ALBANY, OREGON FRIDAY DECEMBER 1, 1899

NO 18

It Hangs On

If it was only health, we might let it cling. But it is a cough. One cold no sooner passes off before another comes. But it's a same old cough all the time. And it's the same old story, too. There is first the cold, then the cough, then pneumonia or consumption with the long sickness, and life trembling in the balance.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

loosens the grasp of your cough. The congestion of the throat and lungs is removed; all inflammation is subdued; the parts are put perfectly at rest and the cough drops away. It has no diseased tissue on which to hang.

Dr. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral Plaster draws out inflammation of the lungs.

Advice Free. Remember we have a Medical Department. If you have any complaint whatever and desire the best medical advice you can possibly obtain, write the doctor freely. You will receive a prompt reply, without cost. Address, Dr. J. C. Ayer, Lowell, Mass.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Some Fighting.

BREMEN, Nov. 24.—The entire western division moved on Orange river Tuesday and camped at Whitepits. Two companies of mounted infantry and a detachment of lancers were sent to hold Thomas' farm. The Scots and grenadiers advanced to within 50 yards of the base, when the Boers poured in a scathing fire, staggering the guards momentarily. But, buckly recovering, they returned the deadly hail to the Boers. The duel was continued for a half hour.

A Broken Congress.

MANILA, Nov. 24.—Bautista, president of the Filipino congress, presented himself to General MacArthur today and formally renounced all further connection with the insurrection. He was one of the influential Filipinos who hesitated at the beginning of the war as to which side to cast his lot. He was offered a judgeship of the supreme court, but declined. He now announces that he desires to accept the position, and says the Filipino congress and cabinet are scattered, never to reassemble.

Now Mr Kruger.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—U. S. Consul Macrum, at Pretoria, has been instructed by cable to impress upon President Kruger that it is the view of this government that the usage of all civilized nations sanctions the ministrations of a neutral representative in the interest of citizens and captives of one of the parties to the war and he must further insist upon performing the sacred duty imposed by all the conditions of humanity.

About the Same.

DURBAN, Nov. 24.—An official message from General White, at Ladysmith, dated November 22, says: Situation unchanged. Troops well and cheerful. The Natal Advertiser confirms the report of fighting near Willow Grange.

A Complete Loss.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—The navy department received the following telegram from Captain Leuze, commanding the naval station at Cailite, dated at Manila today: The Cuirass reports that the Charleston has disappeared. The Cuirass was the relief ship sent out from Hong Kong.

A Good Boat.

BOSTON, Nov. 24.—Against tide, wind and a heavy head sea, for at least half her course, the battle-ship Kentucky made a record of 16.877 knots an hour today on her official speed trial.

SATURDAY.

The I. W. Veterans.

At the meeting of Camp No. 17, Indian War Veterans yesterday afternoon referred to yesterday, the following officers were reelected to serve for the ensuing year:

Jason Wheeler, captain
J. B. McFarland, 1st lieutenant
Sylvester Cannon, 2nd lieutenant
C. H. Walker, orderly sergeant
W. J. Smith, commissary sergeant
Dr. S. A. Smith, musician
A. B. Morris, corporal guard
F. M. Westfall, messenger

It was voted that a committee of four be appointed to draft a set of resolutions for transmittal to members of congress regarding the matter of pensions for Indian war veterans. Committee, A. Blevins, T. A. Riggs, A. B. Morris and O. H. Walker.

A vote of thanks was tendered McPherson Post No. 5, G. A. R. for use of hall.

Speeches were made to the effect that if the present members of congress did not secure favorable action in the matter of pensions the Indian War Veterans to the number of about 1400 and several thousand other voters in sympathy with them, propose to unite to put men in congress that will push the pension to a successful result.

Over twenty veterans were in attendance, several of them prominent citizens of Brownsville.

Wellington Shenfield, of Albany College, and Lis Broder, Charlie, from Corvallis, spent Sunday with their mother. —Dallas Itemizer.

The Chemawa foot ball team, gentlemanly a crowd of young men as ever handled a pigskin passed through Albany this noon for Corvallis, where the Democrat fears the O. A. C. will do them up this afternoon.

