VOL XXXIV

ALBANY, OREGON FRIDAY, JULY 28, 1899

NO. 51

BILIOUSNESS

Do you get up with a headache? Is there a bad taste in your mouth? Then you have a poor appetite and a weak digestion. You are frequently dizzy, always feel dull and drowsy. You have cold hands and feet. You get but little benefit from your food. You have no ambition to work and the sharp pains of neuralgia dart through your body. What is the cause of all this trouble? Constipated bowels.

Ayer's PILLS

will give you prompt relief and certain cure. Keep Your Blood Pure. If you have neglected your case a long time, you had better take Ayer's Sarsaparilla also. ### An Intellectual Test.

"Your name?" "Jan Przybyski." "How long have you been in this country?" "V. Helm McKinley." "Who wrote the Declaration of Independence?" "Congress." "Do you swear to obey the laws of this nation?" "George Washington." "What form of government is this?" "Ezrahem Linking." "That will do. You're accepted. Step down, I say." "Der Star Sprungled B-nner!" "Don't you understand me? I told you you were all right." "Dree cheez! Heep, heep hooray!" "Is it an examination for admission to citizenship? No, gentle reader, the man wants to be a soldier, and our great and good government has declared that a soldier needn't have any more brains than a voter."

From the Chronicle. "The question is, do the American people want to resolve their war for humanity into a bloody conquest of subjection? If they do, well and good; but for ourselves we believe they would prefer to try conciliation first. It is not true that it has been fairly tried already, for, as the Chronicle has often declared, and as Captain McQuestion now affirms, the peace commission was a bigger failure than the war. Scherman stood had had power from congress to offer something definite, and until this offer is made no actual and sensible attempt at conciliation can be had. That is why the Chronicle calls for an extra session. Let the representatives of the people get together and decide what they really mean to do for the Filipinos before the government wastes any more lives and money against them."

Blakely Reunion.

From the Brownsville Times: Captain James Blakely, of this city, held a reunion of his descendants on Thursday of this week, which will ever be a memorable day to the hundred and more relatives and friends present. Captain Blakely was born in Knox county, Tennessee, November 26, 1812. He married Miss Sarah Dick in Jefferson county, Tennessee, in 1832, which marriage was blessed with twelve children. The beloved wife and two of the children have passed to the great beyond. Captain Blakely's descendants now living comprise ten children, fifty grand children, and thirty-four great grand children. There were present, gathered once more under the parental roof, and at the family table, all of his living children, many of whom came many miles to be present, namely: Wm Blakely, of Benton, present sheriff of Umatilla county; Joseph Blakely, of Pendleton, ex-sheriff of Gilliam county; James Blakely, now of Wallowa, formerly sheriff of Crook county; George Blakely, of The Dalles, formerly judge of Wasco county; Henry Blakely, of this city; Margaret Smith, of Parrot, Montana; Eliou Montgomery, of Prineville, Kate Lewis, Prineville; Harriett Cooley and Sarah McFarland, of this city. Besides his children and grand children and great grand children, there were present his sons-in-law and many invited pioneer citizens of this county. Captain Blakely is worthy of all the praise bestowed on him by his descendants. He was a soldier of the Florida or Seminole Indian war of 1833, and was captain of a company in the Rogue River Indian war of 1854. He represented Linn county in the state legislature many years ago, and as a deserved honor, the cabin of Native Sons of this city and vicinity, last month named their camp "James Blakely Cabin No. 18."

Lebanon.

From the E. A.: Born, in this city, July 19, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller, a son. Dr. Lamberson visited Eugene Wednesday and purchased all the clittin bark to be found there—71 tons. Attorney G. H. Wilkes, of Florence, Colo., writes to friend in this place that owing to pressure of business he will be unable to visit the coast this summer, as he had intended.

N. Anderson, of Albany, was here yesterday and established an agency for the Magnolia laundry in this place, with W. J. Booth as agent. J. B. Thompson has contracted with B. S. McCornell to trade the St. Charles hotel property and business for 320 acres of land—with crop and improvements—in Stafford county, Kansas. Mr. McDonnell arrived here last week from Kansas, and made the trade soon after arriving. The property of each gentleman is worth about $6,000.

Herber: Ca leten, of Santiam precinct, met with quite an accident yesterday afternoon. He was hauling hay, when the top of the slipped off, he going with it and falling between the wheels and the hind wheel of the wagon passed over his stomach. Dr. Foley was hastily summoned to attend him. The Dr. says he is injured internally, but cannot yet tell how serious.
