A new star has arisen in the political firmament for the guidance of true democracy. The time which three men's souls always grapple with the leaders. It has been so in every crisis of the world's history. It is the same old story, the same old story, the same old story, the same old story.

The effort to abolish Judge Boise will undoubtedly fail. People are realizing that it is not a political movement with spite at the back of it.

The things of the state legislature are the most important events in Oregon during the week that is closing. In view of the number of bills that have been introduced and the great attempt to pass them, the recommendation of the Governor in his message that little be done, that the appropriation bill be passed and the body adjourn inside of a fortnight, is considerable of a feat.

What are we coming to? The Sentinel says the whiskey bill one man at a Balm drug store last month was $190, and thinks this was not fair to the saloon man who pays license.

The Joseph med'cal bill imposes a fine of $50 to $100 on the physician publishing a testimonial. Wonder if Joseph would like to have the papers leave his name entirely.

California is afflicted with a senatorial contest, which nearly all the candidates have been passing through.

There is no more reason why Oregon should spend $25,000 for the propagation of salmon in the Columbia River than there is for the state to spend $25,000 for the farmers.

Washington, Jan. 27.—The opposition to the army reorganization bill on the republican side of the house has become so strong that today Chairman Hill, after Henderson of Iowa, one of the floor leaders of the majority, had tried to pass the bill, he decided to give up.

In contrast to the situation in California, Oregon legislators have too much time to make laws, and they have really gone crazy over the task.

Senator Drake of Benton offered a joint memorial, asking congress to make an appropriation for Yaguna Bay. Adopted.

Washington, Jan. 27.—The president talked with a number of cabinet members today about the peace treaty. He expressed satisfaction that an agreement had been made for a vote and expressed confidence in the result.

How noticeable the fact is, more than half the legislation of different states in our national sessions comes in its own interest regardless of the rights of others.

Spain is fond of calling us "American dogs" but the Cubans are rapidly learning that when it comes to administering the affairs of their island the mother country was far more strongly inclined "dog" the revenue.—Republic.

Washington, Jan. 27.—A dispatch to the Herald from Havana says that a report has reached General Magoon that General Rabi with 1500 insurgents has taken to the water and is making his way to the coast of the Gulf of Mexico.

The whole world is now but the grumbling field of the great power. Just as gambling deteriorates and demoralizes the individual, so the greed for domination demoralizes governments.
