

The Boers.

After being driven from place to place the Boers finally settled in a new place beyond the Vaal river, says the World, where they gradually built up a peaceful and prosperous republic...

The boy who said that I R on internal revenue stamps stood for Infernal Robbery may not be so badly off after all if the war tax is to become a fixed policy of the republican party.

The principal business of a good many newspapers nowadays is lying about Bryan. But the American people have learned not to believe more than half what they read anyway.

The Northwest Herald, Portland's new illustrated paper is proving a very lively affair. It is a shouter, a striker, and bites the mark from the first line to the last.

The recent big train robbery near Chicago, was in a place so thickly settled as Albany. A resident of this city who has been on the spot a good many times looks upon it as a remarkable thing in the field of train robbery.

Mr. Lipton says he will try again. He will never win but if it was a race against any one else but the United States we would like to see him come out ahead.

Navigation on the Willamette means lower rates for the transportation of freight. It is strange that the railroad cannot carry freight as cheaply as river steamers.

President McKinley told Col. Summers that he was keeping in touch with the Pacific coast states. Certainly, election is approaching and the President is keeping in touch with the whole country just as much as possible.

For at least one day wars and rumors of wars were entirely set aside for the discussion of a post office robbery.

With the amount of business in the circuit court now one man could do the business easily and have time to spare.

One of the soldier boys expressed good deal when talking about the magnificent banquet given the soldiers that what he wanted was some of his mothers cooking, without any substitutes.

Misfit. Governor Geer is said to be booked for U. S. Senator to succeed Senator McBride. But there may be others.

The corns of the newspapers have been stepped on by the trust raising the price of white paper 30 per cent. And the paper has to stand it. A few delinquent subscribers might help them out though.

An exchange accuses the Oregonian of being an ally of the hop buyers stating that it is trying to get farmers to sell their hops in the interest of the buyers. That paper gets accused of nearly everything and certainly it has to be in the hop somewhere.

The U. S. engineers have recommended $47,000 for Swinomish slough, somewhere in Washington, among several other sloughs and mud puddles recommended, besides Long Tom in this valley.

Governor Geer has returned to Oregon from the east, where he went to assist in laying the corner stone of a new post office at the cross roads at the head of Lake Michigan.

There is only one brass cannon to be secured for Governor Geer, so that the prospects of a war cannon for Oregon are very poor. The Secretary of War though has sent the Governor word that he will have a cannon for Oregon if he has to buy it himself. We guess not.

The Salem Journal has some fun as follows: The Marion county government has sent its ultimatum to Linn county in regard to the Stayton bridge and closed the discussion. The Boers of Linn county are up in rebellion and have opened the bridge to the farmers of both sides.

Cuba is not yet ready for self-government say the imperialists. Translated this means that the imperialists are not yet equal to the strain of relinquishing their grasp on Cuba for honor's sake.

It looks very much as if Linn county is to have another murder trial on its hands. It is over a year since we have had one of these extravagant luxuries and it was to be hoped that it would be many years before there would be another. This seems to have arisen over a matter of $4, a small matter to cause murder, but then a majority of murders are over small matters.

County taxes will be delinquent on Nov. 1. Governor Lord's salary as minister to Argentina will be $10,000 a year.

The steamer Eugene was to leave Portland for Eugene this morning. It will now endeavor to make its complete run to that city.

No clue yet to the P. O. robbers. There is little doubt that the head man in it was an expert of considerable experience who has no doubt skipped out.

Three cases of scarlet fever are reported in the third ward. They are receiving special attention. The Madison school building is kept fumigated and well ventilated and there is no danger of the disease spreading.

Those who attended the reception to the volunteers given at Grand Prairie Grange Saturday night report one of the pleasantest receptions of the year. The young men were treated royally and appreciate the fact.

The Elmore came up last night on its first trip to Albany for the season and returned to Portland this morning with 3310 sacks of wheat for Balfour, Guthrie & Co., shipped from the Farmers warehouse of this city. The Elmore has been running during the entire season from Salem.

Albert Poole, once convicted but subsequently released for the Cow creek canyon train robbery, is in jail with a pal named Padberg, at Colville, Wash., for holding up a farmer for the purpose of robbery, and shooting John Hammill who came to the aid of the farmer.

Late News in Short Form.

They Weaken d. LONDON, Oct. 24.—The war office dispatch seems to realize to worst fears. General Yule has abandoned not only Dundee, but Gloucester also, and, so far as present news would indicate, he has neither joined Gen. White nor reached Ladysmith.

