Conrad Myer and family have gone to the Bay for their summer outing.

Mrs. Dodd of the Sal-m school is in the city the guest of Mrs. Ina Moutelth.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

H. L. Pittock, manager of Oregon's greatest paper, was in the city yesterday with the editor.

Barney Bond, son of Albert Bond of Knox's Butte, is reported to have died at Marilla, recently.

Miss Lulu Woodside, of Baton Rouge, La., is in the city, the guest of L. H. Montague and family.

Dr. J. L. Hill, Albany's middle-of-the-road Populist expansionist war horse, was in town Friday.—Journal.

Hon. A. J. Johnson, of the state board of agriculture, and R. L. Hibler, of Scio, were in the city this afternoon.

Capt. Raab, for many years on the Willamette, is now in charge of a steamer running between Dawson city and the White Horse rapids.

Mrs. Edward Eccleston and two daughters Ruth and Mary, arrived in Albany this noon on a visit with Albany relatives and friends.

Prof. E. M. McElroy, of Eugene, one of the vice presidents of the National Teachers Association left last Saturday for Los Angeles.

Gov. Gen. Tuttle, District Attorney Hayden and H. A. Johnson passed through Albany last evening for San Francisco to meet the volunteers.

Prof. W. H. Boyer, of Portland, the well-known vocalist, has been granted a divorce from his wife, now in Ohio on a visit with her mother. Desertion was the cause.

Prof. Wright and family recently of the Astoria schools are in the city on their way to Lebanon, from which place they will soon take a trip to the mountains before going to Idaho to locate.

At the Tillamook celebration on the 4th among the participants in the foot races was Billy Marzic who figured in foot race circles twelve or fifteen years ago, and he won.

Porter Slate, of Tangent, is in the city today with a wooden harness. He told some of the editors in Portland that they were used and thought he would prove it. The Democrat man has never seen one yet.

A 4th of July sermon by Rev. Louis Banks of Cleveland, O., a graduate of Whitworth College, and who has a daughter at Oakville, has attracted attention. It's title is "Modern Giants."

A. I. Wagner and family left last night for Stockton, Cal., where he will take charge of the Imperial hotel. The Wagners will be missed from Salem by a large circle of friends.—Journal.

Among those in the excursion party at Albany yesterday was the editor of the Greencastle, Indiana, Free Press, one of the liveliest papers of that state, on the Democrat's exchange list for several years. The Democrat man regrets not meeting him.

A letter received this morning by her husband reported Mrs. William Baltimore and the party of school teachers safely across the California line. It was quite cold in the Sierras. Hay was looking fine along the road and the wheat was nearly yellow.

C. W. WATTS HOME.

Charles W. Watts arrived home from Dawson City yesterday noon after an absence of one year, six months and about two weeks, part of which was spent at Skagway, Dea and Lake Bennett. He is said to have brought back some gold dust. Mr. Watts besides having some interests in claims near Dawson has been in the boarding house business. He left Dawson on June 21 on a river steamer coming up the river to Lake Bennett and thence home by Skagway.

Mr. Watts was seen by the Democrat man this morning. He estimates the output this year at about $20,000,000, made principally by the old timers. Notwithstanding the fires Dawson is considerable of a city. When Mr. Watts left, the Cape Nome fever was on and many were leaving down the Yukon by steamer for the new fields on American territory.

Mr. Watts will return in a few weeks to look after his interests there at Dawson, and there are good reasons to believe that he will eventually have a pretty good take. He is lauded by the northern climate, but has had good health with all the hardships of the country. The trip out from Dawson now is an easy and pleasant one. Under the present arrangement a person can go from Albany to Dawson in nine days. One day to Seattle, three to Skagway, one to Lake Bennett, one across it and three to Dawson. It costs $140 and the freight down the Yukon is eight cents.

Mr. Watts considers Dawson about the best governed city in the world. While there he never heard a gun fired, nor even saw a revolver, never saw a fight and only one or two intoxicated men. The laws are absolutely enforced. All saloons and places of business are closed on Sunday, the bars are covered and the doors thrown wide open. Men do not dare violate the law, so severe is the punishment. The laborer never loses his pay. Tickets are attended to with promptness and care. Doctors receive $16 a visit. Gamblers are fined every month, and the receipts about $8,000 run things. People dress in style, the women particularly, in silks and satins. The cold weather does not bother people and is exaggerated. Under a big drainage the mosquitoes have fled from Dawson and sickness is much decreased.

