the present election.

Populist.

A Southern Paper's Opinion.

The Semi-Weekly Times Union, of Jacksonville, Fla., comes to the Democrat office regularly and is a welcome visitor. It is a remarkably conservative paper, independent in politics. Among its interesting editorials is the following:

Debt is more of a menace to future prosperity than a present evil. While an individual or a community is going in debt it shows every sign of extreme prosperity. Pay-day is forgotten, but it is coming with a steady and fatal approach.

A panic is the legitimate offspring of flush times. Unusual prosperity is ominous. Men forget, but it always is the harbinger of unusual stringency. In flush times it is so easy to borrow money that men borrow beyond their ability to pay.

The best that can be said of the South, and the best that can be possibly said of any section or nation, is that it is comparatively free from booms and callapses. No section in the Union is so little affected with the wild speculation of flush times as is the South, and none is so little injured by periods of unusual depression. The South is going steadily upward, and the fact that its progress is now so rapid is due to its past exemption from speculation and its attendant evils.

Ten years ago the West was a land of promise. Cities sprang up almost in a day. Great states grew out of a wilderness in a shorter time than it required a child to grow to mature manhood. Money was plentiful. Those who did not have it could easily borrow it. They borrowed, and the result is the states of the Northwest are so heavily in debt that their future is no longer one of promise.

On the other hand, the South has gone quietly and steadily forward, and is now only slightly in debt. Aside from its comparative freedom from debt, its advantages are now recognized, and those who are looking for homes have turned their eyes southward.

A development as solid as in the past and more rapid, is now setting in. The future of the South is bright, and its present condition, so far as the masses are concerned, is better than that of any other section of the country.

The Gold Standard Program.

Banker George E. Brooke, of Spokane, has, says the Spokesman Review, correctly outlined the financial legislation which the gold forces will press upon McKinley's administration. The influences which controlled the St. Louis convention, and wrote the platform, will seek control of the next administration. They have a carefully matured plan, and Mr. Brooke has stated it, namely, the retirement of the United States and treasury notes, in amount about half a billion—the obliteration of all government notes, and the substitution there for of national bank paper.

This would involve the sale of $500,000,000 more bonds, and the increase of the interest bearing public debt in that amount. Mr. Brooke speaks incidentally of an increased use of silver, but that is his personal view of the question. It is not contemplated by the forces which stand for the single gold standard. Their plan is the exclusive use of gold as money of ultimate redemption, and if they are successful in their efforts to retire the greenbacks, they will next turn their attention to the retirement of the standard silver dollars now in circulation. This was clearly indicated by Secretary Carlisle's recent statement that he would, if "necessary," redeem the silver dollar in gold.

It now seems probable that the gold men will be able to pass their proposed legislation through the house, but that it will meet with determined resistance in the senate, where the socalled "sound money" forces appear to be in the minority. Failing to develop a majority in the senate, it is not improbable that the syndicates would organize another raid on the treasury, their purpose being to force that body and the country to terms, as they brought congress and the country to terms when they were forcing the repeal of the the Sherman law.

In that event, the country would be required to pass through another long period of financial and industrial disturbance.

The Earliest American Coins.

The very earliest coinage that can be called American was ordered by the Virginia Company, and was minted in the Burmudas in the year 1612. At that time, and for a long time after, tobacco was the standard currency in Virginia. In 1645, however, the Virginia Assembly, after reciting that it "had maturely weighed and considered now advantageous a quoine (coin) would be to this colony, and the great wants and miseries which do daily happen unto it by solely depending on tobacco," provided for the issue of copper coins of the denominations of 2d, 3d, 6d and 9d, but nothing was ever done toward carrying out the law.

Seven years later, in May, 1652, the "General Court" of Massachusetts passed a law which created a "mint howse" in Boston, and which directed that a regular coinage be established. The coins provided for by this law were, in the quaint language of the old statutes "to bee 12 pence, 6 pence and 3 pence peeces, which shall be for forme flatte, and stamped on one side with N. E., and on the other side with characters xiid, vid and iiid, according to the value of each peece." This Boston mint was the one which produced the famous "oak-tree" and "pine-tree shillings" which are highly valued by collectors of old coins and which have sold as high as $25 each. This early mint continued in operation for 34 years. During the reign of William and Mary copper coins were struck at this mint for the Carolinas, as well as for New England in general. The first coins struck for Maryland were silver shillings, 6 pence and 4 pence pieces, which Lord Baltimore caused to be mint ed in London.