Football enthusiasm at Corvallis and Albany is so strong over the O. A. C. U. of O. game Thanksgiving day, that it is said not less than three carloads of excursionists will arrive from those points to witness the game.—Guard.

There are liable not to be enough turkeys to go around on Thanksgiving. Therefore it will be a good idea if you don't wish to get left to order early. The Albany Dressed Beef Co. will have a fine assortment. Place your order early.

Don't fail to attend the Poverty Social to be given by the Bathbone Sisters next Friday evening, Dec. 1. While the costumes of the company may indicate poverty, the welcome given the guests and the entertainment offered them will show that there is an abundance of good will and enjoyment among the Bathbone Sisters.

Geo. C. Davis, of the Tennessee settlement, tells us that the potato crop of his neighborhood—a section about two miles square—amounts to about 35,000 bushels. A good portion of the crop has been sold, at prices ranging from 20 to 30 cents per bushel.—Lebanon E. A.

A. J. Fox while attending to his horse last evening was kicked a severe blow, breaking his right leg above the ankle. Dr. Hill attended him, setting the bone. Mr. Fox is well along in years and the accident comes at a bad time in life.

The Mascot Gun Club will give a shoot on the 29th of November for turkey blue rocks will be used. When the Democrat man was a boy they had turkey shoots across a wide field at the turkeys themselves. They were placed in a box, with their heads out of a hole, the heads being shot at with rifles. The new way is much more human.

SATURDAY NIGHT THOUGHTS

One of the most startling things of the past week has been the so-called come-down of Admiral Dewey on account of his disposal of his property to his wife, property that had just been presented to him by a grateful people. All manner of talk has followed on account of it, introducing scandal for scandal-mongers and something for all kinds of people, no doubt based on some kind of facts. The result is undoubtedly the lowering of Admiral Dewey in the eyes of the public. It is probable that an elephant has been made out of a mole, a piece of indiscretion enlarged until it is a sensation. A man who has done his country a great service should not be dropped until there are serious grounds for it, more than a breach of promise case for instance. But the great public blows hot and cold and a man has to take what comes. It is about the same socially and politically.

In Albany there continues to be a live discussion over the approaching city election. The universal opinion as heard on the street and in the papers is that only good men should be elected to office. So we are assured of the election of some good men to office, are we? Well, it will be a very healthy thing to be on hand at the primaries nevertheless and see that they are nominated in both parties. As a matter of fact there is no politics in the matter of who shall fill the city offices. It is a serious business proposition and the time is ripe for making selections according to worth. That is what.

Never help circulate a report about any one unless you know what you are talking about. There are plenty of people who jump at conclusions and assist in the spreading of gossip who ought to go out of sight somewhere and hang their heads in shame. There ought to be anti-gossip societies to set down on the spreading of loose stories that affect character, the most valuable of all possessions.

Strictly business.

The Democrat man has been struck with the interesting fact in the religious world that when a man thinks he has got a little more religion than any one else he begins seeing how very weak all other professing Christians who do not believe and act just the way he does, are, and instead of putting his religion into practical use in the helping of mankind as the genuine Christian always will, he is kept busy telling people of the shortcomings of these other Christians, and what a great need there is for them to get just the kind he has in order to live right, etc. He spends his time splitting hairs on doctrinal points, about which there is bound to be a difference of opinion, and makes himself miserable, when he ought to be happy, complaining because other people can't see things as plain as the nose on a fighter's face, on which he and his fellow believers are authority. What the world needs to-day is less contention over points with a difference and the settling down to hard work for the betterment of mankind, thus glorifying God, a strong, steady pull for those around us, in love and not hate, more unselfishness socially, more honesty in business, straightforward, upright conduct politically, pure lives personally and in short such a life that you will not need to be labeled in order that the world may know that you are a follower of the humble Nazarine whose life was spent in doing good and not in contention over doctrinal matters.

Mr. Lee Payne of the Forest Grove College came home this noon on a visit. Judge Wolverson and Miss Edna Price came up this noon from Salem on a visit with their Albany friends.

Miss Cecile Stevens came down from Albany Tuesday for a visit with relatives, H. W. Stevens and family and Mrs. L. S. Webber and family.—Medford Mail.