Among the Linn county people there John Rolfe has the best prospects, and will come out with considerable money. He has a claim on shares. W. E. Savage is doing well and the Sheriff Briggs and Nels Thompson are making money. Young Boyles, who used to set up ten pins in a restaurant, Louis Parker and Roberts had been disappointed in their claim, which had not panned out as expected. He had not seen John Ison since his arrival. Mr. Watts brought back some fine specimens from a devils dice to a $12.50 nugget from the diff rent mines of the region.

FOR THE MONUMENT.—Mrs. J. V. Pipe is circulating a paper raising money for the big soldiers' monument to be erected some where in Oregon for which the Oregonian has already raised over $5,000. At least $4,000 is needed and Albany should do its share.

The first trip of the tidal wave train Saturday evening was a success. The sleeper from Portland was well filled and there was a good load in the day coach. The Oregon Telephone Co. having opened an office at Tangent. The Albany members of the Salvation Army have been in Portland to see and hear Commander Booth-Tucker. The Shaw Company passed through Albany yesterday morning on the steamer for Independence where they will play this week. Andrew Willis, who recently lost several horses in this city by their being run over by a Southern Pacific train, took the band to Salem. The Elks will make their annual excursion to the Bay next Sunday, the round trip rate being $1.50. Those desiring can go on Saturday and return Sunday evening or Monday morning for $2.

The city of Oakland, Or., has offered a reward of $625 for the arrest and conviction of the party or parties setting fire to the ware house and store of Joy & Neff on the morning of July 5, and the board of underwriters have added $500. It is to be hoped the guilty man is found. A fine amateur collection of pictures may be seen in the window of the Burkhardt block on First street. It offers a variety that is very pleasing and has attracted a good deal of attention. The artists are Chief Engineer Benjamin Cleland, Oliver Rowell and Dell Burkhardt. A verdict against Lipman, Wolf & Co., of Portland, for $2,500, was found by a jury Saturday for false arrest and imprisonment of Amelia Jester, a clerk, whom they had charged with stealing. Most of the jury were in favor of the full amount asked, $10,000, but one man held out and the verdict was a compromise.

DR. ADAMS, THE DENTIST, wishes to call the attention of many patients whose work is not finished to come and get it finished as he wishes to arrange for his annual summer trip to the Bay.

THE EDITORS.

Two train loads of six cars each of members of the National Editorial Association, including their wives and several Oregon editors, arrived in Albany between 12 and 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. They were landed at First and Railroad streets and immediately came up street with tickets addressed to the Revere, Russ House, St. Charles Hotel, Stettens and City Restaurant, which read: "Please take this weary traveler in, and when he asks for bread, give him not a stone. Albany, Or. Warning—Any editor caught winking at the girls will be fined $5." There were about three hundred of them and they were given the best lunch the city afforded. In some of the places toasts followed bringing out some live editorial paragraphs.

The editors were shown the courtesies of the city, being met at the West Side junction by a special car with the Mayor, committee and prominent citizens, and at their stopping place by the band and a crowd of citizens. Upon leaving they were presented with the city's best cherries and bouquets, going southward to be treated likewise by other cities, as they had been in the morning by the people of McMinnville. They are experiencing something of the hospitality of Oregonians at the time of the year when we can boast of the best climate in the world, with the grandest scenery in the world thrown in.

Oakville.

Dr. J. N. Smith, of Salem, accompanied by his daughter Mabel and Mrs. Ellis are visitors at the home of L. N. Smith (the Dr. parents) near here. Hon. Geo. D. Barton made a flying visit to his old haunts last week. The Judge has some fast horses of which he is proud.

Our people celebrated the 4th in various ways. Some went to Lebanon. Some of our young people went to "Smith's gravel bar" and had an enjoyable time. A few of us went to Brownsville and with regard to the latter place we can safely say that the best of order prevailed; no drunken men and no profanity. When we arrived on the grounds the first thing that attracted our attention was a notice prohibiting the firing of fire-crackers on the grounds by order of the city marshal and the notice was regarded by the boys. The main features of the meeting were: A nice grove, an able and eloquent speech, fine music, and last but not least a fine dinner. We dined at a table spread on the ground and the company which surrounded was composed of three professors and one school man besides women and children.

