Still They Come

The last? Not much. Still they come, those excursion trains, three yesterday, two today, there will be three tomorrow and more during the week, just as fast as the S. P. can handle them. The two today were greeted with a royal reception at the depot. The t. sins were mixed, containing passengers all the way from Georgia to Oregon. Nearly all of them were people who had taken advantage of the cheap rates to see the coast. In fact of the 42,000 people who came to the coast only about 12,000 were C. E's. The