The "Fast South" is a special newspaper train going to Washington every Sunday morning. It leaves Jersey City at 2:45, reaching the capital city at 7:50. It is composed of four cars, and of these the New York World controls one absolutely and is said to occupy the bulk of the space in all the others. A man who is familiar with the work of this train says that the World sends twice as many copies Sunday as all the other New York papers combined; that the Journal is second.

The Palmer ticket was a mere decoy.

Mr John Bull has been laughing in his sleeve for several days.

Mr. M. L. Pipes is entitled to the appointment of minister to the Yukon.

Oregon needs a registration law. The next legislature will please take note.

Palmer received only 2,009 votes in Chicago, more than he was entitled to.

When the smoke raises it will be seen that Mr. Carlisle does not get anything.

46,055 more votes were cast in Chicago than in New York. Now what does that settle.

The democrats gained four congressmen in McKinley's state. That was not very bad after all.

What will be done with the trusts anyway. The trusts ought to be regulated whether we have prosperity or not.

It is not doing the chrysanthemum justice to judge it by the man upon whose lapel it appears.

European people took more interest in the recent election than any for many years. Certainly.

Wonderful flower that chrysanthemum, all ragged and tattered, and yet caressed by the rich.

Why not give Mr. Cleveland the ministry to England. He is entitled to something. Even the Oregonian says so.

They say Mr. Hanna can have anything he pleases either go to the U. S. Senate or be U. S. treasury. He prefers the former.

There are some great cabinet makers in the U. S. After all making a president's cabinet is always an interesting business for every body.

The result suits Mr. Cleveland and yet the victors criticise Mr. Cleveland and his administration, presenting a very peculiar situation.

We are all anxious to see a permanent prosperity, and the people are capable of doing much toward it. It may be predicted that the McKinley administration will see the necessity of increasing the currency.

Mr. Hanna overthrew all the old bosses like Platt, and now is the only boss mentioned. He is unquestionably the greatest boss of the age, and everybody says this regardless of party. He is a veritable Warwick.

Coquille City won the county seat of Coos county over Empire City last Tuesday by a majority of 550. Thomas Buckman, populist, defeated J. W. Bennett, gold democrat, for representative by five majority. They tied last June.

There is no credit in hitting a man after he is defeated; yet several Eastern papers have done so in reference to Mr Bryan in a very disgusting manner. The Cleveland Plaindealer states the truth when it says: "The country has come to know Mr Bryan as a man of unsullied character, of pure life, of strong religious convictions and of unflinching patriotism."

In Sweden the education of journalists has become a function of the state. The Swedes take the novel view that if journalists are to instruct public opinion they must acquire the necessary information at the public charge. Swedish editors travel by railway in their own country without paying fare. Unlike the country editors of the United States, they acquire "free" passes without exchanging advertising for them.

That boys base ball tournament was the poorest managed affair in the history of the sphere. The Albanies were put out on account of having one man over age, while the Los Angeles Club with two or three over age, was allowed to remain in the tournament and then the Nevada Stars were forced to play two California games for the championship where the original program said one should settle it. The Democrat man is just enough of a base ball crank not to appreciate that kind of justice.

Archdeacon Sinclair, in his "Leaders of thought, etc.," tells a good story of Eton headmaster, known as "Flogging Keate." Finding one morning a row of boys in his study, he began, as usual, to flog them. They were too terrified at the awful little man to remonstrate till he had gone half way down the row, when one plucked up courage to falter out: "Please sir, we're not up for punishment—we're a confirmation class!" "Never mind," said Dr. Keate; "I must be fair all around, and it will do you good." So he finished them off.

The happiest place in Europe is said to be Klingberg on-the Main. It is the one prosperous spot where everybody has work and an income, and where there are no taxes, either local or imperial, because the income of the municipality suffices for everything, and leaves a bonus for distribution besides. Happy Klingenberg! It is all due to a little wisdom and foresight on the part of its local administration many years ago. There are valuable beds of fireclay in the neighborhood, and these the municipality had the prudence not to sell to make the fortunes of other people, but retained for the benefit of the town. The profits pay all taxes, and the inhabitants get the surplus divided among them. Young men going to the army this year received a present of 15 marks each.

