MAT SCOTT NEARLY DROWNED

While on a cattle buying expedition yesterday Mr. Matt Scott of this city was nearly drowned in the Santiam near Jef-ferson. He was on horse back when the animal got into deep water, and it was only after a desperate struggle that Mr. Scott saved himself. The horse was drowned and the saddle lost. Mr. Scott was taken to the home of Mr. Geo. De-Vaney, where he was well cared for, and an effort is being made today to find the horse and saddle. It is reported to have been a very close cast for Mr. Scott.
