Wants a Divorce.—Laura Hill desires a divorce from Thomas Jefferson Hill, who has been her husband since the 27th of February, 1876, they having been married at Brownsville, Linn county, on it at date. Her complaint is now on file with the county clerk and the case will be heard by Judge Hewitt at the coming session of department No. 2, circuit court for Marion county. She alleges that her husband deserted her on Feb. 6, 1896, and has ever since remained a way from her. Three children is the issue of their marriage and she asks that she be named as their custodian and protector.—Statesman.
