Sure Cure for Colds

When the children get their feet wet and take cold give them a hot foot bath, a bowl of hot drink, a dose of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and put them to bed. The chances are they will be all right in the morning. Continue the Cherry Pectoral a few days, until a cold has disappeared.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Every doctor knows that wild cherry bark is the best remedy known to medical science for soothing and healing inflamed throats and lungs.

TELEGRAPHIC. Late News in Short Form.

In South Africa.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—The Daily Mail publishes the following dispatch from Ladysmith, dated Wednesday morning:

Matteos today are quiet. The Boers are apparently mounting more heavy guns to the north and northeast, which are likely to give us trouble. A Boer contingent, 1500 strong, is clearly visible from the camp, streaming away to the south. The inhabitants of Ladysmith continue to leave the town.

Around Manila.

MANILA, Nov. 4, 9:25 A. M.—Chase's troop of the Third Cavalry and Rivers' troop of the Fourth Cavalry swam the river and surrounded the garrison at Bongabon, entering the town. The enemy escaped. Six rifles and a quantity of ammunition were captured.

The Beer's Losses.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—Belated dispatches from the British camp at Ladysmith add little information regarding Monday's fight except estimates of the Boer losses, which are now said to be 95 killed and 200 wounded, mostly victims of artillery shells, which have wrought such great havoc that it is said General Joubert has written a letter to Gen. White, British commander, protesting against the use of lyddite.

Thief Caught.

ELLENBRO, Nov. 3.—Sheriff Brown came in on a late train last night from Cielum with the man he arrested for the Rheinke robbery. William Rheinke was with him, carrying the recovered jewelry. The fellow was "sweated" after his arrest and finally directed Rheinke to a cedar pile, where it was found. It is believed all is recovered except on watch.

Fatal Fire.

New York, Nov. 3.—Fire today gutted the 7-story building at 94, 96 and 98 Mott street, occupied principally by the Manhattan Bed & Springs Company, and it is believed to have caused the death of 3 persons. Michael Colin, an engineer, was killed and Charles Smith and a youth named Rogers are missing.

Terrible Disaster.

ASTORIA, Nov. 3.—The landing stage of the Wasland railroad ferry-boat, on the left bank of the Scheldt river, broke in this morning, on the arrival of the first train, which was crowded. It is now known that 35 were drowned, and no fewer than 50 others injured.

Tonight and Friday, fair stationary temperature. 3.3 feet.

Rev. H. L. Reed went to Eugene this noon to preach tomorrow. Incidentally he might see the football game this afternoon between Eugene and Chemawa.

Brownsville.

From the Times:
Chas McGee journeyed Albanyward Monday.

Miss Elva Hale went to Albany this morning with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Westbrook, where she will visit for several days.

County Treasurer Jack and family and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Westbrook, of Albany, were called to this city by the death of L. M. Stevens.

The Times has heard no such story as the DEMOCRAT says was "raised" in Brownsville about 20 cases of small-pox in Albany. The facts are no such story was "raised" here. The liars reside elsewhere.

R. G. Wigle drove to the county seat Saturday to pay his quota on our well-bred court house and Albany's big clock, which the county pays for. Mrs. R. G., Mrs. Jode Pearl and Miss Winnie Pearl accompanied him.

Married, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ober on Wednesday, November 1, 1899, Mr. William Haverland and Miss Etta Ober, Rev. Benj. Hartman, of Albany, officiating. Both Mr. and Mrs. Haverland have resided near Brownsville for a number of years and enjoy the respect and esteem of many friends, who wish them a long and happy life.

Hon. J. K. Weatherford, Grand Master of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of the state of Oregon, will meet the members of Callapaola Lodge on the evening of Saturday, Nov. 11th, 1899. Years ago Mr. Weatherford was a member of the Odd Fellows Lodge of this city having been initiated into this order at this place. Hon. D. R. N. Blackburn, at present Attorney General of the state, for nearly a score of years has been a member of the lodge in this city and still retains his membership.

Lebanon.

Rev. Rufus Thompson, of Albany will preach at the Baptist church next Sunday morning and evening.

Ebert Thompson has withdrawn from Albany College and will attend Santiam Academy this winter.

W. M. Coplan, from Portland, has opened a new store in the Aldrich building carrying cloth, gents, furnishing goods, hats and shoes for men, women and children.

R. M. Brash, a former well-known young man of this place, is to be married at Moro next Sunday to Miss Cora Ragsdale.

Judge Barton and Commissioner Carl were over from Albany yesterday to inspect some repairs that have been made on the road along the river a few miles southeast from town.

The Scott boy is practically well, but will of course be kept at home the necessary length of time. The little girl who had the chicken pox a few weeks ago has some boils now, and that is all.

An Ex. says that "we hear the name of Attorney H. D. Norton of Grant's Pass mentioned as a candidate for Congress on the democratic ticket at the coming election. Harry would make a good runner here."

Two foot ball eleven passed through Albany this noon, the Willamettes for Corvallis, the Chemawas for Eugene. The DEMOCRAT'S prediction is that the O. A. C. and the U. of O. will be the winners. But they will have to rustle.

Little Bob Stewart this noon, when the Washington train stopped at the water tank, got on a car to cross. The train started up with the little fellow on board. A soldier appreciated the situation and let him to the ground when the train was going fast.

The Washington troops passed through the city at 12:40 and a while later in two sections for home, and they were evidently in a hurry to get there for the trains only stopped for water. There were quite a number of Albany people at the depot to see them if the opportunity offered.

The Waterloo correspondent of the Lebanon E. A. says: There was tumult in our city, last Monday evening. Some rude men, who claimed to think Mr. A. H., of Albany, and a worthy widow of our burg had been joined in wedlock's holy bonds, came like a thief (or a band of them) in the night, armed with 100 cow bells, 20 dish pans, 100 rounds of ammunition, and other weapons, etc., beelies lungs like Sioux warriors, and proceeded to make night sonorous with all the noises of the Inferno before mine host's house. Failing to get any refreshments, they departed as they came.

The foot ball game next Monday afternoon will give business men an opportunity to see a live game, where it is impossible for them to get away from their stores on the more busy day of Saturday. The admission will be 25 cents, 15 cents for children. The general make-up will be about the same as in the recent game, with two or three changes. Ramp will probably be at quarter, Howard at the end in place of Beeson who was injured and McClannahan at half.

The following letter from Rev. Louis Albert Banks, who many years ago was a Corvallis pastor, and who is now pastor of First M. E. church, Cleveland, Ohio, is a strong endorsement of Miss Oliver's ability: "Having read the most famous readers of the present day, I take pleasure in saying without hesitation that Miss Katherine E. Oliver has given me more pleasure as a reader and impersonator than any other I have ever heard. She is a rare artist who will give unmeasured delight to the most critical audience." At the U. P. church next Monday evening. Admission free. A liberal collection will be expected.