Mrs. Gray, of Halsey, died on the morning of July 3rd and was buried in the Oakville cemetery on the 5th. Mrs. Gray came to Oregon in 1863 and was about 75 years of age. A medal contest on the evening of July 11th. We are not in it. Mr. Singer, of Halsey, called on us last Wednesday. Mr. S. is selling a history of "Our War with Spain" by Murat Halstead. Mr. James Morgan, of Lake Creek, passed through here with a new binder last week. He says the prospect of a large crop of wheat is good. Mr. Oscar Dilley and family are in the mountains. They are accompanied by Mr. Pease and family.

TUESDAY

WRITERS FOR THE DEMOCRAT.—The DEMOCRAT not only had the honor of having two of the poems of Sam Simpson written for its columns and first published by it, but it transpires that two of the poems of the famous Cincinnati Hiner Miller, letter known as Joaquin Miller, were written for the DEMOCRAT. Mr. Miller in the winter of 1899-70 spent two weeks in Albany the guest of C. B. Bellinger, sen or editor of the DEMOCRAT, now of the U. S. court at Portland, and while here wrote two poems for the paper. The first was "The Source of the Willamette," afterwards republished and given the name by C. H. Stewart or J. Stewart & Sox, of "Clear Lake Mine on a Lake Mr. Miller never saw, and "Myrah," in Mr. Miller's book of poems, and often quoted. The DEMOCRAT will republish the Clear Lake poem tomorrow. It is an interesting fact that Joaquin Miller continues his friendship for Judge Bellinger and whenever in Portland makes the Judge's pleasant home his headquarters.

PAGUE'S REPORT.—The hay crop is turning out as well as it has ever done. Fall sown wheat, oats and barley are turning yellow; in a few favored localities early spring grain has commenced to head. The spring grain promises well; the yield will not be as heavy as the fall sown. The reports indicate that the grain crop is in a fairly satisfactory condition, not so good as in some years, but better than in others. The light fruit crop allows of an extra good growth of wood, so that the orchards are really benefited by the light crop.

The editors were given a breakfast at Eugene this morning on Skinner's Butte, 250 feet above the city. The Eugene Loan and Savings Bank has bought the A. V. Peters corner, paying $7,000 for it. The heirs of the late J. W. Anderson yesterday received $2,000 from the A. O. U. W., of which Mr. Anderson was a charter member of the Albany lodge. The committee on the editorial reception report a balance of $43.55. It will give general satisfaction if this is turned over to the committee on the reception to the volunteers when appointed at the meeting tomorrow night.

Watches! Watches! Watches! We have just received direct from the factory a large stock of the celebrated Duober-Hampden watches. THE WORLDS BEST. These watches were bought for cash and we offer special bargains. F. M. FRENCH, The Jeweler.

A Golden Wedding Anniversary.

On the evening of July the 9th, the children and grand-children of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac McElmurry began to arrive at the home of the latter, seven miles southeast of Albany, Or., and by 11 o'clock, July 10th, the children and families had all arrived, and a few invited friends. At 12:30 they all marched into the dining hall, to behold an elaborate table, filled with all kinds of good eatables, as one remarked: "Good enough for a king." The cause of the happy occasion was the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac McElmurry who moved from Arkansas to Oregon in 1849, and settled on the Luckamute, near Lewisville, in Polk Co., on July 14th of that year, where they purchased their first home. Mr. and Mrs. McElmurry are highly esteemed by all who know them.

On this occasion Mrs. McElmurry's wedding dress was worn by one of her grand daughters, and Mr. McElmurry wore his neck tie that he wore when they were married. Mr. and Mrs. McElmurry have had eight children born to them, six of whom are living. They have eight grand-children living, and ten dead, and one son-in-law dead, Mr. John Kurze, who died June 3rd, '98. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Isaac McElmurry, Albany, Or.; Mr. H. W. and Miss Nancy McElmurry who are yet at home, Mrs. Ollie Kurze, and Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Alexander and three children, Independence, Or.; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Compton and two children, Scio, Or.; Mr. and Mrs. S. H. McElmurry and three children, Wells, Or.; J. K. Charlton, ex-senior of Linn Co., Lebanon, Or.; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mery and two children, Lebanon, Or.; Mr. Charles Teague, Independence, Or.; Mrs. Nettie and "Grandma" Sparks, Albany, Or.

Long and happy has this old couple lived together, he being 22 and she 19 years of age, when they were married, and may their last days here be even happier if possible than the past is the wish of all present.

Grand Mid-Week Excursion to the Ocean!!

Under the Auspices of the W. C. T. U. Friday, July 14, 1899.

Train will leave Albany at 7 a. m., Corvallis at 7:30 a. m. arriving at Yaquina about 11 a. m. Returning will leave Newport at 7 p. m. arriving at Albany about 11 p. m.

