THURSDAY

HAD BEEN QUARANTINED.—Everybody on board has the Klondike fever, said a traveling man at a down town hotel in Astoria, says the Budget.

Another Paper B. R.—The leading business men of Eureka, says the Crescent City Record, have decided to raise the rate of the B. R. to build a railroad from Eureka to Grants Pass.

Let's Get It.—The Corvallis Times, yesterday says: The eighth carload of green fruit of the most desirable quality was received at the Corvallis station for the East yesterday morning.

ALASKA'S PROSPECT.—Judge M. G. Moody, who has just returned from a trip to Alaska on legal business, says that in his opinion the Stickeen river route to Yukon is the most feasible and practicable, and is attended with the least obstacles for goldseekers.

ANOTHER OREGON GENIUS.—Recent advice from the famous cartoonist, Homer C. Davenport, indicates that still another "Old Marion" son is likely to take a prominent place in the artistic world.

When Frank C. Richen, was recently killed by the cars between Wallula and Umatilla, left Oregon City for Eastern Oregon, he had $50 sewed up in his shirt.

Prof. Scott today returned from his outing at Soddville. Mr. Wren Ross and family left today for the Waido hills for a couple weeks outing.

Frank Perrett, L. Jacobs and two other men of the Upper Santiam left yesterday for the Klondike. Miss Emma Hill, daughter of Dr. J. L. Hill of Albany, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. W. Wiley the past month, left this morning for her home, The Dalles, T. M.

Prof. Arthur Lockman, of San Francisco, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. W. Wiley the past month, left this morning for his home, The Dalles, T. M.

The State University is to have an independent electric light plant. A new city of the Great Northwest, living south of this city, fell off a fence yesterday afternoon and broke his arm. Dr. Hill set the bone.

The Oregon School Supply House of this city has just received some sample desks that are remarkably cheap, considering the second hand nature of the desks. They are only $2.50 for singles, $3.25 for doubles and $4 for double automatics.

General Passenger and Ticket Agent F. J. Whitney, of the Great Northwest, in St. Paul has a novel way of infusing the spirit of confidence in his large army of agents. He sends out most of his agents upon them the importance of infusing confidence upon their friends and patrons.—Ex

WHEAT

The Albany market shows an improvement this evening with a quotation of 70c to 72c. At noon Liverpool had jumped up 8 cents, while New York had advanced 10 cents. Chicago was 9 1/2c and San Francisco 9 1/2c.

Why not attend the state fair when you can buy a ticket for one fare, round trip, from any point on the Southern Pacific lines in Oregon.

A Good Show.—Prof. Lantz has painted a big hog sign for a porcine dealer that is excellent in every respect. It is a good order. If that sign doesn't sell hog we miss it.

THE RAIN.—The recent rain has done great damage to hops. The hops in the valley and in the mountains are badly moldered as to necessitate abandoning the yield, and no doubt many other varieties are ruined.

FROM THE SANDWICH ISLANDS. Mr. and Mrs. George Otterson, of the Sandwich Islands, arrived in Albany this morning on a visit to the city.

DEATH OF N. H. ALLEN.

One of Albany's Leading Citizens Dies Suddenly. Mr. N. H. Allen, one of Albany's most prominent citizens died at 11 o'clock today.

Mr. Allen was taken ill about a week ago while en route to Chicago for a number of years and came to Oregon in 1874, going into the lumber business running with others a mill on the Willamette. In 1882 he sold out and went into the mercantile business with Martin, which he continued until selling to W. E. Read about ten years ago.

Mr. Allen was a member of St. John's Lodge, A. F. & M. Eastern Star, Knights of Pythias, Rathbone Sisters and O. U. W. He has been a prominent factor in many of the city's most prominent enterprises, with which his name is associated.

Mr. Allen was married in 1873 and lived with his wife and children in Albany, but through Oregon to spend his last days in Astoria, where he died.

HAWAII

The Examiner this morning contained a somewhat sensational article on Hawaiian affairs, taken from information received from Col. Beardslee of the navy department.

The Hawaiian Islands are situated on the very edge of the tropics, but their position in the Pacific Ocean gives them a climate unequalled by any other part of the globe.