In 1892 Harrison received only 145 electoral votes, Cleveland receiving 277 and Weaver 22. In 1896 Mr. McKinley's electoral vote will not be as large as Mr Cleveland's in 1892, while Mr. Bryan's will be considerably larger than Mr. Harrison's in 1892. Free coinage is really more popular than a gold standard in this country and on a straight issue it would prove so. A large number of voters, believers in free coinage, supported McKinley in 1896 because they were scared by the prophecies of the press of the big cities of what would occur if Bryan was elected and the threat, on the evening before election, made to workingmen in the big centers that if Bryan was elected on Tuesday they need not come back to work on Wednesday morning.—Pendleton E. MISFITS.

If Corbett and Fitzsimmons really want to fight let them go to South Africa and punch each other. It is permitted at Johannesberg. Joe Goddard and Ed Smith are there already.

Mr. Thos. Reed, of Maine. travels in a private Pullman car "Corolet," in a manner suitable for the "czar" of the house. Reed is undoubtedly the ablest man in the republican party. He was entertained in Portland today.

Portland is a great city. A man named H. P. Bush was locked up in the city jail for seven days, when he was discharged as there was no complaint against him and it was not known what he was there for.

Salem people are talking of a mass meeting of business men to protest against the new and exorbitant freight schedule, under the combine with the river boats. Fortunately there is talk already of an opposition boat on the river.

Fitzsimmons and Sharkey are now to fight, but it will be principally with their tongues. Corbett has fallen out of sight. He deserted one wife for a woman who in turn he is now said to have deserted. Pugilists are not building up a very high reputation.

William F. Fritts and Miss Emma J. Gamble of Echo were married in this city Wednesday. A friend of Mr. and Mrs. Fritts states that this wedding was the fulfillment of an agreement between the two conditioned upon the election of McKinley. The contract stipulated that in the event of the election of Mr. McKinley Mr. Fritts was to marry Miss Gamble; but, if on the other hand, Bryan should be elected, Miss Gamble was to marry Mr Fritts.—Pendleton E. The Examiner says: "For Stanford, Murphy ran his team very well, finding a weak place and playing it for all it was worth. His passing was accurate and he greatly helped his team by encouragement, never ceasing to urge them on. His interference was strong and his defensive play good."

For Musical People.

Mr. D. M. Bartlett, of this city, is canvassing Linn county for membership in the American Musical Association of Chicago, under which each subscriber secures the privilege of purchasing any music, vocal or instrumental, published, at reductions as low as 90 per cent of the list price. An elegant book of vocal and instrumental music goes with the membership. This is a splendid thing and every lover of music should subscribe. The cost is only $3.

The Nickame, "Uncle Sam," as applied to the United States government, is said to have originated as follows: Samuel Wilson, commonly called "Uncle Sam," was a government inspector of beef and pork at Troy, New York, about 1812. A contractor, Elbert Anderson, purchased a quantity of provisions, and the barrels were marked "E. A.," Anderson's initials, and "U. S., for United States. The latter initials were not familiar to Wilson's workmen, who inquired what they meant. A facetious fellow answered: "I don't know, unless they mean 'Uncle Sam.'" A vast amount of property afterward passed through Wilson's hands marked in the same manner, and he was often joked upon the extent of his possessions. The joke spread through all the departments of the government, and before long the United States was popularly referred to as "Uncle Sam."

MARRIED.

CARTER—BILIEU.—Today at high noon, in this city, at the residence of P A Goodwin, there were united in marriage, Mr. V. A. Carter and Miss Nora Bilieu. Rev. D. V. Poling of this city pronounced the words that made them man and wife.

Mr. Carter is an excellent young man, one of Benton county's most prosperous farmers, and is highly respected by all who know him. Miss Bilieu is a charming young lady and will make a most estimable wife. This couple is deservedly popular. The Democrat extends best wishes.

DIED.

DORRIS.—In Albany on Wednesday Nov. 11, 1896, after a lingering illness of consumption, Mrs. Frank Dorris at the age of about 30 years.

The deceased was a daughter of Mrs. B. F. Ashby.

DOWNIE.—On Nov. 8, at Berry, Mrs. O. N. Downie at the age of about 35 years.

BORN.

