GOT LEFT.—F. C. Baker, the ex-state printer, who was on Friday's southbound train, in company with his father, the well-known Oregon pioneer, W. W. Baker, happened to get off the train when it stopped at Grant's Pass to engage in conversation with a friend, when through a misunderstanding as to the duration of the train's stop, Frank missed it on its departure. He then chartered a special engine from the S. P. Co., at a cost of $40, and arrived in Ashland about two minutes after the train which had gone off without him from the Pass, reached this city.—Ashland Tidings.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. Claud Vunk, of Mill City, is in the city.

Mr. Robert Huston, of Corvallis, is in the city.

There was born to Mr. and Mrs. Hank Hayes in Corvallis last Saturday a son.

A Special meeting called "The Fourfooted Doctor", is announced for Saturday night at the Salvation Army.

Mrs. Jane Failing and youngest daughter, came up from Portland this noon on a visit with Albany friends and is the guest of her sister Mrs. Kate Burkhart.

Charles Schmitt has retired from the Occidental hotel at Corvallis, and Mr. Mack Brunk is now sole proprietor. Schmitt will go to Cape Nome, the family during his absence residing in Portland.

E. R. Skipworth of Eugene, and G. F. Skipworth of Junction, were in the city yesterday afternoon. The DEMOCRAT begs Mr. E. R. Skipworth's pardon for accusing him of having voted for McKinley. He voted for Palmer and is sorry for that. He considers the present president the weakest one the United States has ever had, a man run entirely by the bosses. In the next election Mr. Skipworth will show his opposition to the trusts and imperialism by voting for Bryan if nominated, though he disagrees with him on the silver quetion.

Native Daughters

Amelia Fisher Cabin No. 17 Native Daughters was organized yesterday afternoon in the Maccabee hall with a good membership, the new society being named after the late Mrs Fisher. The following officers were elected:

Mrs. Weatherford, past president.
Mrs. L. M. Curl, president.
Mrs. J. A. Van Winkle, 1st vice president.
Miss Olga Hewitt, 2nd vice president.
Miss Mamie Montgomery, 3rd vice president.
Miss Ada Morris, recording secretary.
Miss Virginia Gordon, financial secretary.
Mrs. Sina Cummings, treasurer.
Mrs. Jas. McHargue, marshal.
Mrs. William Farley, inside sentinel.
Mrs. Jas. Morgan, outside sentinel.
Miss Mamie Allen, Carrie Saltmarsh and Nettie M. Whitney, trustees.

The organization was effected by Mrs. Edyth Wetherred of Portland, one of Oregon's brightest women, a native of 1861 and a lady of strong individuality and fine address.

The charter will be kept open for thirty days. The next meeting will be held on next Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

In the evening a union social with the Native sons was held in the hall and was a very enjoyable gathering of natives.

NEXT ATTRACTION.—That world renowned ensemble of bewitching beauties and modern fun makers entitled, The Rentz Santley Novelty and Burlesque Company, who are undoubtedly the leaders in all that appertains to their particular style of entertainments, are announced to appear at the Armory on tomorrow night.

They promise nothing that is not new; and lay claim to having the largest number of the prettiest and the most talented girls that have ever been seen in one aggregation, as well as the best "bunch of comedians" and a number of the cleverest vaudeville acts.

FINE COFFEE.—The Dwinell-Wright Co will please accept the thanks of the DEMOCRAT man for a big can of their White House Mocha and Java coffee, a sample of which has demonstrated its delicious quality. Good coffee is always appreciated even by newspaper men. A representative of Dwinell Wright Co. is at McFeron & Tomlinson's, where those interested can test the White House.

The Guard says of the drowning of Will Burbee: His horse was found in the road near Lancaster and it was wet all over, showing it had been in the slough. The supposition is, that Mr. Burbee rode over the bank of the slough and fell off his horse, and as he had a coil of wire over his shoulder it prevented him from swimming out. The bank showed where the horse went over and came out.

THE THORN CASE.—The Guard in its account of the examination of Harvey, one of the brakemen accused of abducting the Thorn girl says:

Miss Thorn, the victim of the dastardly crime, was the first witness on the stand. She is a modest looking girl of less than 16 years, and from the first created a favorable impression, telling her story in a straightforward manner. Only once or twice during the recital of her pitiful story did she hesitate, and then apparently from an aversion to alluding to the disgraceful affair. The defense failed to break down her evidence on cross-examination, and when she was asked why she did not resist and cry for help, stated that Patterson and Harvey, who she alleged forced her upon the car, threatened her life.

I. O. O. F attention: There will be work in the second degree this evening. A full attendance is desired. Sojourning brothers especially invited. By order of the N. G.

Don't Use Big Words.....

In promulgating your esoteric cogitations, or articulating superficial sentimentalities and philosophical psychological observations, beware of platitudinous ponderosity. Let your conversations possess a clarified concisceness, comprehensibleness, coalescent consistency and a concatenated cogency.

Eschew all conglomerations of flatulent garrulity, jejune babblement and assinine affections. Let your extemporaneous descantings and unpremeditated expatiations have intelligibility and veracious vivacity, without rodomontade or thrasonical bombast. Sedulously avoid polysyllabic profundity, pompous prolixity, ventriloquial verbosity and vaniloquent vapidity.

In other words,

Go to F. E Allen & Co's store and get the best Java and Mocha coffee to be procured, in other words, you will be treated right on any thing you buy of them.
