A Letter from Asia.

Jas. Marks this week tells of the safe artival of Rev. and Mrs. Cavender at their nissionary field of labor at Lakawn, Laos, Asia. The trip was the longest bank, sometimes with their shoes and stockings off, wade out, and end up the evening by a bath in the river. Some of the sur sets are beautiful, hardly describable. The wild flowers offer nothing to beat America. They anticipated bananas and pine apples, but only cared for one kind of oranges. Among their narrow escapes was from the explosion of a bottle of amonia, the striking of a rock bottle of amonia, the striking of a rock without assurance of any reward. ottle of amonia, the striking of a rock hat nearly upset the boat. A. Lakawn hey have a lovely house, much better han they would have thought of having at home. They were to take an elephant ride to Ching Mai, a four weeks trip, going as the guests of Mrs. Dr. McKean.