POWER.—On Tuesday morning, Nov. 10, 1896, to Mr. and Mrs E. L. Power, a girl.—All doing well.

A man may dress as well as his own good taste, judgment and the assistance of an artistic tailor may elect. He may take his "tubs" as regularly as the most conscientious water-cure doctor may dictate; but if his digestive organs are out of order, he will have an unwholesome appearance. His complexion and the white of his eyes will have a yellowish cast. His tongue will be coated, appetite poor, his teeth rusty, his breath abominable. He is one big, unmistakable sign of constipation.

Worst of all, his temper is as ugly and unwholesome to live with as is his person. A man who has the least appreciation of what he owes his family and friends, to say nothing of himself, will make an effort for health.

The quickest, surest, easiest way is to take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They are made of refined, concentrated vegetable extracts. Nothing in the least harmful enters into their composition. A Tramp Murderer

Roseburg, Or., Nov. 10.—A quarrel among hobos this afternoon resulted in one of them purchasing a Winchester at a second-hand store near the railroad station. He passed through the station-yard a short distance, met one of a party and deliberately shot him in the lower part of the body. He would have shot him again, but bystanders begged him not to do so. The hobo then shouldered his gun and crossed the Umpqua bridge toward Coos bay. After some delay a deputy sheriff started in pursuit. The man shot is dangerously wounded. The names of those concerned are unknown.

It Will Be Settled

Washington, Nov. 10.—The king of Sweden and Norway, Oscar II, has been chosen by treaty between the United States and Great Britain as the fifth official arbitrator of the Venezuelan boundary question. The other arbitrators, four in number, are to be designated, two by the lord chief justice of England, and two by the chief justice of the United States.

Why Not Quit Then

New York, Nov. 10.—A luncheon in honor of Mark A Hanna was given in the banquet hall of the Equitable building today. The host was Isaac Seligman, of the house of J & W Seligman, and the guests included a number of the most prominent business men and financiers in the city. More than 30 guests sat at the tables.

General Porter, Carl Schurz and several others also spoke. The burden of these addresses was that, after so many stormy discussions, the country needs an absolute rest from political agitation.

Mrs Castle Discharged

London, Nov. 10.—Mrs Walter MCastle, of San Francisco, sentenced at the Clerkenwell sessions Friday last to three months' imprisonment without hard labor, after having pleaded guilty by advice of her counsel to a charge of shop lifting, was released from Wormwood Scrubbs prison today on medical grounds, by order of the home secretary, Sir Matthew White Ridley.

Not Enough Confidence

Menasha, Wis, Nov. 10.—The Paper Mill Company made an assignment today for the benefit of its creditors. The assets are $100,000; liabilities, half this amount. The concern lost heavily by Chicago and Minneapolis failures, which brought about the assignment.

The Reserve.

Washington, Nov. 9.—The treasury today lost $27,000 in gold coin, and $21,200 in bars, which leaves the true amount of gold in the reserve $121,526,364. The available cash balance is $230,394,018.

The net gain in gold today at New York and San Francisco was $1,034,700.

The resources of the treasury are being severely taxed to meet the demand for paper notes of all denominations in exchange for gold.

Wyoming for Bryan

Denver, Nov. 9.—A News special from Cheyenne says:

Chairman Blydenburg, of the democratic state committee, tonight issued the following: "We have complete returns from nine counties. There are still 10 precincts to hear from, outside of Big Horn county. We have returns from five precincts in Big Horn county. These give majorities for the democratic candidate greater than our ante-election estimates. Our figures from all precincts heard from show Bryan electors 380 ahead, and Osborne, for congress, 401 in the lead."

A Big Project

San Francisco, Nov. 9.—One of the great projected enterprises is once more attracting attention here, at San Diego, and in Chicago, New York and Philadelphia. It is the heavily-backed proposition of a number of American capitalists to establish on the Pacific a magnificent line, with such railway arrangements in the United States and such connection with the new trans-Siberian line as will make it a vital and effective part of a great round-the-world system of communication. This new proposition, bids fair to be in full operation before any Pacific port has welcomed the first of the much-talked-of Japanese liners.

Resumption of Specie Payments

New York, Nov. 9.—The banks are contemplating the resumption of specie payments which they suspended in February, 1892, by refusing to supply gold for export and for payment of government dues. Since the election the metal has been coming into the banks in such a flood that they see their way clear to what can be termed a resumption of specie payments. By this action of the banks gold will be put into circulation, and no occasion whatever will exsist for hoarding it.

