Mr. Fred Allen and family of Butte, Mon., formerly of Albany, arrived in the city this noon on a visit and are the guests of Mr. Allen's brother, F. E.

J. Van Wilson is recording secretary of Skinner's Cabin No. 5, Native Sons of Oregon, of Eugene, made such at a meeting Monday night.

Mr. Joe Ralston returned from Portland last evening, coming up on his bicycle leaving there about 6 a. m, and reaching here just before 6 p. m, stopping nearly three hours on the way.

The Young People's Society of the Baptist church will give a lawn sociable at the residence of Miss Bessie Burkhart this evening at 8:30. A lunch of ice cream and cake will be served. Admission 10 cents. All are cordially invited to attend.

P. L. Wallace, of near Lebanon, father of the well-known theological student, J. Sherman Wallace, is lying dangerously ill from a tumorous growth on his neck. Some of the tumor has been removed but one under the jugular vein cannot be reached.

Frank Thompson, of A Co., of McMinnville, who lost an eye at Malabon, and who has been referred to several times as a son of R. N. Thompson, as the DEMOCRAT had been informed, instead is a son of G. C. Thompson, of Brownsville. He was attending school at McMinnville when he enlisted. He is a brave boy and his parents have reason to be proud of him.

Prof. Hendren passed through Albany last night on the overland for his former home in Kentucky, where he will spend a month and then return to Troutdale on the Columbia, where he has been engaged to teach his second year in the public schools of that place, having given general satisfaction the past year.

Mr. A. B. Woodin came out from the Santiam mines last evening, bringing with him 140 pounds of splendid ore from his claim, in which he has been running a tunnel. The Belcher Company had some men at work on the Albany mines, and Mr. Lawler and Mr. Medina, the London millionaire, had just arrived. They will probably be in Albany this evening.

Mr. Hinks is back from the Santiam mines, and is much pleased with the outlook there. Among the best claims there is one owned by Bob Monroe who has a big dump of ore in sight, which Monroe thinks will average $40 to the ton. There is some indications of life there, and it is certainly to be hoped that the camp be made a fast and paying one.

Saw all the Boys.

Joel Booth, of Lebanon, who was mustered out from the hospital corps, of the second regiment at Manila six months ago, on account of illness, arrived in Albany this noon from San Francisco, where he has been attending Cooper Institute. He remained in San Francisco two weeks after the institute had closed in order to meet the Oregon boys and return with them if they came at once. He reported the Linn county boys all well and exceedingly happy at being on the Coast again, and whenever they come north they will stop at Albany, and in fact all the troops south of Portland will stop at their homes, which they are very properly anxious to reach just as soon as possible.

A SQUAWKER DID IT.—Mr. Horace Froman this forenoon had a load of hay at Skiptons stables ready to be unloaded when a boy came along with one of those new fangled squawkers going at full speed. It frightened the team and they ran away, turning in front of Worley's, where the load was tipped over, and the whole outfit came to a stop. When a man or boy loses his senses he immediately gets some horrid squawker or puts a rubber band on his wheel with which to frighten teams. Such fellows should not be permitted to ride a bicycle.

AT WATERLOO.—The outing season has begun there with a number sojourning from different places. Among them are Mr and Mrs W S Toole, who will soon go to Lower Soda, Mrs Hoeflick and family, Theodore Hoeflick and family, Mr G W Hunt, father of Mrs Ashby, the milliner, Mr Robert McCauley, father of the engineer killed in May, Mrs Vincent, of Salem, Mr Geo Croisen, of Lake Labish, Ben Crouch and family, Miss Susie Turpin, who is the guest of Mrs Jas. Morgan and Miss Ray Toole, who is visiting with Miss Ray Thompson. The DEMOCRAT is promised some Lower Soda soda water.

THE CHILD CULTURE CIRCLE will meet Thursday at 2:30 p. m. at the residence of Dr. Erskine. Subject, "The Instinct of Investigation, or the Training of the Senses." Questions: 1. Through what means is the inner being of the child awakened? 2. When does a baby begin his life work? 3. From what three stand points may the study of child-nature be considered? 4. What is the one thing that prevents us from being what we might have been? 5. What is lost to us from lack of perception? 6. What should the teacher or mother realize?

Mrs Tate, of Shedd, in coming to Albany this morning somewhere between that place and Tangent lost her purse containing $5. Her card was in the purse showing her address. She will appreciate its return.

A Child Enjoys

The pleasant flavor, gentle action, and soothing effect of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative, and if the father or mother be costive or bilious, the most gratifying results follow its use; so that it is the best family remedy known and every family should have a bottle. MISFITS.

Col. Summers has formally thanked Governor Geer for the great interest he took in the volunteers by personally going to San Francisco to meet them on their return. It is time for the band to play again.

A novel scheme for advertising has been adopted by a Scotch distiller. He bought a cargo of parrots, taught them to say "Drink ——'s whisky," and then presented them in gilt cages to the saloon keepers in Liverpool.

O, 'tis time that Otis stepped down and out of the Philippine campaign. There are good reasons to believe that this would occur were not all the papers after him regardless of politics. The more the papers have roasted Alger the tighter he sticks and it will probably be the case with Otis.

No wonder it is hard to get men to work on the railroads around Lewiston, Idaho, says the Calamity Howler in the Portland Commoner. I don't blame them. They have got to pay $4 road tax, $3 poll tax, $1.50 hospital fees, $1 for getting the job and 5 to 10 per cent discount upon getting their pay. The fee for the employment agent is all right but the rest is extortion and highway robbery.

The following told by the Lebanon E. A. is about the livest snake story out, and is entitled to a place in the misfit column:

J. L. Griggs, H. J. Downing and W. S. Smith, of Santiam precinct, came across a queer snake in a pasture a few days ago. It was dark brown in color and had two heads, one on each end. Both heads were exactly alike, and it had as good use of one as of the other, biting sticks with both mouths, and traveling in either direction with equal facility.

The following is an exaggerated illustration of what the editor thinks of the delinquent subscriber:

An editor who died of starvation was being escorted to heaven by an angel who had been sent out for that purpose. "May I look at the other place before we ascend to eternal happiness?" "Easily," said the angel. So they went below and skirmished around, taking in the sights. The angel lost sight of the editor and went around Hades to hunt him up. He was found sitting by a furnace, fanning himself and gazing with rapture on a lot of people in the fire. There was a sign on the furnace which said: "Delinquent Subscribers." "Come," said the angel, "we must be going." "You go on," said the editor, "I'm not going. This is heaven enough for me."
