WEDNESDAY

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Lotus Crabtree has entered the college at Forest Grove.
Mrs. Chas. Conick of Salem is in the city the guest of her mother and sister. Miss Ida Maxwell went to Corvallis this noon on a visit with friends there.
Hon. J. H. Peery of near Seio, has been attending to business in the city today.

Mrs. E. D. Conick has gone to Seattle to be with her father Judge Piper, who is seriously ill.

Dr. Vard Lattler is out after confinement to his home for the past month with typhoid fever.

Dr. Hill returned from Seio last evening where he had been to attend Mrs. Redmond an old lady who fell and broke the hip joint.

The O. A. C. will have to play ball this year without the assistance of the great Pap Hayseed. He has accepted a position elsewhere.

Dr. J. A. Lamberson returned this noon from his trip to Eastern Oregon, where he had been called by the serious illness of his sister.

J. E. McIlvrey, the telephone man who has been in Coos county assisting in putting in several new systems, has returned home.

A. O. Beam returned this noon from the Bay with a fine string of salmon trout. Mr. Beam is becoming an expert at this kind of fishing.

Mr. Geo. M. Payne is making a new house of the residence recently purchased by him of Mr. Schram, among the improvements going on in the city.

Miss Pet Smith returned to her home to Lebanon last evening accompanied by Miss Pauline Adams of Ellensburg, Wash., who arrived on the noon train.

Rev. H. F. Wallace, pastor of the U. P. church in East Portland has resigned and will go east called there by the death of a sister whose estate demands his attention.

Mrs. A. L. Lamb has gone to Dawson to join her husband after a visit with Albany friends. On her first trip Mrs. Lamb for a while received $50 a week in a restaurant.

U. S. Senator Thos. Carter and Gov. R. B. Smith, of Montana, the latter accompanied by his staff, passed through Albany this week on their way to San Francisco to welcome the returning Montana volunteers, from Manila.

G. W. Taylor and James Keel returned last night from a bicycle trip to Portland, going on Saturday. Mr. Taylor reports the paths beyond Salem in fine condition and is an enthusiastic path man.

The return of Rev. W. J. Fenton to Albany by the conference at Grants Pass with full time at Albany, is greatly appreciated by the members of the church here. Rev. Fenton has done a good work here the past year, besides greatly improving the church property. The organization is now in excellent condition for the coming year work.

Monday evening last being the twenty fifth wedding anniversary of Chief of Police Lee and wife, a surprise was tendered them by the members of the Beniah Rebekah Lodge, at the Odd Fellows Hall, at which an impromptu program was rendered the most interesting and amusing of which was two vocal solos rendered by Mrs. Lee unconsciously entertaining herself. A beautiful china salad set and cracker jar were presented and the usual refreshments served.

County Convention.

The W. C. T. U. will hold its Annual County Convention at Plainview on the 27th and 28th of this month.

Linn county has done excellent work this year, increasing its membership an even hundred.

At the beginning of the year the state president offered as a prize to the county showing the largest increase in membership, her services for a lecture free of charge at the county convention, and old Linn carries off the honor, as usual.

While the day sessions will be full of good things the evenings will be gems. Wednesday evening there will be a "Matrons Contest" and on Thursday evening Mrs. Narcissa W. Kinney will deliver an address. All are invited to these meetings.

HENRIETTA BROWN,
Co. Press Supt.

Woodmen Reception.

Modern Woodmen, Royal Neighbors, attention.

There will be a joint meeting of the two camps on Saturday evening 23rd inst. at 8 p. m., for the purpose of tendering a reception to the members of the camp recently returned from Manila. There will be with us on that evening State Deputy Miller, and State Organizer Johnson. All members of the Modern Woodmen are requested to be at their hall promptly at 7 o'clock as important matters will come before the camp before the reception. Visiting members are respectfully invited to be present.

COMMITTEE OF ARRANGEMENTS.

Fall Opening

Of Pattern hats and sailors on Thursday and Friday at Mrs. Ashby's. Also a full line of Fur Capes and Coats.

Call one and all. No trouble to show goods. Some special sales in trimmed goods.

The flax yield around Seio this year is reported very small, being only two to five bushels per acre where fifteen was expected. For it though the farmer gets $1 a bushel under contract. The fibre was almost an entire failure.

Lose no time in calling on Will & Stark for the best watches, guaranteed time keepers, and take your time in buying. It is a pleasure to show their goods.

White Clover Honey, 10 cts. per lb. at C. E. Brownell's.

HOME AND ABROAD.

Eugene city has built a rock crushing outfit at a cost of $1,745.
Jerry Shen of onion fame has been in the city today.

The reported sale of the Exchange hotel to Mr. Hoag was not consummated.

A Corvallis paper boasts that wheat is half a cent more in that city than in Albany.

The two tramps working with the balls and chains, broke the balls off and lit out.

A goddess of liberty is standing on the court house tower with scales in hand ready to meet out justice.

Salem has a case pronounced by some of the physicians as small pox, but it is probably only chicken pox. There have been scares all over Oregon from chicken pox on account of ignorance in the matter.

Mr. E. Wills of Syracuse precinct raised fifty bushels to the acre on ten acres of wheat, weight measure, and the rest of his crop yielded big. Mr. Wills has good soil and farms well.

C. M. Collier has sued Charles Bruneau, P. J. Jennings and R. J. Jennings in the circuit court of Lane county for damages on account of an assault by one of the members of the firm, while making a survey of mining property. W. C. Hale is attorney for the plaintiff.

The open season for chinese pheasants will begin on October 1, which falls on Sunday. Several sportsmen who do not hunt on that day are anxious lest all the birds shall be killed before Monday. But it is probable some of the birds will be left.

Telegraph Operator Joseph Purdom at Athens, prevented a disastrous smash-up a few days ago by catching a string of runaway cars and applying the brake in time to control them. He tried four brakes before he got one that would work. The runaways would have met a delayed passenger train near the foot of the grade.

The Lebanon E. A. says: Hon. Ralph E. Johnson, a talented Nebraska orator, will make a series of speeches throughout the state in the interest of the Modern Woodmen of America, the leading fraternal order of the world. Its membership has increased 100,000 since last January.

The Marshfield Sun gives this reliable Cape Nome item: Mrs. Joseph Fox received a letter from her husband, who is in the Cape Nome mining district in Alaska, which brings the good news of Bill Tibbets having struck it rich in the mines in that locality. The letter says that Tibbets cleaned up $10,000 in 28 days with a rocker, also that Mr. Tibbets will come out soon and spend the winter in a more temperate climate.

Besides having one of the finest residences in the valley Father Metayer is to make an improvement that will be appreciated by a large number of people, that of putting a fine town clock in the tower of his residence, one with a striking that will be heard all over the city. This though should not in any way stop the introduction of one in the court house tower, which will not be complete without it.

MARRIED.

CLEM-SERFLING - In Albany, at the residence of Mrs. J. M. Irving, by Rev. H. L. Reed, on Wednesday noon, September 20, 1899, Mr. N. E. Clem and Miss Maggie Serfling.