There Will Be Fighting.

Havana, Nov. 9.—Captain-General Weyler has taken the field in person against the insurgents under Antonio Maceo, in the province of Pinar del Rio. Reliable news received from the front indicates that the Spanish columns are approaching close to the enemy. General Weyler left Havana on the cruiser Legaz py this morning for Mariel. From Mariel, it is understood, he will go southward by highway to Artemisa, and along the line of the trocha. Strong reinforcements are being embarked to support the captain general in his operations against the insurgents.

The Kentucky Vote.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 9.—The headquarters of both republicans and democratic campaign committees are closed, it being conceded that on the face of the official returns from 115 of the 119 counties, McKinley has carried the state. Chairman Roberts figures McKinley's plurality at 444; the Courier-Journal figures the plurality at 498.

Kentucky for McKinley.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 7.—Tonight no material changes in the political situation in Kentucky are evident. The democratic headquarters give no detailed figures.

The following is from the republican headquarters: "Kentucky has gone republican for the first time in its history in a presidential year. Complete official returns from the other eight counties give McKinley 456 plurality.

A Very Live Wire.

Oregon City, Or., Nov. 8.—John Young was returning from a trip to Bridgeport late last night on a horse belonging to his brother's livery stable, in this city. As he was approaching town, a telephone wire, brought down by the storm, and sagging across a trolley wire of the Willamette Falls motor line, struck the horse in the breast and the animal fell dead, throwing the rider over his head with great violence. As it was very dark, Mr Young did not know what the trouble was, so he tried to assist the horse by lifting on the bit. The result was that Mr Young received a severe electric shock. The dislodged wire was cut before further damage was done.

Los Angeles Won.

San Francisco, Nov. 8.—Nine husky young men from the South played ball in the presence of 15,000 people today and won the amateur championship of the Pacific coast. It was the final game of the tournament which has been in progress all summer, and today, the Los Angeles Tutts-Lyons and the Nevada Stars met to decide which should carry off the pennant. The Los Angeles boys won the game by the top-sided score of 14 to 3.

Goodbye Carlisle

Cincinnati, Nov. 8.—The Commercial Tribune's special from Frankfort, Ky., says:

There is no longer any talk of the republicans uniting with the gold democrats on Carlisle, breckinridge or any other democrat to succeed Blackburn. All negotiations and talk to this effect were based on probabilities of another deadlock. Now that the republicans are confident of a majority on joint ballot they state that a republican will be elected senator.

Deserves Hanging.

Lebanon, Ky, Nov. 8.—William Bean, a negro who assaulted Mrs Clark last Tuesday, was captured and put in jail here today. While the sheriff was bringing him here, a mob took him and carried him before Mrs Clark, who identified him. She is expected to die, but pleaded with the crowd to let the law take its course. Negroes as well as whites threaten to lynch him tonight if Mrs Clark dies.

Claim Wyoming.

Cheyenne, Wyo, Nov. 8.—It is estimated that returns from 1200 votes are yet to be received from the Big Horn country. As this section is almost exclusively devoted to sheepraising, it is claimed by the republicans that its returns will give the state to McKinley without a doubt.

CUT PRICES by the only concern that ever voluntarily reduced prices, or in recent times originated a new idea in Windmill and Water Supply Goods. Everything the farmer sells is low. Who sells low to him? We have repeatedly refused to join, and have therefore defeated windmill combination, and have, since '89, reduced the cost of wind power to ⅙ what it was. Through gratitude, and because we are price makers, and are safest to deal with, and because we are the sole originators of all that is good in the modern steel windmill and tower, THE WORLD HAS GIVEN US MORE THAN HALF ITS WINDMILL BUSINESS. We believe in low prices, high grades and large sales. We make short hand with long power stroke pumps, with best seamless brass tube cylinders, lower than iron ones—a 2¼ x 16 inch at $1.55. We prepay freight to so branch houses. Send now for beautifully illustrated catalogue of up-to-date ideas, as this appears but once. Our imitators may not have in print our latest plans. No one knows the best Mill, Pump or Price until he knows ours.

A geared Aermotor on a barn is a POWER for good and a powerful good thing.
