A Missouri Editor Said:

The editor of the Trenton, Mo., Republican tells enthusiastically of his visit at Albany:

At Albany we had a sumptuous lunch. After noticing our meal ticket he says: Of course the editors were careful not to get caught.

This is the county seat of Linn county. This county is forty miles wide and seventy miles long. Careful estimates of the grain produced last year in this county are valued at $1,500,000, "a veritable Klondike at our doors" 800,000 pounds of butter at remunerative prices, 35 carloads of fruit shipped east last year consisting of prunes, pears, plums, cherries and apples. This county carried off the prize for the best fruit at Salem fair last year. Oregon is often termed the land of pretty girls and big red apples. "The statement is as true as holy writ." Legislation and drought are unknown. Statements concerning this county are copied from reports of C. B. Winn and A. J. Johnson.

I could add many more just as wonderful but I am writing for Missouri. Here we met Mrs. Weaver formerly of Trenton, well and happy and contented in her new home. Words cannot describe the beautiful roses she gave us. Mr. Weaver is in business here and it is a pleasure to report that he is doing well and he and his good wife are enjoying excellent health. It was not our pleasure to see Mr. Weaver as he was up in the mountains with a party fishing for mountain trout. A letter from him addressed to the writer at Portland, expressed a strong desire to have us spend a week at Albany which we would have been glad to do had circumstances permitted. Mr. and Mrs. Weaver think that is THE country.

Lebanon.

From the E. A.:

Miss Maggie Kirk, of Albany, went to Sweet Home yesterday to spend a week with her folks.

Mrs. W. A. McClain, of Albany, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Griggs, in Santiam precinct.

Elmer Head, recently from Kansas, is the new tinner employed by W. E. Chandler. The young man is a nephew of Mrs. Chandler.

From a private letter we learn that Attorney S. M. Garland and family arrived at his father's home in Richmond, Va., on August 5th. They were all well and having a nice time.

Mr. Parker, who will soon open a store in the Aldrich building, has leased the Montague residence (turnished) for a couple of months, and will occupy the same with his family as soon as they arrive from Miesonri, in two or three weeks. Mayor and Mrs. Montague will spend most of the winter in visiting their children and other relatives at different places.

That Mascot.

E. V. Borden, the new driver of Engine Company No. 7, who was a member of company E, has Jim, the Mascot of the 2nd regiment, in charge, and that is how he comes to be at the engine company's quarters.

Jim has many amusing tricks and will smoke a pipe if cigar smoke be blown into it, holding it in his mouth in regalia style, and evidently enjoying the smoke. Jim has a special antipathy to small boys, and does not allow them to come within reach. He bit a hole in one boy's shoe yesterday, and scratched another's face. Toward anyone but a small boy he is perfectly gentle and docile. Jim also dislikes bicycles, and if one is left in his reach he neatly punctures the tires with his needle-like teeth.

A great many persons have visited Engine No. 7 since Jim has been there, all taking great interest in the "mascot." - Telegram

Fatal Storm.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Aug. 18.—According to a Miami dispatch to the Times-Union and Citizen, Capt. Dillon, of the steamer Cocca, states that the town of Red Bay, on the island of Andros, 20 miles southwest of Nassau, was swept away in the recent tropical hurricane, and about 300 lives lost. An eye witness of the storm estimated that the loss of life on the island was fully 600. Scattered through the wreck of houses at Red Bay after the storm subsided, he said, were hundreds of corpses of persons of all ages and classes.

A Pugilist's Downfall.

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—Jack McCormack, of Philadelphia, knocked out Kid McCoy in about two minutes tonight. The bout was to have been for six rounds, and it was generally thought McCormack stood no show at all. He himself, before entering the ring, said that he was going to do his best, and let it go at that. The fight was so short and so quickly over that there was almost nothing to it but the punch that put McCoy to sleep.

The fire was caused by the overturning of a lamp in Vessey's hall.
