A Treat to the Art Loving People of Albany.

Mrs. J. H. Barch us, one of Portlands' most popular artists, has opened a studio in the Cusick block, where the public is invited to call and view her paintings the has a fine collection comprising scenes from the Yellow Stone National park. Columbia river and all the principal snow capped mountains of the Pa-cific coast. Mrs. Barchus comes well recommended as she has exhibited her work in the National Academy of Design in New York City and received the gold medal at the Portland Art exhibit in 1887, and has sold paintings of our western scenery to tourists from almost every part of the globe. She is making a tour and as she wishes to make the her time will give lessons in landscape and marine painting at greatly reduced rates. The paintings are also on exhinition in the corner show window of Burkharı & Lee.

All are welcome to visit studio at any time during the day. See the paintings and enjoy a treat.

	The state legislature convened this afternoon. The only business to be transacted was to be the formal counting of the votes. The old organization will remain excepting sergeant at arms of the house, who will probably be changed. The formal inauguration of the Gov- ernor will take place tomorrow at 12 o'~ clock when Governor Geer's address will be read. CHARTER MEETING .- There was a fair court house last Saturday evening. May-or Burkhart presided. The proposed a-mendments, providing for the collection of taxes and assessment by the county, and the holding of the office by the mar •hal and treasurerfor a term of two years instead of one as now were discussed by Messrs. Hotchstedler, Galbraith, Sch-losser, Senders, Richards, Crabtree, Watson, Wallace and others. Upon motion itwas voted as the sense of the meeting that the amandments should be made to the charter. INCREASED TRAVEL .- On account of the