Fare for the round trip from Albany, Corvallis, Philomath and Wren $1.50 including steamer ride from Yaquina to Newport.

Parties desiring to do so can go over on the regular 12:30 p. m. train on Thursday by paying 50 cents extra and return on the excursion train Friday, making $2.00 for the round trip.

Good accommodations will be furnished at reasonable rates at hotels and restaurants at Newport, or parties can take their own lunch and picnic on the beach.

This will be the first excursion to the ocean ever conducted exclusively by ladies and will be one of the most delightful excursions of the season, probably the last $2.00 excursion of the season.

Tickets will be on sale at the O & E ticket office, at the office of S. N. Steele and at the office of the People's Press, at any time after Wednesday morning. Secure your tickets early so as to give the R. R. Co. time to furnish cars. Plenty of cars will be furnished for all.

An Insane Stranger.

A stranger about 35 years of age stopped at the Exchange hotel last evening. Not coming down from his room this morning some one went up to see what the matter was when the contents of the room were found thrown in every direction with the man lying on his back on the floor. His eyes glared and he kept demanding a razor, saying that he would kill himself rather than go back to the asylum. Acting Chief Jones was notified and took charge of the man. He was examined by the regular commission, declared insane and was taken to the asylum this noon by Sheriff Munks. Upon telephoning to the asylum nothing was known about the man. He claimed to have been born in Kentucky and to have come to Oregon ten years ago.

Before leaving the man came to his senses and said he was from Corvallis and merely had an epileptic fit. It is probable he will be discharged in a few days.

PED COBROW'S ORATION.—The 11th at Riddle was a success in every respect. The large audience gave marked attention to the eloquent words of Hon. O. P. Cobrow. He gave a retrospect of our country's history, which has developed into a civilization without a parallel in the history of the world. The grand achievements of the 19th century were highly eulogized, showing the many advantages we now enjoy over our forefathers 123 years ago. He then launched out into the deep, and when he took up the subject "The G-gantic Trusts, Combines, Imperialism, Expansion, etc." thought he was gone, and I said in my heart, "goodbye neighbor," but he seemed to realize where he was drifting, turned his boat toward the shore and made a graceful landing, closed his oration poetically, and everybody was well pleased.—Cor. Review.

To Receive Volunteers.

The citizens of Albany and vicinity are requested to meet at the council chambers on Wednesday evening, July 12, 1899 to make arrangements to receive the volunteers returning from Manila. The date of their arrival in this city is yet uncertain, but funds can be collected and committees appointed. Let all who can do so, attend and prepare to give our boys a royal reception. C. G. BURKHART, Mayor.

Obituary.

Mrs. Sarah J. Gray died July 3, 1899, in Halsey, Linn Co., Or. She was partially paralyzed in April, 26, 1899, after an illness of almost ten weeks, she passed peacefully away. She was born near Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, Jan. 17, 1828. She moved with her father's family to Illinois. In September, 1848, she heard Christ call and gave her heart to God. She united with the Society Reform church. She had a quiet disposition, and was loved by all who knew her.

In October of the same year they moved to Ohio, lived there 6 years. Then removed to Iowa in 1865 where she resided until she was married to Newton B. Gordon at Cuba, Iowa, in Sept. 1859. He was a school teacher until he enlisted as a volunteer to save our country, was in the 22nd Regiment, Iowa Volunteers. He died at Milligan Bend, Louisiana, April 1863, of bronchitis. To them one son was born, Elmer E. Gordon, of Sheard, Or.

She crossed the plains with her brothers George, John and James Crawford and sister Mrs. John M. McBride in 1864, locating at Albany, Or. She was married to John B. Gray, of Portland, Or., Jan. 1865. To them one son was born, Dexter G. Gray, of Halsey, Or. She has been a member of the United Presbyterian church at Halsey since that time, they having lived in that vicinity most of the time since '65.

One brother, James Crawford, of Pendleton, Or., Mrs. M. A. Acheson, Sheard, Or., Mrs. John M. McBride, Eddyville, Or., survive her. The bereaved husband is still living at Halsey, Or. She had been an invalid over 30 years. May the virtues which adorned her life, be prized as worthy of imitation with a diligent fostering care. Remember children your present position before God and take heed unto your ways. The services were conducted by Revs. Long and Rev. Bellknop. The body was laid to rest at the Oakville cemetery, July 5, 1899. X.