Great Expectation. MANILA, Oct. 24.—Hullo is stirred by the expectation of important fighting. General Pullon began "unrolling the bloody scroll," as he promised his followers in a recent speech, by firing volleys at the American outposts tonight.

Marion County Murder. SALEM, Oct. 24.—Ted Perry was shot and killed today on a farm four miles south of Salem, by J. A. Willard. The latter had rented the farm for a year and the controversy existed between them as to the time the lease expired.

Ois's War. MANILA, Oct. 23, 5:50 P. M.—The insurgents around Calamba and Angeles have bothered the Americans lately with their repeated attacks, which, like most of the Filipino attacks, consist of shooting a lot of ammunition into their opponents' camp from long range.

A Feeble Attack. CAPE TOWN, Oct. 23, 11:00 P. M.—News has been received from Dundee to the effect that the Boer disaster at Elmdale's Laagto staggered the Boers completely, rendering the attack upon Dundee feeble. Therefore, there is no cause for anxiety.

Attacking Gloucester. LONDON, Oct. 24.—The Daily Telegraph has received the following from Ladysmith. The Boers, reported to be 9000 strong, under the command of Commandant-General Joubert and President Kruger in person, are again today attacking Gloucester, General Yule, commanding our troops, has moved his camp back into a better defensive position.

Will Sail Saturday. VANCOUVER, Wash., Oct. 23.—Captain Povey, quartermaster on the transport Lennox, visited the port today and said he thought the Thirty-ninth Infantry would be able to sail from Portland about Saturday next. According to the latest order, the two companies of the Forty-fifth Infantry which have been recruited here, will sail with the Thirty-ninth.

Hot October Weather. OMAHA, Oct. 23.—All existing hot weather records for October the past 30 years have been broken in Nebraska during the past three days. Saturday the mercury reached 89 deg. in the shade at 4 P. M.; on Sunday it stood at 88 for four hours and today the maximum was 88, with a higher degree of humidity, which made the heat very hard to bear. The heat has been accompanied by a gale from the south.

Talk of Surrender. LONDON, Oct. 23.—A special dispatch from Cape Town dated Sunday, says that advices received from Pretoria report President Kruger as being in favor of an unconditional surrender. It is added that the executive council will meet Monday or Tuesday to discuss the advisability of such a step. The report, it is stated must be accepted with reserve.

The Boer War. CAPE TOWN, Oct. 22, 10 P. M.—A dispatch has just arrived announcing that the Boers are shelling Dundee, east of Gloucester, at long range, but that their fire is ineffective.

London, Oct. 22.—According to a special dispatch from the British camp, while pursuing the defeated Boers, were engaged by a strong force of the enemy on the north road. Firing is now in progress.

Final Bulletin. MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 22.—A special to the Times from Great Falls, Mont., says: Nine men perished in the recent blizzard. Five bodies have been recovered, and it is probable that this not half the list. The last found was that of H. Herald, a shepherd. The sheep had eaten off of his beard, clothing and part of his boots.

Major Howard Kilics. OMAHA, Oct. 22.—A special cable was received here today announcing the death in the Philippines on Saturday of Major Guy Howard, son of General G. O. Howard. The cablegram, dated Saturday, was received by Judge J. M. Woolworth, father-in-law of Major Howard, and read as follows: "Guy Howard killed in action today."

The Dynamiters. Moscow, Idaho, Oct. 22.—There are scenes of activity around the U. S. court-rooms in preparations for the term of federal court which will begin tomorrow under Judge Beatty. The principal interests centers in the trial of the alleged dynamiters from the Coeur d'Alene mining district. Their cases come first on the docket. The grand jury has its sittings Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Daring Robbery. ATCHISON, Kan., Oct. 22.—Two robbers last night shot and killed one man and wounded another in a store at Doniphan which they later robbed, and today ambushed and shot and killed a policeman and wounded another man, both members of a posse pursuing them. Tonight the robbers are surrounded six miles north of Atchison, and an attempt to arrest them will be made at daylight.

At Manila. MANILA, Oct. 23 8:50 A. M.—An American office was killed and two men wounded by the Filipinos in an attack on a launch with General Lawton's expedition in Blo Chiquita, near San Isidro. The rebels fired volleys from the shore.

Will interfere. New York, Oct. 24.—A dispatch to the Herald from Berlin says: Telegrams from Brussels announce that in Transvaal legation circles it is stated that France and Russia will not permit the annexation of the Transvaal and the Orange Free State to England.
